Two cases were tried Monday His Honor Judge Forbes, under the Speedy Trials Act. Stephen Gochy, the defendant in the Mispec assault case, was allowed off upon a pledge of his good behavior and a promise to go to his home in Chatham, and Walter G. Stevens, charged with stealing $25 was allowed off on his own recognizance. The Mispec affair took place on October 24, and was given a preliminary hearing before the police magistrate on the 27th. The defendant was charged together with a man named Maher, who has not been located, with assault ing Mr. and Mrs. John Lockhart and their family. Gochy was arrested by Deputy Chief Jenkins. This morning Mr. and Mrs. Lockhart were both on the stand, and also their married daughter, Mrs. Maud Lewis.

They said that he had been implicated in the affair. Gochy on the stand denied the charge. His honor, after some words of advice, allowed the prisoner to go under the conditions mentioned above. E. S.

Ritchie acted for the defendant. Walter G. Stevens was accused stealing the sum of $25 from a man proximately $4,000 a year must first of named William McAllister. When his case came up in the morning he gave a promise that he would return the money

He Had Been Almost a Year.

News was received Sunday evening the death at Hampton of Philip Palmer, barrister-at-law, who has for some years resided in that town. About a year ago Mr. Palmer began to suffer severely from an internal cancer. During the past summer he was able to drive out occasionally, but for the last few months he has been confined to the house. He gradually grew weaker, and finally passed away early Sunday morning. For many months Mr. Palmer has been awaiting death with remarkable courage and composure. A surgical operation following the discovery of the cause of his illness prolonged his life, but left little hope of recovery. During this illness Mr. Palmer never lost his interest in passing events, or suffered any abatement in his intellectual activities. He was visited by scores of friends, for whom he had always a warm welcome Mr. Palmer was born at Sackville on March 14th, 1867, the second son of the late Charles G. Palmer, J.
