THE "QUADRANT" BICYCLE.

This is how they advertise "QUADRANTS" in the United States:

ON THE ROAD:

"The 'Quadrant' has been the first Safety at the finish in every one of the six Road Races held in Philadelphia this year."

"Annual Century Run, New York to Philadelphia. Out of over a hundred Safety Bicycles at the start, the majority of any one make at the finish were 'QUADRANTS.' The first Safety to finish was a 'QUADRANT.' The first lady to finish rode a 'QUADRANT.'"

"World's Record. The 'QUADRANT' Tandem Bicycle, full roadster, ran five miles in 14-min. 32-sec., September 30th, 1890."

ON THE HILLS:

"At Reading, Pa., 20th September, 1890, in the Hill-Climbing Contest, the 'QUADRANT,' No. 17, beat all competitors, including the finest American riders, by 7 minutes."

St. John—South End.

Last week numbers took advantage of the beautiful summer weather for picnics, and every day the Bay Shore and also the new and delightful resort, Duck Cove, were crowded with picnickers. The young people of Rothesay picnicked on the beautiful island opposite Rothesay on Friday last and enjoyed sailing on the Kennebecasis.

On Saturday the Tally-ho carried a large party to Long's lake, where a delightful day was spent from 2 o'clock until 9. The ladies present provided a substantial lunch, while the gentlemen did their part in supplying the conveyance, boats, etc. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Charles McLaughlin and among those present were the Misses Troop, Mr. C. Troop, the Misses McMillan, Mr. J. McMillan, Miss Winnie Hall, Miss Agnes Warner, Miss Annie Scammell, Messrs. H. and L. Tilley, Mr. F. Maunsell, Miss Annie Puddington, Miss Gertie Dever, Miss Carrie Seely, Mr. H. Drury, Mr. J. McDonald, Miss F. King, Miss Nina Keator, Mr. Gillis Keator, Miss Gussie Cruikshank, Mr. R. Hazen, Mr. Wilson, Miss Alice Tuck.

The Natural History society held a most enjoyable picnic on the same day, when much pleasure was taken in collecting specimens in botany and geology. Among those present were Prof. Bailey, of Fredericton, who gave most interesting and useful information in the latter science during the day.

On Monday evening, the Misses Parks entertained between 20 and 30 of their friends at a boating party. Lily lake was looking its prettiest, and after enjoying some hours on it, the party finished up the evening at the residence of Mr. J. H. Parks, where a light supper was enjoyed.

On Tuesday afternoon, Mrs. E. T. Sturdee entertained a number of her young friends at an at home from 4 to 6, at her residence, Elliot row. Notwithstanding the wet weather, there was a large number present. Ices and other light refreshments were provided for the guests.

A large and fashionable gathering filled St. John's church, on Wednesday evening last, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Maude Cowan, daughter of Mr. John Cowan, of this city, and Dr. N. Stewart Fraser, M. B., of St. Johns, Newfoundland. The hour fixed for the ceremony was 6.30 o'clock, and a little after that time the bride, accompanied by her father, walked up the aisle, the choir singing a wedding hymn. She was attended by four bridesmaids—her sisters, Miss Helen and Flossie Cowan, Miss Jessie Fraser, and Miss Fairweather—who were attired in most becoming costumes of cream and canary silk, and carried large bouquets to match. The bride looked very lovely in a gown of rich white satin and orange blossoms. The groom was attended by Dr. Smith, of Moncton, and Mr. A. Cowan, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. DeSoyres, and the choir rendered appropriate music. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Cowan, Hazen street. After an elegant wedding supper Dr. and Mrs. Fraser took leave of the guests and drove to the station, where they left on the American express for a trip to the States. Dr. and Mrs. Fraser will make their home at St. Johns New foundland, he being a son of Mr. Fraser, postmaster general of Newfoundland. Mr. and Mrs. Cowan entertained upwards of 100 guests; the dresses of whom were all very elegant, but which time fails me to describe.

Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. de Soyres, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond, Dr. and Mrs. Addy, Misses Addy, Dr. G. A. B. Addy, Dr. and Mrs. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Allison, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Allison, Mr. C. Ruel, Mr. G. Ruel, Mr. Lindsay, Miss Halliday, Mr. J. N. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Ellis, (Digby) Masters Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Pugsley, Misses Parks, Miss Troop, Mr. C. Troop, Miss Pritchard, Mr. W. C. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Whittaker, Mr. Geo. P. Clarke, Miss Schofield, Miss Armstrong, Miss Burpee, Miss McGivern, Mr. R. McGivern, Mr. Fred Daniel, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLeod, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Girvan, Mr. and Mrs. DeWolfe Spurr, Mr. and Mrs. G. L. DeForest, Miss DeForest, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. DeForest, Miss Small, Mr. and Mrs. Frederic Harding, Mr. and Mrs. John Armstrong, Mr. Justice and Mrs. King, Miss King, Miss Perkins, Miss McLean, Miss Turner, Miss Dunlop, Miss Flood, Mr. E. Flood, Miss Puddington, Mr. Puddington, Mr. and Mrs. Kaye, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Milligan, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Rankine, Mr. M. Robinson, Miss Robinson, Mr. J. Fraser, Miss Fraser, Mr. Walter Fairweather, Miss Lizzie Fraser, Mr. Pheasant, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Fairweather, Miss Jeanie Fraser, Miss Ellis, and many others.

The St. John boys attending the Lennoxville college are expected home today. This afternoon, I hear, a cricket match will be played between them and a St. John team at the A. A. C. grounds.

Miss Tina and Miss Berta Maclaren are visiting Gagetown.

Mrs. C. A. Macdonald and family are visiting Bathurst.

A very pleasant little dance was given by Miss Elsie Matthew last evening, at the residence of her father, Mr. G. F. Matthew, Summer street. Summer is not the most enjoyable season for dancing, but the large airy rooms and spacious grounds to promenade between dances made it most delightful.

Mr. J. D. Shatford left for New York this week.

Mrs. E. S. Symonds and family have taken rooms at the Bay Shore, for the summer months.

Mr. Robert Hazen, Mr. Arthur Hazen, Mr. George Daniel and Mr. J. McDonald have taken rooms at Rothesay for the summer. TERPSICHORE.

Mrs. Redding of Yarmouth, who has been the guest of Mrs. Hunter, Fredericton, arrived in this city Thursday, and will remain for a few days at Mrs. Daniel's, King street east.

Dr. Draper and his bride have returned home from their wedding trip. The genial doctor finds it difficult to get from one block to another without encountering a hand-shaking friend. Dr. and Mrs. Draper will reside on Mecklenburg street.

The Neptune rowing club propose to have an outing July 4 on Partridge island, to which their lady friends will be invited.

Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Fenety of Fredericton came to St. John by boat Monday, and remained until Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Edward Sears and Master Ned Sears have returned home after an enjoyable visit to New York (the former home of Mrs. Sears). They also visited on the Hudson, Niagara Falls, Toronto and Kingston, where they attended the funeral of Sir John A. Macdonald, thence to Montreal. Miss Maud Sears of Kingston returned with Mrs. Sears. The family leave shortly for Westfield—their summer home.

Flats! Flats! Leghorn Hats, colored, all shades; and made into the popular Flat Shape at American Hat Factory, Cor. Sydney and Leinster Sts., City.

St. John—West End.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Leonard, who have been visiting Fredericton, have returned home.

TRUSTEES' SALE OF THE TURNER & FINLAY STOCK.

A SALE WHICH ALL ST. JOHN SHOULD ATTEND.

BE SURE AND READ with strict care the items mentioned below, and then come in and see the Bargains which we offer at almost nothing, compared with their real values. Bear in mind that many of the lots advertised cannot possibly last many days; therefore we advise you to come early in the week. The Store must soon be closed for ever.

We have still a Full Line of Shakers, at 6, 6½, 7½, and 8c.; also, American Satines at only 9 and 12½c. Now we are offering special value in New Prints, worth 18c., for 12½c.

TWO FACTS:

TO BE REMEMBERED BY ALL. The Stock must be closed out, and the doors shut for ever. Remember this and turn out the stocking and the savings Bank book, and secure the Bargains while they last; they are well worth holding.

THE SECOND FACT TO BE REMEMBERED, that Mr. Robert Turner, in making a deed of trust, cuts himself for ever away from that business, from the 2nd April last, and has nothing to say until it is finally closed, when he receives the residue if any. By the kindness of the Trustees, Mr. Robert Turner was offered a clerkship, to manage the clerks, and see that goods were shown, and that all were properly waited upon; but remember he is a clerk, and not an owner.

ARE YOU READY

For a rainy day? The time to prepare for it is when the weather is fair. It is a little difficult to think of clouds when the sun is shining, but the man who does it, is the man who is not often caught napping. The navigator who is not ready for a sudden squall is a poor seaman; he may know how to take his nautical observations, but you would not want to place him in command of your ship if you had one. We have taken SPECIAL PRECAUTIONS to prepare for the precautions you ought to take, and are showing a splendid importation of Mackintoshes—all new patterns; sewn seams, and every garment warranted thoroughly waterproof. Just call and see them.
