Not Guilty.The Fiftieth Anniversary of Hon.
Senator and Mrs. Dickey.

HALIFAX.

Halifax, Oct. 10.—Laidlaw of Dartmouth and Dowd of Montreal had a skating race last year. On Baker's Island, the race was won by Laidlaw. It was not a genuine contest. Judge Johnston today decided that Baker was entitled to recover the $200 bet, as such transactions were not defined by statute as gambling, even if the race should be a fake.

Halifax, Oct. 11.—Judgment was given today in the celebrated case of Hugh D. Cann & others of Yarmouth v. Robert S. Ekins, Esq., Franklin Clements, Edgar W. Clements, Albert M. Perrin, Linus M. Childs, Boston and Newport capitalists, in favor of plaintiffs for $45,000. The action arose out of an amalgamation of the Yarmouth Gas Light Company and the Yarmouth Electric Light Company. The plaintiffs who were shareholders claimed that the defendants who were the directors of the Gas company fraudulently procured a controlling interest in the stock of the Gas company and then purchased the Electric Light plant owned by themselves and their friends, at an exorbitant price, the result of which was that the interest of the plaintiffs in the stock and property of the Gas company was wholly lost.

Halifax, Oct. 12.—A. M. K. Dull, inspector of the Eastern Assurance company, has resigned his position. Mr. Dull is a son of the president of the company. Lawyer George H. Fielding has left for Boston, having been summoned by the heirs of the late Dr. M. Slade of Boston to bring a suit for the recovery of property in Halifax valued at over $500,000. He is also retained to take proceedings against a well known government official who is charged with keeping several thousand dollars received by him for heirs in question.

AMHERST.

Amherst, Oct. 10.—Hon. Senator and Mrs. Dickey today celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their wedding. Robert Barry Dickey and Mary Blair Stewart, daughter of Hon. Alex. Stewart, were married October 10th by Canon Townshend, the present rector of Christ's church here. The event was commemorated this evening by having a golden wedding at their residence.

The remains of the late Rev. D. C. Lawson was interred here today, the funeral being attended by many people from different sections of the country. The trial of Annie McKenzie of Joggins Mines today before Judge Westbury and a jury at the supreme court for the murder of her infant child at Springhill, Sept. 12th, resulted, after a whole day's hearing in the acquittal of the accused, the jury, after an absence of fifteen minutes, returning with a verdict of not guilty.

Amherst, Oct. 11.—James D. McGregor, ex-M. P. of R. McGregor & Sons, New Glasgow, was married yesterday at Montreal to a Miss Ridley. Mrs. John McKean of Amherst and Miss McGregor of New Glasgow accompanied their brother, the groom, to Montreal and were present at the wedding.

County Jailor Acorn has raised the ire of our town officials and members of the board of trade by fencing off a portion of Victoria square in order to use the same as a vegetable garden. As Victoria square is Amherst's park, an effort is being made to make the jailor disgorge.

The board of trade have even resolved that in view of the advantages to the general interests of the town to be derived from the location in the town of a woollen mill, it is of the opinion of the board of trade that Amherst should offer inducements as will lead to the establishment of such a mill here and the secretary was instructed to write the managers of the Truro hat factory, offering inducements for them to come here.

The board of trade also passed the following resolution with regard to the Chignecto marine railway: Whereas, the failure to complete the work within the time specified in the contract was occasioned by no fault of the company; Whereas, the Dominion government, through the operation of this company, is already in receipt of a large amount through the customs duties and railway freights on the plant and material;

Whereas, the people of this country have been used to providing a means of way to encourage the construction of the work; and Whereas, the company is now and has been for several years in possession of the work to a successful completion, lacking only an extension of time from the government of Canada;

Resolved, That this board record its indignation at the unjustifiable delay in the Dominion government in granting the extension asked for.

