The big white whale, which disported itself in St. Croix and St. Andrews waters last season, is still in the neighborhood. It has struck up an acquaintance with Capt. Ingersoll, of the Str. Aurora, and scarcely a trip occurs that his whaleship does not turn up to greet the genial captain as he moves up and down the river. Last Thursday it appeared to the Aurora passengers as the steamer proceeded up river. The next morning, off Ravens' Head, it bobbed up again and gave the captain a merry salute as he steamed by. The monster is evidently hanging around until the biological station aquarium is fitted up, when it will apply for lodgings.—Beacon.

Smith told the court that he was returning to his home in Amherst from the Maine lumber woods. He says he met Williams yesterday and they had a number of drinks together. He fell asleep in the I. C. R. station and when he awoke found that his pocked book with $15 was gone, and so was his companion Williams. He reported the matter to the police.

Policeman Marshall told of arresting Williams in Mrs. Marshall's house in Harrigan's alley where there was a dance going on and of finding $12.05 in his pockets.

The prisoner asked the court for a chance saying if allowed to go he would never drink again, that he was intoxicated when he stole the money.
