A. Likely $17,000 for the property taken over by the Intercolonial and involved in the recent exchequer court suit. There remains to be settled a claim for land of which the ownership is disputed, but which Mr. Likely says was his. The arbitrators' award, which Mr. Likely did not accept, whiled Mr. Likely's interest at a little over $11,000. For the portions settled by this judgment he receives $17,000, to-gether with six per sent interest from August, 1898, and costs. For another plece of land taken over, Mr. Likely accepted the award of $15,000, so that exclusive of interest, he has received $32,000 for property so far adjudicated upon. SUCCESSFUL ADVERTISING.

The mere appearance of a business-man's name and address in every is-sue of a leading newspaper will do much to increase his trade. Every business man, however, is able to give facts about his establishment which will encourage people to deal with him. To state such facts clearly (varying them day by day) in con-splicuous type in a newspaper like The Star is the principle secret of success-tul advertising.