In reference to the commemorating of the fiftieth anniversary of the marriage of Hon. Senator and Mrs. Dickey, last evening, the following may be of interest to readers of The Sun: Mr. and Mrs. Dickey were married in the old church which stood in the Church of England cemetery. Col. Stewart (brother of Mrs. Dickey) and Lady Tupper, then Miss Francis Morse, were first groomsmen and bridesmaids, an officer from Halifax and a Miss Sarah White were second groomsmen and bridesmaids. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Dickey drove to the residence of Canon Townshend, brother of the bride, where a large wedding reception was held. The marriage took place on a Thursday and they remained in town at the house of Mr. Dickey's parents, who then resided in the house now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Dickey, until Sunday, when they left for Halifax, en route for Great Britain. Mr. Dickey was born in this town November 10th, 1811, the only son of the late Robert McGowan Dickey, who represented this county for fifteen years. His great grand parents came from Londonderry, Ireland, to Cornwallis, where his grandfather, Wm. Dickey, was born, being the first white child born in that place. His mother was the daughter of Thomas Chipman, a native of Yorkshire, Eng. She died March 3, 1848. His father died in January, 1864.

WEDDING BELLS.

St. Paul's church was the scene of a quiet, although a none the less interesting event, at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Andrew Jack, of R. G. Dun & Co.'s agency in this city, led the altar Miss Louise DeVeber, daughter of J. S. Boies DeVeber, county treasurer. Although the hour was early a large number of people had assembled to witness the nuptials. The only guests were the immediate relatives of the bride and groom. The bride, who was becomingly attired in a handsome fawn travelling costume, was attended by her sister, Miss Beatrice DeVeber. The groom was supported by D. J. McDonald, of Sydney, C.B. Rev. Canon DeVeber, assisted by Rev. A. G. H. Dickey, performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Jack left immediately after the wedding by the morning express for a trip to New York, Philadelphia, Washington, and other cities. On their return they will reside on Hazen street. They were the recipients of many handsome presents.

Fred. C. Melick, of this city, was married Wednesday morning to Miss Annie Watson, daughter of A. A. Watson. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. L. J. Macneil, pastor of St. Andrew's church, took place at six o'clock at the residence of the bride's father. The bride was attired in a becoming travelling costume of navy blue, with hat to match, and carried a beautiful bouquet of roses. Only the near relatives of the bride and groom were present. After breakfasting at a sumptuous wedding breakfast, Mr. and Mrs. Melick took the steamer Monticello en route to Boston via Yarmouth. They received many handsome presents. The Co. burg street whist club presented Mr. Melick with a fine engraving.

A quiet wedding took place in St. Andrew's church at 7 o'clock Wednesday morning, when Miss Jeanne Louise Bell, daughter of C. W. Bell, was united in marriage to G. Brenton Sutherland, of New Glasgow, N.S. The bride, who looked charming in a travelling costume of beaver cloth, was attended by her sister, little Miss Gretchen Bell. Rev. L. G. Macneil performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland left by steamer for a trip to Boston and New York. They were the recipients of many handsome gifts.

The quiet village of Nerepis, Kings Co., was the scene of a very interesting event on Wednesday evening, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Susan M. Nase, daughter of Henry Nase, to William J. McKenna, son of D. W. McKenna, both of Nerepis, Kings Co. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. Parlee, at the residence of the bride's father. The happy couple proceeded to Woodstock, their future home. The numerous presents received by the bride attest her personal popularity.

AN AMUSING STORY.

Sent Afloat Concerning Trouble Between the Dominion and Imperial Governments.

Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 11.—There is friction between the Dominion government and the Imperial government over the Behring sea matters and the correspondence which has passed between the governments will show, if published, that in order to maintain friendly relations with the United States, the Imperial authorities have surrendered many important points and refused to support the contentions of the Canadian government. In order to put itself right before the people, the Canadian government has been pressing for permission to publish all the correspondence, but the Canadian office positively declines to allow the publication of any of its correspondence beyond that which it may deem expedient to make public.

TO BE EXTRADITED.

London, Oct. 11.—Percival R. Neslie, the Canadian customs officer who was arrested here on Sept. 18, charged with absconding with $6,000 belonging to the customs department of the Dominion of Canada, was committed at Bow street police court today for extradition to Regina, Assinibois, Northwest territory.

NEW WHEAT RECORD.

New York, Oct. 12.—Wheat made a new low record on the first sale this morning, which was 56 3/8 for December, and at midday beat even this figure, selling off to 56 1/8.

WOLFVILLE FRUIT.

