

Men's Ready Suits
Non-Sporty Styles

A few days ago a friend was looking at the Men's Suits in our window. All the suits that were being shown at that time were fancy ones for young men. This gentleman being a very conservative dresser, was amused at seeing such fancy styles and asked if that was the only kind of clothing he would wear. He wouldn't wear one of them d—d things.

HERE'S THE POINT: Simply because we cater to the young men's trade, don't any of you older men who don't like to wear these sporty suits, think that we haven't suits conservative enough for you. BECAUSE WE HAVE. You'll find here clothes that are conservative enough, and that are dresy. Prices from $20 to $50.

"So your boy Josh is in the army?" "Yes," replied Mr. Corbould, "and he's mighty proud of him."

"Suppose something happens to him?" "Well, we haven't thought much about that. When Josh gets into a fix he'll be most invariably sent to the front."

"That sort of a man is Green?" "Pine. The best ever."

"Is he trustworthy?" "Very."

"Would you lend money to him?" "As to that I can't say. I've never lent him money. I've only borrowed on him."

"What is that?" asked the commandant, pointing to the man who was in the warder's hand. "That? That's a newspaper."

"Before you were married you said you'd lay down your life for me," she begged.

"I know it," he returned solemnly; "at this wedding feast is so tiny that it is not worth while to say anything."

"Your office girl takes two hours for each and you take only thirty minutes."

"Yes."

"Why is that?" "I guess it is because I can get along without a movie for dessert."

DEMPSEY-WILLARD FIGHT IN PARIS?

Boxing Enthusiasts Worked up Over the Report—Promoters Believe That Paris With British and American Floating Population the Best Place.

Paris, March 13.—Boxing enthusiasts are much worked up over reports that the Dempsey-Willard fight will be staged in Paris. Promoters here have watched with great interest the difficulties encountered by "Tex" Rickard in getting a place for the bout and in the prospect that the bout may not be held in the United States, efforts will be made to Rickard soon, if they have not already reached him.

The promoters here argue that Paris with its big floating British and American population at present would be a better place than Juarez or Havana if the bout goes outside America. Higher prices could be obtained for seats than before the war. It is figured that seats that sold for $50 for the Johnson-Moran bout would bring $100 now.

A high army official informed the Associated Press today that the Dempsey-Willard fight would not be held in the United States, adding there is one man who can stop the fight in America.

The officer refused to divulge the name of the man, but said that Willard was not very popular in the army owing to his attitude during the war and his refusal to give his services to the Red Cross and the various soldierly benefits.

Boxing is flourishing in Paris, at present, and the Knights of Columbus and the Y. M. C. A. are holding weekly shows, in which Americans are pitted against French and British.

A FAKED FIGHT SAYS JOHNSON

Says He Arranged to Lose Championship to Jess Willard—Jack Welch, the Referee, Says Fight Was on Its Merits.

Havana, March 13.—Jack Johnson, former heavyweight champion, in a signed statement given to the Associated Press, declares that his fight with Jess Willard in this city four years ago was a pre-arranged affair and that he allowed Willard to win. In addition to the sum of $50,000, entire rights to the moving picture films in Europe and thirty-three and a third per cent of the proceeds from their exhibition in the United States and Canada are mentioned by Johnson, together with the promise of aid to settle Johnson's difficulties with the federal authorities in Chicago so that the colored pugilist might return there to reclaim his property and see his mother.

Johnson declares in his statement that it was arranged that he should lose in the tenth round, provided Willard's showing was such as to justify it, but that as Willard was doing practically nothing he was forced to wait. The signal agreed upon was given in the twentieth round, Johnson states, but he waited until the twenty-sixth round to give Willard an opportunity to make a good showing. The former champion declares that unless Willard agrees to fight him within a reasonable time he will claim the world's title. He signed his statement "Jack Johnson, champion."

