Blazers Wrap Up Season

by MARY SCOTT
Brunswickan Staff

Carol Cooper was the big winner as the UNB Red Blazers handed out their end of the season awards at a banquet last weekend. The team Captain won the same 3 awards as she did a year ago. The only award not voted on by team members, team top point scorer, was locked up by Cooper long ago, her 56 points beat Anne Campbell by 16 points. The 6 year veteran's other two awards were no surprise either, as she won Top Defenseman and Most Valuable Player.

Although Campbell fell short in the scoring race, the PEI native was rewarded in another area. For the second straight year she won the top defensive forward citation. Another veteran forward was rewarded for her dedication and versatility as Sandy Ward was tabbed as the unsung hero, Ward played 3 regular positions over the year and never complained about the shuffling around, to earn her teammates votes. The longest serving Red Blazer won the most sportsmanlike player. Debbie MacLoon one of the teams founding members, was rewarded for her attitude and dedication on and off the ice. MacLoon took only 8 minutes in penalties while playing 45 games on defense.

The last two awards went to first year players. Rookie of the year was another Islander, Center Charlene Arsenault won hands down as she set new team records for rookie scoring. First year left-wing Candy Michaud took most improved player for her strong play in the closing weeks of the season.

The team also added awards of appreciation to manager Kathy Cleveland, and Coach Mike Power.

As for summing up how successful a season it was, one only has to look at the final statistics released by the team as a number of new records were established. Individually, Diane Leblanc established a team mark for games played as she was in all 48, her defense partner Carol Cooper set new records for assists (40), and points (56), as well as game tying goals (5). Anne Campbell established a new team high for goals with 20, including a record 8 powerplay markers. Sandy Ward shattered the team record for penalty minutes with 83, and rookie Charlene Arsenault had the highest end of season plus-minus rating with +20. Goalie Sue Keirstead took over the record book in the goaltending department as she set new marks for: games played (37), shutouts (7), save percentage (87%), and end of year goals against average (3.09). The Red Blazer's 24 wins also represents a new team high.

LOCKER TALK

LAURA LEE MACLEAN
SPORTS EDITOR

My name is Laura Lee MacLean (please try and spell it right!) I'm an Arts student who as of last Friday's elections will be the new Sports Editor for the Bruns next year.

I've written articles on various teams throughout the year, and I'd like to think that this motivated me to run for the Editorial Position. I'd like to thank all those members of the Brunswickan who voted to give me a shot at this job, I'll make sure it isn't a wasted vote.

In advance I'd like to thank Jeremy Earl for his patience, putting up with all my dumb questions ... what is California type again?!

If there is anyone who would be interested in reporting on any of the teams for next year please make yourselves known; either by arriving en masse at the Bruns Office or dropping off a note explaining your intentions.

It should be a very challenging year (so I've heard) so I'll be ready for the fall of '86.

Who Really Cares?

Well it's been real, it's been fun, but it ain't been real fun!
I got to meet a lot of people this term that I would not normally have met, did a lot of things that I wouldn't have normally done, and learned a lot of things I wish I hadn't learned.

That was real!
I had a lot of parties, saw a lot of sports and wrote a lot of stories.

That was fun!
I was at the Bruns a lot of hours laying out the paper, drove the paper out to Hartland (till the wee hours of the morning), and spent a lot of time in useless editorial arguments.

That wasn't real fun!
The position of sports editor turned out to be a lot more work than I originally expected and I'm glad to say that we have found a more than competent Sports Editor for next year - Laura Lee MacLean (is that spelled right?). Laura Lee is a good writer and shows all signs of being an excellent editor. Let's go get 'em Laura Lee. Knock 'em dead, Kiddo! (Oh, by the way she's cute too! and not half as dumb as she thinks she is - I asked all the same stupid questions when I took over!)

So to put it all in perspective, it was a long and I must admit rewarding term that I would repeat (but not next year - Joy!). I'll still be at the Bruns next year so all your fears are well founded (watch out for my Express articles - it should be a good season).

Laura Lee - Thanks! (and good luck - you'll need it...I did).

All my readers??? - Thanks for your patience!
See ya next year!

Jeremy Earl
