THE GOOD SAMARITAN.

*Health and the simplest fare. If thou hast these,
Accompanied with one single steadfast friend—
A conscience which thou dost not fear to bear
To the Great Searcher's eye—and that strong hope
Whose wing ne'er tires, e'en o'er the yawning grave,
Go thou thy way; thou art an emperor,—
Bearing thy crown e'er with thee; go thy way
And thank thy God, who hath bestowed on thee
The gold which monarchs count, but oft in vain.*
