Mrs. J. D. Chipman read a carefully prepared report of the Women's Missionary Society, and foreible addresses were made by Dr. Carmen and Dr. Potts.

The session of conference Friday morning was presided over by President Campbell. Following the devotional exercises a lengthy discussion occurred concerning firancial affairs on the Grand Lake circuit. It appears that, some years ago, a Mrs. Bradley lefe a legacy for the purpose of maintaining the preaching of a Methodist minister on that circuit. That legacy now amounts to $1,950, yielding about $100 annually. The discussion was as to whether this amount, belonged personally to the clergyman on the circuit, or to the missionary society. It seemed to be a case of wealth causing strife. The matter was threshed out at great length, the opinion being reached that if any error had been made, it was an error of judgment, and that no censure was attachable to the clergyman on the circuit, but that in future the amount shall be included in the circuit receipts. Rev. S. H. Rice, characterized some of the transactions as dishonorable, but this term was generally resented.

Rev. Mr. Bond, editor of the Wesleyan, was heard by the conference on the conduct of the paper. The affairs of the book room and the paper were shown to be in a very satisfactory condition. The address was bright and witty. The recent improvements in the paper were warmly commended by Dr. Inch and several of the clergy. men. A resolution was passed pledging sympathy and report to the edi-tor and assistance in securing an increase of circulation. Rev. Mr. Bond stated that if five hundred new subscribers were obtained, the paper would be published in magazine form and considerably improved. Rev. Job Shenton reported for the general conference fund. The second Sunday in August was set for collections for that purpose.

Rev. C. H. Paisley reported total receipts of $103.97 for the union church relief fund. The present indebtedness

Thos. Marshall, and Messrs. W. A. Trueman, Thos. Bullock, R. B. Jones, John Lindsay, Henry Smith. The appointment of the board of trusts and special Sunday school ommittee was laid on the table. Adjournment followed.

Rev. Dr. Carman presided at the af-ternoon session of the conference. The first business reached was the report of the board of trustees, and it proved to be the only business dealt with. The committee, of which Rev. Thomas Marshall was chairman and Rev. Geo. W. Fisher secretary, had labored hard and faithfully to ascer-tain the condution of various trust funds of the conference that were in the custody of a number of commit-tees. These had all been collected, recorded and put in such shape that they were readily under control of the conference. The committee had not fully completed its work and it was proposed to continue them in office that they might complete their valuable services, which had been given as a labor of love. Dr. Carman called attention to the legal obligations attaching to any committee or any conference undertaking to become custodians of funds donated for specific purposes. The members all had views on the subject, and as they were greatly deversified, no one seemed quite satisfied with the views advanced by others, and the speeches were numerous, the question being threashed out in all its details. Ancient, modern and prospective history was appealed to. Dr. Carman took firm ground on the legal responsibilitles involved and refused to entertain some motions made. Rev. Mr. Marshall and Mr. Dawson refused to serve longer on the committee, feeling that they had been censured and that the responsibilities outlined by Dr. Carman were greater than they cared to retain. The conference passed a vote of thanks to the committee, but this afternoon of contention was closed by adjournment. ST. STEPHEN, June 24.—The report of the board of trust, submitted at the session of conference on Friday afternoon, reads as follows:

A large amount of correspondence has been had with the chairmen of districts and superintendents of circuits, and as a result the board has been enabled to gather and tabulate much valuable information. A box has been procured and placed in the vault of the Bank of New Brunswick, in which documents have been placed for safety. Dr. Allison spoke hopefully of the work at Sackville. The fire of a few weeks ago made the raising of $25,000 or $30,000 necessary to replace the college buildings. The regents had already decided to rebuild. Dr. Stewart, dean of the university, and Mr. Palmer of the preparatory school spoke of the work and a resolution was passed expressive of hearty satisfaction and support

The committee on the twentieth cen tury fund reported, recommending that pastors be local treasurers and that meetings be held for the inauguration of the work on October 8th. Dr. Potts spoke eloquently of the fund, the cause for its collection and the purposes for which it might be used.

At the Saturday morning session the committee on Sabbath observance reported a resolution calling upon the oil failed to soothe the troubled waters. Some brother thought that people to uphold the sanctity of the Sabbath and by every means in their power to preserve it from profanation, dealt with in calmer moments. It was then nearly six o'clock and an and also expressing appreciation of the action of the local legislature of New Brunswick in enacting a law for the better observance of the Lord's day. It was ordered that a copy of the resolution be forwarded to Premier Emmerson.

The Sunday school committee reported as follows through Secretary Machum:

Your Sunday school committee beg leave to report that they met yesterday, Friday, afternoon, and organized by the election of Rev. Wm. Kirby as chairman and E. R. Machum as secretary. On motion the secretary was instructed to call the attention of the conference to the statement made in today's Sun, to the effect that "Rev. C. H. Paisley called attention to the fact that the attendance at the Meth-odist Sunday schools has of late years shown a steady decrease, and that Methodist literature is being crowded out of the Methodist schools." In the opinion of your committee the above statements are not in accordance with the facts. Your committee also requests that the consideration of our Sunday school work be made the order of the day for Monday morning at 10

The report was adopted. (The committee's exception is to the statement of Rev. Mr. Paisley and not to the Sun's report).

The committee on securing the services of an evangelist reported on the work done during the year, showing a deficit of about thirty dollars. The wisdom of employing an evangelist was questioned by some members and waimly endorsed by others. Some circuits had failed to contribute towards the fund. Such cases were referred back to the quarterly boards with an appeal for them to reconsider their action.

