BASKETBALL POINTERS.

St. John, N. B., May 10th, 1918.
Editor of The Standard,
Sir:

It would be so kind as to permit me to place in your esteemed paper to refute an article which appeared in a recent issue of the Moncton Transcript under the heading, "Pointers on basketball and clean sport" and which was written ostensibly for the purpose of discrediting the St. John Boys.

The writer who for some peculiar reason known only to himself signed the article, "For Clean Sport," starts out with an innocuous synopsis of the 1917-18 game. Continually he says, "It was this personal foul rule that was such a handicap to the St. John teams that were here recently. Both teams brought big huskies with them, and found they were not allowed to use their great weight against the lighter local players." Having a direct knowledge of the circumstances on that occasion and having seen the line-up of the opposing teams, it appears to me absurd for one to try to make out that the Moncton boys were not equal in weight to those from St. John.

The St. John boys have for some time led the province in basketball as is shown by the fact that the local High School team has for two successive seasons held, and at present holds the inter-scholastic and intermediate championship of New Brunswick. The St. John boys have always been noted for clean play and adherence to rules and this has been the first time that that reputation has been questioned.

Although the Chippewas, a junior team of the local Y. M. C. A., were defeated in their last game at Moncton, owing to the partiality of the referee and his peculiar interpretation of the rules, they took their defeat like sports, notwithstanding the fact that when with a lighter lineup they played the same team in St. John, on a previous occasion but with an impartial referee, they far outclassed their Moncton opponents.

The fact is worthy of consideration, that after the arrival of the local boys at Moncton, the referee, before the game had started, speaking to them said that he did not want those "St.
John roughnecks" to attempt any of their dirty work.

He exhibited a surprising lack of discretion a later stage in the game by offering to step aside and fight one of those junior boys. It would hardly seem that such a man was capable of engaging in Y. M. C. A. or any branch of boys' work. Although the St. John Y. M. C. A. has always been successful in procuring officials of ability, the present physical director enjoys a popularity almost unprecedented, and this not because, as the writer of the Transcript article insinuates, he shows partiality and favoritism but for the very reason that he always stands for clean sport, that ideal of which the writer of the said article so fondly talks but the meaning of which he appears to know but very little.

The Moncton boys have fine material and now that they stand a chance of shortly getting a coach of ability and fairness, they should develop into an excellent and first class team.
Thanking you for your kindness in publishing this letter, Sincerely yours,
For The St. John Boys.
