

LEGATEE :—

"	universal , how may be freed from debts of succession.	878
"	" may accept under benefit of inventory.	"
"	by general title , how liable for debts.	875 to 879
"	by particular title , how liable for debts.	884 to 889
"	" :—See LEGACY.

LEGITIM, abolished. 775

LEGITIMATION of children, by subsequent marriage. 237, 238

" " " effect of, 339

LESION, may be a cause of nullity in contracts. 991, 1001

" a cause of nullity in favor of minors. 1002

" " " of emancipated minors, when they exceed their capacity. "

" minor declaring himself to be of age is nevertheless relievable. 1003

" minor not relievable from, when it results from fortuitous event. 1004

" minor who is a banker, trader, or mechanic is not relievable. 1005

" minor is not relievable from stipulations of his marriage contract on the ground of, 1006

" " " obligations resulting from offences or quasi-offences. 1007

" " " alienations made with all the necessary formalities. 1010

" acts of minor cannot be annulled on the ground of, if he has ratified them after he became of age. 1008

" cannot be invoked by persons of full age. 1012

" as regards sale. 1561

" as regards partition of successions :—See PARTITION.

LESSEE, his obligations. 1621, 1626

" " as regards deteriorations. 1627, 1628

" " loss by fire. 1629, 1631

" " as to allowing greater repairs. 1634

" repairs for which he is liable. 1632, 1636

" his liability in case of rescission of lease or ejectment. 1637

" his rights. 1638, 1640

" may assign his lease or sublet unless the contrary is stipulated. 1639

" of farm property cannot sublet. 1646

" rights of actions of, against lessor. 1641

:—See LEASE; FARM, lessee of.

LESSOR, obligations of, 1612 to 1618

" " as to cleansing of wells and privies. 1644

" warrants all defects and faults. 1614

" does not warrant against mere trespasses. 1616, 1617

" when bound to warranty against disturbance. 1618

" rights of, 1619 to 1625

" privilege of, 1619 to 1623

" rights of action of, 1624

:—See LEASE.