The committee on the board of trusts, through W. A. Trueman, reported asking for further time to investigate the nature of the securities and to inquire into the legal question involved. Their report was endorsed A motion made by Rev. J. Goldsmith as to the method and sources from which to raise the "sustentation fund and changing the name to "hom missions" fund caused an animated discussion. J. Hunter White and others took strong grounds against assessing Epworth leagues and Sunday schools, claiming 'hat the contributions from these were made largely by the officers and teachers. As these officers and teachers were church members and workers in both the leagues and schools they would have to make three contributions to the fund. The matter was not disposed of

The Saturday afternoon session of conference lasted only one hour, the time being devoted to an earnest discussion of the sustentation fund. Some members wanted the name changed to home mission fund. motion to form a new society under that name was made, but failed to carry. Conference adjourned at three o'clock, and a number of committees

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. Pork Packing Factory Needed.

To the Editor of The Sun:

Sir-I notice in your interview with Mr. Parkin yesterday in regard to pork packing that he says New Brunswick farmers have no hogs to offer now, when they could get a when conference adjourned for dinbetter price than in the fall and winter. I quite agree with him that if the n arket were distributed over a longer period it would be better for the farmers themselves, but, Mr. Editor, it is useless to talk or write about our farmers raising hogs until they are assured of a steady market for their hogs all the year round, and that will not be till we have a good pork factory built with all modern improve-ments, where nothing of the offal of the animal is wasted, not even the bristles. And this also applies to all other animals slaughiered for con-samption in our market. It does seem a great pity this wasting of the by-products of all animals killed in our city and province. Will not some cap-italists come forward and take hold of this industry, which I believe would be a better position. be a better paying business than building pulp mills. Mr. Parkin also speaks of the diffi-culty of providing barrels. Now, where hogs are raised for bacon purposes and exporting, no barrels are required, for good strong boxes are all that is required; and that of itself would be quite an industry where lumber is so plentiful. Another con-sideration is the slaughtering of the animals by the farmers themselves, especially in hot weather, where they have no proper cooling facilities, which are so necessary in case of all animals. Indeed I have known some farmers to lose from 1 to 2 cents per lb. on account of inferior slaughtering, especially in the warm weather. Now all this waste of the by-product and inferior slaughtering would be avoided in a good modern slaughter house, and better meats for our own markets or for export. Capital is all that seems to be required to make the thing go. There need to be no fear about the raising of the hogs.

Shot While Breaking Into the Room of a Man He Thought to be His Wife's Lover,

MILLBRIDGE, Me., June 25.—A shooting affair, caused by jealousy and liquor, that will probably prove a tragedy occurred last night, when George H. Garrison shot Horatio L. Ramsay with a 32 calibre revolver, inflicting a wound that is likely to prove fatal. Ramsay, who keeps a board-ing house has been, it is said, suspicious of an undue intimacy between his wife and Garrison, who is one of his boarders. Last night about tenthirty, according to report, Ramsay came home considerably under the influence of liquor and said to his wife, who was sitting on the piazza: "I am going to have that old Garrison's heart's blood." He then proceeded up stairs and attempted to enter Garrisons room. The door being locked Ramsay began an attack upon it, and had kicked out a panel when Garrison fired through the opening, the bullet striking Ramsay in the right side below the ribs. A doctor was summoned at once and found that the bullet had entered the liver and that the wound was probably fatal. Coun-ty Attorney Campbell of this town, after investigation morning, placed Garrison under arrest, and summoned the witnesses to a hearing to be held tomorrow fore-. noon. Ramsay is a native of Prince Edward Island, and is 45 years old. His family consists of a wife and two children. Besides keeping a boarding house he is employed as a carpenter in Sawyer Bros', shipyard. Garrison is 50 years old and a widower. His last employment was canvassing for a Chicago clothing house. Are You Bilious THEN TRY

ST. STEPHEN, June 25.-The fire bugs who have operated at Milltown Maine, on several recent occasions got in another stroke at about midnight on Saturday. The house and barn of Herbert Stanhope of Milltown, Me., were totally destroyed together with practically all their contents. The family was absent, and the fire was undoubtedly set. The loss amounts to about eight or ten hundred dollars, with very little insurance.

AGAINST PROHIBITION.

WINNIPEG, June 24.—The Rupert's Land synod came out strong against prohibition yesterday, only five deleprohibition yesterday, only five delegates voting in its favor. For over an hour, short, incisive speeches were made condemning prohibition. Total abstinence personally was approved of. Even this as an amendment was deprecated by the archbishop, who woult not agree to it going on the records. Rev. Mr. Roy taunted the synod with being afraid to your enterties. synod with being afraid to vote on the subject on account of the influence of the liquor interests.

Children Cry for CASTORIA. "BAD FOR THE COO."

At Broken Hill, the other night, during the opening performance of a Jack and the Beanstalk pantomine (Broken Hill's first pantos, by the way), a stalls patron was accompanied by a bull terrier. The appearance of Jack's "cow" was received by the dog with growls of disapproval, and when the animal came forward and friskily began to "bunt," the little animal could stand no more. Bounding onto the stage, it attached the legs of the "cow;" and the spectacle which followed of the forequarters streaking for the prompt side and of the hindquarters and riba struggling to a place of safety on the O. P. side brought down the house.—Sidney Bulletin.