What Referee Welch Says. San Francisco, March 13.—Jack Welch, of San Francisco, who refereed the championship boxing contest between Jack Johnson and Jess Willard, declared here today, after being shown Johnson's statement that the outcome of the affair was pre-arranged, that the fight was won on its merits.

Welch said, however, Johnson was in poor condition for the bout. Welch also said Johnson attempted to wager $10,000 on himself the night before the bout, but succeeded in placing but $2,500.

Just One Application and the Hairs Vanish

Any woman can keep her skin free from unsightly hair or fuzz if she will follow these simple instructions: When hairy growths appear, apply a simple paste, made by mixing some water with powdered dolomite. Apply daily to hairy surface and after two or three minutes rub off, wash the skin and the hairs are gone. This is a harmless treatment, but be sure you get the real dolomite.

MARITIME AMATEUR SKATING EVENTS

Large Crowd Witnessed Closely Contested Championship Races on the Victoria Rink Last Night—Under Auspices of Y. M. C. I.

The Amateur Skating Championships for the maritime provinces was held last evening in the Victoria rink, and provided much amusement to a large number of spectators. The ice was in excellent condition, and each event was put on in succession with all haste, so that before ten o'clock the affair was over, and the crowds dispersed to their homes. The features of the event was the three mile race (42 laps), when G. Tracey, M. Bell and F. Gorman hung to the last, with Gorman dropping out near the end of the race. About the thirty-eight lap Bell and Tracey were the only two men on the ice. Bell lost his balance in tripping. All expected to see Tracey start for home, but he skated slowly allowing Bell to regain his position until neck and neck, then the race commenced in earnest, and both showed excellent form and speed. In the last lap Tracey jumped ahead and won out amid applause. All the fans spoke highly of his gameness in allowing his opponent to regain his position, as in so doing, he was gauging a race for the crowd.

The minute he allowed Bell to come with him the fans shouted "Good Sport, Good Sport," and Tracey was well deserving of the name.

In the one mile event the same Bell, who had performed in the three mile event came off first, showing wonderful endurance as he was at times hard pressed. This was a good race and drew much comment.

The remainder of the events all proved interesting. The relay race, scheduled between St. Peter's and Victoria rink, did not materialize since the Victoria players defaulted, only having three men—one having broken his skates—and having no substitutes the race was given to St. Peter's team composed of four men, who went the rounds in slow time.

The prizes consisting of gold and silver medals will be allotted to the first and second men in each event. No third is offered. These prizes will be presented later, notice of which will be given in the press.

The officials at the races last evening follow:—Fred Logan, referee; Frank White, starter; Joseph McNamara, clerk of course; assistants, Fred Dickson, Irvine Green, F. W. Kelly and E. Stirling.

HALIFAX DELEGATES AFTER BIG FIGHT

W. H. Dennis and Companion With $125,000 Guarantee from Business Men Here Yesterday—Left for New York to Confer With "Tex" Rickard.

That the business men, or at least quite a number of them, are in earnest in making their bid to have the world's championship fight between Jess Willard and Jack Dempsey palled off in Halifax on July 4th was plainly shown when W. H. Dennis, accompanied by another Halifax business man arrived in the city yesterday.

Mr. Dennis and his companion were in St. John only long enough to change from the train arriving from the sister city to that going to Boston last evening.

Speaking of their mission, Mr. Dennis stated that they were en route to New York for the purpose of having a conference with "Tex" Rickard, the promoter of the big fight, and their chief object was to try and induce the promoter of the big bout to stage the event in Halifax. To show that the men of Halifax meant business, and were able to back up their request for the fight, Mr. Dennis said that he carried with him guarantees from Halifax business men amounting to one hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars.

The Halifax men have no idea at the present time how the promoter will look on their offer, but Halifax wants the big fight and are making a real sporty bid for the event. The result of the delegation's conference will be anxiously awaited by all the sporting men in the lower provinces, in fact, all over Canada since it is generally known that Halifax is after the fight.
