The Times as follows:

"We would like to learn the name and address of any relative of Walter Cross-kill, a carpenter, who resided in some part of Canada many years ago. About twenty-five years ago his wife was killed in a railway accident, and their daughter is supposed to have gone to France a short time later. The heirs of this man are entitled to several thousand dollars."

Anyone having information concerning them is requested to communicate with Mr. Dwyer at once.
