

meditate upon His judgments with humble thoughtfulness, and with repentance for unfaithfulness, with fervent prayer for enlightenment and guidance in the way of truth. And may He who alone sees the end from the beginning, and who doeth all things well, give us wisdom and grace to acknowledge His hand in all things, and inspire us to that * * * * *

[Here the MS. ends The conclusion was evidently intended to be extempore.]

THE END.