SPORTING MATTERS

SIMASSIE FIRST IN THE FREE FOR ALL

MONCTON, N. B., July 11—Two races were won in straight heats, while the third required seven heats at the close of the two days' racing here today. The free-for-all was won by Simassie in three heats, and Northern Spy made it three straight heats in the 2 1/2 event, but in 2:40 after Red Rose had won two heats she was distanced, and before the event was finally won by Blomidon, of Springfield Stables, seven heats had been trotted. The fastest time of the day was made by Simassie in the first heat of the free-for-all, being 2:10. The second day of the meet did not provide such good contests as the first day, but the interesting features being the long drawn out contest in the 2:40 class. There was a large crowd in attendance. Simassie had led the favorite in the free-for-all, which she captured in straight heats, but in the other events, talent received a jar. Northern Spy was too fast for the field in the 2 1/2, and easily beating Ruth Wilkes and Daley, who were favorites in the pool selling, while Dr. Ferron, the favorite in the 2:40, was beaten after the racing of seven heats. In this race Dr. Ferron won the first two heats, but broke so badly in the third that she failed to save her distance. Dr. Ferron, the favorite, then stepped in and took two, but in the exciting finish of the fifth, Blomidon of Springfield Stables, defeated the Chatham horse by a nose length. Two more heats were necessary, and Blomidon proved to be the better stayer, winning both.

Dr. Hand and Lady Bingen had some good contests for second place in the free-for-all, the Springfield house getting the position. Dr. Hand leading the second and third heats by breaking, Northern Spy was not driven out and had plenty of reserve speed, which was not needed to win him the 2 1/2 event, in which he was never crowded at any time.

A DRAWBACK TO SUMMER.

The warm season, though truly a delight to men and women in health and strength, is a sad season for those whose disorders forbid them indulging in the delicacies of the day—vegetables, fruits and delicious cookery possible from such climates. ### HOW TO TELL GOOD SALT.

The good housekeeper will grow at the flour, scold the yeast cake, sniff at the butter, turn up her nose at the lard, inspect the meat with greatest care, yet all her life wonder why she often over or under salts her dishes when she knows that she salts them just right, as she always did, and as the recipes call for. The reason is simple—the seasoning value of different brands of salt varies widely. This statement is easily proved. Take five slices of ripe tomatoes. Apply equal parts of five makes of salt upon the separate slices. Eat as soon as salted. The difference in flavor, permeation, rapidity and equality of dissolution, seasoning value, are readily detected. A table salt should be fine, the crystals of equal size, quickly soluble and free from ingredients which absorb moisture from the air, large and small crystals will not dissolve uniformly, consequently the full salting effect is not obtained until the large crystals are dissolved. The quickly soluble salt diffuses itself through the food at once and given an equality of flavor. Sticky salt is an insupportable nuisance. Failures in salting are largely due to changing from one make of salt to another. Get the best grade, grow accustomed to its use and stick to it.
