

the said work is to be published in volumes or in distinct parts, or by numbers, or by a series of articles in some periodical magazine or in a Newspaper.

Duty of Registrar. IX. Upon the production of the title of the work, the Registrar shall enter in a register to be kept for that purpose, the title of the work as deposited with him, and the year and day of the month upon which the deposit thereof shall have been made, and he shall give to the author, if he shall require it, a certificate in the form hereinafter prescribed, setting forth the said deposit. 5

Certain entries &c., to be evidence. X. The entries made in the register and the certificates given by the Registrar or the person authorized by him, shall be evidence of what is therein stated in any Court of Justice in this Province. 10

Notice of such copy-right to be given on title page. XI. The title of the work having been deposited as aforesaid, it shall be sufficient for the author, in order to the preservation of his right of property, if it be a work published in one or more volumes or in numbers, to insert upon the title page or upon the reverse thereof, the words following:— 15
Deposited in conformity with the law, in the Office of the Provincial Registrar on the day of 185, and if it be any work, article, or writing published in a magazine or newspaper, it shall be sufficient to insert at the head thereof, after the title, the words following: 20
Deposited in conformity with the law, and the republication hereof is prohibited.

Two copies to be deposited in the Library of Parliament and one with the Provincial Registrar. XII. If the work be published in one or more volumes or in numbers so as to form one or more volumes, the author or his legal representative shall, within three months after the printing and publication of each volume, deposit two copies thereof in the Library of Parliament and one 25 in the office of the Provincial Registrar, under pain of forfeiting his copyright, and the Librarian of Parliament and the Provincial Registrar, upon receipt of each volume, shall give to the author or his legal representative, a certificate setting forth the deposit required by this section.

Application of foregoing provisions. XIII. The foregoing provisions shall apply to all geographical maps, 30 plans or charts, designs, engravings, lithographs, and musical compositions, drawn, made, or composed in this Province, for which copyright shall have been obtained, and every work of the description referred to in this section, shall contain in some conspicuous part thereof, the words following: Deposited in conformity with the law, in the Office of the Provincial Registrar on the day of 185, and three copies shall be deposited and a receipt given as hereinbefore is provided. 35

In case of fraud in obtaining copy-right, remedy of parties aggrieved. XIV. In all cases in which a *copyright shall have been obtained, in any work which shall have become public property before the day upon which the deposit of the title of such work shall have been made, 40 or in any work published under a title differing from that under which it was theretofore known, or in case any one shall have fraudulently or illegally obtained a right of property contrary to the provisions and intention of this Act, any person who shall be grieved by the obtaining of the said right may, in Lower Canada, by action in the Superior 45 Court for the Judicial District within which the person who shall so have obtained the right shall reside, or in Upper Canada by action in any Superior Court of Civil Jurisdiction, require that such person be ousted of such copyright and that the same be declared null and of no effect, and the said Court upon satisfactory proof of the allegations of the Plaintiff, shall 50