A St. John man returned a day or two ago from Wolfville, Nova Scotia, where he had been transacting some business. During his stay in that little town he visited Earncliffe gardens, the property of W. C. Archibald. These gardens are situated in the centre of the town and are consequently among the most valuable in the province. They contain 600 apple, 1,000 pear, 1,000 peach and about 4,000 plum trees. All of these have been bearing fruit since 1880. From 1,500 of his plum trees Mr. Archibald picked 2,500 baskets. He intends to pick 10 barrels of plum seeds next spring. Several men are employed in these gardens from spring until fall, and during the rush of work extra hands are required. The gardens are laid out with great care and taste. Mr. Archibald has a canning factory, and last year did quite a stroke of business in preserving fruit. He will can a larger amount this year.

HE WAS IN LUCK.

American sporting men are taking advantage of the open season in this province, and during the past week or two they have been scouring the New Brunswick woods in search of game. A shot was taken by a Boston man yesterday. He has been in Canaan, Queens county, for a week, and during that time shot twenty brace of quail, a fox, two rabbits, eighteen squirrels and one skunk. He had a beautiful setter dog with him. This gentleman has been down this way for five consecutive falls, and has had his dog fight with him every visit.

For Cholera Morbus, Cholera Infantum, Cramps, Colic, Diarrhoea, Dysentery, and Summer Complaint, Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is a prompt, safe and sure cure that has been a popular favorite for over 40 years.

HOLMES' MEMORIAL DAY.

Boston Churches Pay Tribute to the Dead Author and Poet.

Several Sermons Delivered in Boston and New York Yesterday.

Day Was Generally Observed by Boston Clergymen in Paying Tribute to the Poet.

Boston, Oct. 14.—In many churches of this city today fitting tribute was paid to the memory of Oliver Wendell Holmes. In fact, so general was this proceeding that the day might almost be called a Holmes memorial Sunday. Rev. Minot J. Savage, of the Church of the Unity, Rev. George A. Gordon, of the New Old South, Dr. Donald, of Trinity and Rev. Walter Culler, of the Bowdoin Square Tabernacle, were among the prominent pastors who devoted their sermons especially to the life and works of Dr. Holmes.

New York, Oct. 14.—The "Late author of the Breakfast Table" was the subject of the address of Rev. D. C. Colyer, pastor of the Church of the Messiah today. "I feel some touch of anger," said the theme of the newspaper reference to Dr. Holmes in which he was described as a man of limitations. Such remarks, touching so grand a man, are mistaken. Of all men I have known, I think he is the last of whom we could say, he was such and he was not that. He was just Oliver Wendell Holmes, the good physician and the grand poet. He was himself and a bit of the truest manhood known in this generation."

"Sidney Smith sneeringly asked: 'Who reads an American book?' While he was asking this question half a dozen Americans were preparing to write books which all the world should know."

Among these men were Hawthorne, Longfellow, Emerson, Lowell and Whitier. Holmes was the centre of this brilliant galaxy. There was no writer in the group who reached so lofty a position as Tennyson and Browning, but the average attained by American writers during the period is higher than that reached by British writers in the same time. "One's heart grows sad as he thinks that the last of this group has gone. There was never before such an American school, and in the nature of the case there can never be such another. The Canadian government has great political upheaval or nature's cataclysm, shall we again produce such a school of poets."

THE CZAR'S HEALTH.

He Suffers a Relapse and Prof. Leyden is Called.

Berlin, Oct. 11.—A member of the staff of the Russian embassy of this city informed the Associated Press correspondent this evening that the reason Prof. Leyden was for the second time called to attend the czar, was because the distinguished surgeon had suffered a relapse. This is shown in his greatly increased difficulty in breathing and in repeated periods of unconsciousness. Within the last week the czar's nervousness has grown worse so rapidly as to make him irritable and greatly lessening his chances of recovery. Prof. Leyden will reach Livadia on Sunday night and will accompany the czar to Corfu, where he will remain for the winter. He has received six months leave of absence from the Prussian government. The distinguished German specialist persists in his favorable diagnosis of the czar's case, and fully believes that if he is left in the hands of Prof. Leyden, he will be able to effect a cure. Prof. Leyden has taken to Livadia a liberal supply of drugs, his operating tools and a new remedy, supposed to be a specific against the disease, and in which Prof. Koch and Prof. Leyden both have much hope. The officials of the Russian embassy have no doubt that the czar has the best chance obtainable in Prof. Leyden's hands, because he is placed himself under the orders of a German physician unreservedly, and as a preliminary, dismissed Prof. Zacharlin.

