

In Albermarle Street some opposition was manifested at first, but the meetings afterwards became as attentive as could be expected. Hundreds heard the Gospel, many of whom had evidently not been accustomed to attend upon the ordinances of public worship. Your committee notice with thanks the Ladies, who with the boys in the Halifax Protestant Industrial School, rendered such valuable assistance in leading the singing.

Your committee in closing their report would do so with an appeal to every member, that he will resolve with the help of God to work more faithfully and earnestly for Christ, in the future than he has done in the past; so that if spared to see the close of the year upon which we have entered, our actions may testify that, "The love of Christ constraineth us."
