

Dress Materials For Fall.

Tweeds and tweed effects are the predominating materials, while for house wear and separate waists mohair will be as much in favor as ever. In these two lines our stock will be found to be complete.

Special Tweed Suitings at 55c and 75c.

We have placed these two popular prices on lines of materials which are easily worth 30c. to 25c. more, in order that you might be attracted to the large stock which we are showing in dress materials. The range of colors include black and white, brown mixtures, blue mixtures, heathers and greens. They are good weight and made from the best wools.

Our 54 Inch Tweed at 75c and $1 make splendid skirts or waists, and are extra good value.

Mohair at 39c, 45c, 55c, 80c, $1.00 and $1.10.

These goods come in all colors as well as the fancy tweed effects and stripes.

IMPURE MILK

Is the kind most frequently gotten from grocery stores—milk that is old, tainted and poor.

We now have an up-to-date system of treating and delivering milk. We have fresh morning's milk from Jersey cows delivered to us early every morning, and it is at once put into sterilized bottles and into our new ice milk cases, where it quickly cools. We can thus deliver ice cold milk which is only a few hours old—and you can always be sure it is sweet, pure and wholesome. A small item, perhaps, but an important one to our customers.

POLICE COURT.

Women Gets Six Months Sentence for

Loitering on the Street After 9 o'clock Last Night.

The session of the police court was short this morning as the magistrate had also the civil court on his hands.

Ethel Snodgrass was again in court this morning charged with loitering in a doorway with a man on Canterbury street last night about nine o'clock.

The arrest was made by Detective Kilen, when questioned this morning the girl denied the charge and said that she was just talking to a young man, a friend of hers. The detective was called to the stand and said that he and Deputy Jenkins saw her standing in the doorway of a barber shop on Canterbury street and then walk with this man along King and Germain streets and back again to the same doorway.

The magistrate said that no girl had a right to be loitering around these streets at that time of night and sentenced her to six months in the House of the Good Shepherd.

The case against Thomas O'Brien,

ABOUT WANT ADS

And How a Jealous Newspaper Made a Mistake.

In an attempt to discredit the statement that the Star carries more want ads than any other St. John paper, the Times last evening published the following:—

On Aug. 24 the Star contained this

Want ad:—

WANTED—Old picture of the Signing of Independence of United States.

State conditions and price. Address

"PICTURE" Star Office.

On Aug. 29 appeared among the local news in the Star, under the title "Do

You Want Anything?" the above advertisement with the following anouncement:—

This appeared in the Star on Friday of last week. The same day answers reached the Star office. In a few hours after the answers appeared the man who needed the old picture had obtained

one in fine condition.

All the Star want ads. are like this:

bona fide, paid for and sure of results.

And the Star carries more of these than any two other papers in St. John.

It is useful to all space. Any paper could carry ads. on those terms.

But the man who got one picture in a few hours must have collected quite a gallery in two weeks. Or possibly people are wasting postage replying to a "dead ad."

As a matter of fact the man in question is collecting quite a gallery, and that is his purpose in advertising in the Star. He inserted the advertisement for one week—regular rates—

and was so pleased with the results
