

SURVEY (

WM. P. ANDERSON,
Departme

SIR,—I have the Survey of Tides and 1895, described the p in the preparation an the Currents it was o season, to give an out compiled as soon afte Mariners." (No. 65 widely as possible ; a Transatlantic and Gu hands of all their Cap

A new departur Quebec, based upon t As this is the first ti been made available dated January 8th) mentioning the Alm thirty-eight publisher and the United Stat Quebec corporations ; St. Lawrence route or

In the present concisely as possible, more readily underst currents in the Gulf 1894 and 1895, since

CHARACTE

The currents hav the Strait of Belle Isl also at its third angle, shore, which connect t been made to trace an from one to another o

The current in th character, and when u runs out and in thr