

has also been a pleasurable and profitable one.

I am sure the citizens of Vancouver will be relieved to know we have reached the last of this riot, and all that has occurred in consequence of it. Some good will come of it if it helps us all to understand each other a little better than we have in the past, and that I think ought to be the effect of this enquiry.

The Commission stands adjourned sine die.

I would like to thank you gentlemen of the press for your attendance here. I have appreciated the manner in which you reported the proceedings and the many courtesies extended to me while in Vancouver. I cannot speak officially but I do speak very sincerely in thanking each for their kindness.

CONCLUSION OF PROCEEDINGS.

(391 folios Vol. 4)

I hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and accurate transcript of the proceedings herein.