London, Oct. 15.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times says that the news that the czar was confined by the very best informed circles, The Vienna correspondent of the same paper, on the contrary, hears very unfavorable reports.

INDIAN CONFERENCE.

Work and Wages Brought Up and Discussed at Yesterday's Session.

Mohawk Lake, N. Y., Oct. 11.—The Indian conference today was opened by a short statement by Bishop Whipple, who read from the Rev. Everett Hale an interesting letter noting the fact that Elliot's Indian bibles are not in the German language as has been supposed, but can be read and understood by the Winnebago Indians and probably by those of other tribes.

The subject of the morning, work and wages for Indians, was introduced by Miss Sybil Carter. The best kind of help for Indians, Miss Carter said, is to give them work and pay them for it.

Captain Pratt, of the Carlisle school, handed their guns was enough to convince the most skeptical that they are old in the business and they would just as soon hunt Indians as moose. The Italians might just as well understand that they cannot do as they like in this country, and while they have the sympathy of the citizens in their sorry plight, yet they will not be allowed to kidnap human beings.

MARRAZZA KIDNAPPED.

Number Two Gang of Italians Seize the Contractor and Secrete Him in Their Camp.

Blue Jackets from the Curlew and Acadia, Together with Shelburne Volunteers to the Rescue.

(Shelburne Budget.) The Italians still continue to make things interesting. As stated last week, Mr. Marrazza left the jail, and since then has been quartered at No. 2 camp. Early Tuesday morning a representation from No. 2 camp enticed the contractor to the door, and when they had him safely outside, grabbed him and forced him to their quarters. The men who did this belong to the crowd that have caused all the trouble and who display great enmity to Marrazza, and it was feared they would do him bodily harm.

The news soon spread around town and Sheriff McLean sent some men out to ask Marrazza if he was content to remain there, or if he wished to make a complaint against any of them. The answer was unhesitatingly in the affirmative. When asked the question Marrazza was surrounded by a crowd of the men, and as several understood English, he was doubtless afraid to speak as he wished. Nothing further was ascertained, but the sheriff decided to enlist volunteers and so to the rescue Wednesday morning. The government cruiser Acadia happened to be in the harbor and Captain Spauld offered the services of some of his men if the sheriff so desired. This offer was accepted.

While preparations were being made for the start, the Curlew steamed up the harbor. Captain Spain decided also to secure some of her men which was accordingly done. From the two cruisers sixteen privates and four officers landed. Our genial friend Capt. Pratt being among the number. Belonging to the Curlew. Teams were provided to carry the men to the seat of war. The blue jackets, however, did not complete the number, for thirty-five of Shelburne's stoutest hearts had volunteered their services to assist in rescuing Mr. Marrazza from what they considered his perilous condition. Each man had a gun and a revolver prepared to use at the word of command. Notwithstanding they apprehended danger, the party was indeed a jolly one and on the drive out many jokes were passed. When the school house was reached the children cheered the volunteers to the chok. It might be said that since the trouble arose, there have been several cases of men going from what they considered his perilous condition. Each man had a gun and a revolver prepared to use at the word of command. Notwithstanding they apprehended danger, the party was indeed a jolly one and on the drive out many jokes were passed. When the school house was reached the children cheered the volunteers to the chok. It might be said that since the trouble arose, there have been several cases of men going from what they considered his perilous condition.

The men who did go, however, had pluck enough to fight if the state of affairs demanded it and deserve credit for their actions.

The total number was about fifty, while in the camp in question there were about thirty-five Italians. Before the camp was reached, (which is about four miles from town) many inspiring war songs were sung.

When the party arrived opposite the camp, the horses were hitched, the men formed in line, and in a body, under command of Captain Spain, marched through the fields to the camp. Here the captain called "halt," and he and Sheriff McLean stepped up to the door and demanded the prisoner. In a twinkling of an eye out stepped Mr. Marrazza, he politely touched his hat to his rescuers, and was immediately placed between the sheriff and Captain Pratt. The men offered no resistance, and the manner in which they allowed the contractor to depart, fully showed they considered the army outside a little too strong to tackle. As the volunteers marched gallantly off, however, about fifty of the Italians poured out of the house, and cast fendish glances at the departing volunteers. The sheriff asked Mr. Marrazza if he wished to make any complaint against the men for carrying him off and he replied in the negative. The sheriff thanked the volunteers on behalf of the peace officers and citizens of Shelburne for the services of the men, after which the party turned to Shelburne.

