Another Cup Defender.

Boston, Dec. S—After a conference with Boston designers, Boston builders and a Lumber of representative Boston yachtsmen, Mr. Themas Layson, the well known fluancier of this city, announced tonight that he would personally stand the expense of building another yacht to compete for the honor of defending the America's cup against Sir Thomas Lipton's Shamrock II. The new yacht, according to Mr. Lawson, will be designed by Mr. B. B. Crowninshield of this city, who has already had considerable success with smaller beats, while George Lawley of South Boston, the builder of the former cup defenders Puritan and Mayflower, will probably construct the new boat. It is expected that Captain "Nat" Watson, one of the best skippers in the east, will act as sailing amester, and Mr. Lawson, also states that an opportunity will be given a number of college Cerinthian yachtsmen to assist in working the boat as part of her crew. All matters pertaining to the construction of the new boat will be open at all times to Quincy Peint.

Bristol, R. I., D.c. 8—The work of laying down the lines for the new cup defender in the sail loft over the workshop at the Herreshoff Company, was finished this aftermoon. The lines were laid down by H. P. Whitman, the veteran, who has superintended similar work, for three other cup defenders—the Vigilant, Defender and Columbia, as well as the sloop Colonia.

It is understood that no work will be started on running the keel for the new boat until the 70-footer Rainbow is out of the shop, which will not be for at least ten days. There has been some work done also on the sails for the new boat, but this has been confined entirely to the head sails, and nothing was done on the main sail and will not until the boat is for advanced.

Boston, Dec. 8—F. L. Carter, jr., of Harvard, who was penalized 30 seconds at the Start, won the annual winter cross-country run, given under the auspicious of the B. A. A. this afternoon, over the regular club course to Coolidge Corner, Brookline, and return, a distance of about 4% miles. F. M. Kacaly, the New England champion of the Combridgeport Gymnasium Association, one of the scratch men, however, took the lion's chare of the honors by winning the time region for the course. His time was 24 minutes, 38 seconds, which is 35 seconds faster than the best previous record of 25 minutes, 38 seconds made by Eddie Mills, of Harvard, a few years ago.

New York, Dec. 8—The indoor cycle racing scason was inaugurated at the Madison Square Garden tonight. Several sprints and match races were on the card, "Major" Taylor beating Tom Cooper in best two out of three heats. The race of the evening, however, was that between Jimmy Michael, the "Welsh Rarebitt," and Will Stinson of Boston. The distance was fitteen miles. Notwithsanding the fact that Michael's pacing machine broke down in the latter part of the race when the "Rarebit" was four laps to the good, Michael, in a terrific finish, won out by three laps.

SPEAKING TO A SOVEREIGN.

Form of Salutation Depends o. the Station of the Speaker.

The simple title "Madam"—reduced in practice to "Ma'am"—is, as most people know, all that serves, between Queen Victoria and the court, to mark the for mer's dignity as the ruler of a world wide empire, says the London Mail. Had Britain a king, he would be no more than "Sire," the old French form of "Sir," sured to revalty. With us the term "Your Majesty" is only for servants and

"Your Majesty" is only for servants and ceremonial occasions.

Not every one is aware, however, that there are few other courts where this unwholesome simplicity prevails. The Emperor of Germany is "Majestat"—there is no pronoun in the title—to all and sunday are to be for the first three of the service o no pronoun in the title—to all and sundry, even to his family, except when in absolute privacy. The Emperor of Austria is "Eurer Majes.at," at all times and under all circumstances; the king of Greece is "Votre Majeste"—French being the court language, and our recent visitor, the king of Sweden, is "Ers Majestat." Their royal consorts are addressed with the same formality.

"Only at the courts of Belgium and "Only at the courts of Belgium and

"Only at the courts of Belgium and Italy may the sovereign be greeted as "Sre" or "Madume," though the etiquette of the Russian court permits it when the French language is being used. When Russian is being spoken, Nicholas II., is to his courtiers and officials "Czar"—employed, like the Prussian "Majestat," without a pronoun. To the Eps of a Russian peasant face to face with his sovereign, the time-thonored "Little Father," or "Little Mother," would spring, as would "Excellenza" to those of an Italian—that melodious southern tongue having no other equivalent for "Majesty."

It should be noted, in passing, that not even their most privileged courtiers may speak to a monarch unless they are spoken to. This piece of etiquette does not work out quite so stiffly as might be expected; to. This piece of etiquette does not work out quite so stiffly as might be expected; once embarked on a conversation, remarks and opinions may be offered with a due amount of tact. But only the sovereign can draw this or that courtier into his immediate circle or otherwise set the conversational ball rolling.
