SYNOPSIS OF THE CANADA TEMPERANCE ACT.

This Act was passed by the Parliament of Canada in the Session of 1878, and received the assent of the Governor General on the 10th of May that year. The object is to promote Temperance in the Dominion, and secure a uniform legislation in all the Provinces respecting the traffic in Intoxicating Liquors.

PRELIMINARY STEPS. The first step to be taken in any County where the submission of the Act is desired, is to obtain the signatures of at least one-fourth of the Dominion electors to a petition, which petition, when duly signed, is to be deposited with the Sheriff or Registrar of deeds, for public examination for ten days, then forwarded to the Governor-General through the Secretary of State, with evidence that the necessary forms have been complied with.

THE PROVISIONS OF THE ACT. RETAIL. When the Act has been adopted and in force, it closes at once and thoroughly all shops for the sale of intoxicating liquors, except for three purposes, 1st, sacramental; 2d, medicinal; 3rd, mechanical or chemical.

WHOLESALE. No person can sell by wholesale, except he have a license therefor from the local licensing authority, and a person exclusively engaged in some wholesale trade. No retail trader in part or whole, can hold a wholesale liquor license.

THE defendant in any prosecution is to furnish satisfactory evidence that he had good reasons for believing that such liquors would forthwith be removed beyond the limits of the County or City, or of any adjoining County or City in which the Act is in force.

Every person who, before or after any polling of voters under this Act, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives, agrees or contracts for any money, gift, loan or valuable consideration, office, place or employment, for himself or any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any poll under this Act.

Every person who, after any poll under this Act, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives any money or valuable consideration for having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any poll under this Act.

Every person who, before or after any polling of voters under this Act, directly or indirectly, himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives, agrees or contracts for any money, gift, loan or valuable consideration, office, place or employment, for himself or any other person, for voting or agreeing to vote, or for refraining or agreeing to refrain from voting at any poll under this Act.

Every person who, after any poll under this Act, directly or indirectly, by himself or by any other person on his behalf, receives any money or valuable consideration for having voted or refrained from voting, or having induced any other person to vote or refrain from voting at any poll under this Act.