The manner in which our boys handled their guns was enough to convince the most skeptical that they are old in the business and they would just as soon hunt Indians as moose. The Italians might just as well understand that they cannot do as they like in this country, and while they have the sympathy of the citizens in their sorry plight, yet they will not be allowed to kidnap human beings.

in the manner that they did Mr. Marrazza. Before leaving town we understand that several touching farewells were witnessed, and as some of the gallant volunteers were out on the field of battle many were the prayers in their behalf.

As the procession was on the way out, the Messrs. DeCham and Matthews were working in a field. At the signal they dropped their tools, grabbed their guns and joined gallantly in with the others. J. W. Macpherson and James Allen rode out on their bicycles. This is the first time in our remembrance that the silent steed has been used on the field of battle. Both gentlemen were armed to the teeth and ready for fight.

As the long list of wagons headed by Justice Bower and the blue jackets passed farmhouse after farmhouse heads were poked out the doors, friendly greetings were given, and handkerchiefs were waved. The sight was an imposing one, and it would have taken a determined and strong person to exclaim, "so many go pack on boys. They were Britishers, and still the old saying goes 'Britishers never will be beat.'"

CHARLOTTETOWN.

The Plant Steamer Florida Attached for Three Thousand Dollars.

(Special to the Sun.) Charlottetown, P.E.I., Oct. 12.—The plant steamer Florida, which collided with the ferry steamer Elfin a few nights ago, was attached this afternoon for $3,000 at the instance of the provincial government. John Ings and W. W. Clark went security for the Florida and she left for Boston this evening as usual. The damage to the Elfin is temporarily estimated at $2,000, but the full extent of the damage will not be known till after she is put in the dry dock. The damage to the wharf is estimated at $250. The matter will probably be settled out of court. Mr. Davies, Q. C., is acting for Mr. Plant, and Attorney General Peters for the government.

AN OLD TIME SLEIGH.

A short time ago John Kelly, of Kelly & Murphy, purchased an old fashioned sleigh belonging to the estate of the late John Walker. The sleigh is quite a curiosity, and was originally built in the year 1826. Mr. Kelly is now having the sleigh repaired and during the coming winter the ex-alderman will appear in the "pink of fashion" on the Marsh, if in the meantime some body does not step in and offer a good round sum for the prize. In stripping the sleigh of its trimming the other day copies of the Globe and Telegraph of 1864 were found. The papers contain an account of a confederation meeting in Carleton addressed by Sir Leonard Tilley and Hon. John H. Gray, and interesting news concerning the American war. A glance over the advertising columns reveals the fact that very few firms doing business thirty years ago exist today and also that communication between this city and various places in the province and Nova Scotia is very easy compared with 1864. For instance, C. A. Robertson, Brown & Hamm, G. R. Atherton and Robert Orr announce they will run daily sleighs between St. John and Fredericton during the winter season. The European & North American railway (now the Intercolonial) advertise the running of trains and announce that all trains will carry freight as well as passengers.

KENTUCKY LAW.

An Alleged Murderer Taken From Jail and Put to Death.

Louisville, Oct. 14.—A special to the Commercial from Lexington, Ky., states that Oscar Morton, a prominent citizen of Stanton, was taken from jail and led to a bridge outside the town, and a rope was placed around his neck. The leaders drew their guns and told him to jump or else he would be riddled with bullets.

Turning round the doomed man cursed his captors and uttering imprecations, leaped into the space. The jump broke his neck, and after dangling in the air for some minutes, he became still, and a volley of shots were fired into him. The mob then dispersed and the body was left dangling from the bridge.

Morton killed a man at Stanton two weeks ago and yesterday he killed Sheriff Symms at Beattyville, with whom he had a feud.

TIRED OF LIFE.

A P. E. Island Man Puts a Bullet Through His Heart.

(Special to the Sun.) Charlottetown, P.E.I., Oct. 11.—Robert Lowrie, of St. Peter's Road, who was found yesterday morning through the heart, having suicided while laboring under a fit of temporary insanity. When the body was found the clothing was on fire, apparently from the discharge of the gun, which was lying between his legs, the muzzle pointing towards him. It is understood the deceased stood with the stock of the gun on the ground and thus ended his life. He has been despondent for some time, and frequently wished himself dead.
