

C 71208

3.-

At last comes ELLIOTT, devoted and sincere,
Genuine liberal ... but in one single sphere:
So busy is he with problems of public life
That he forgets to take unto himself a wife ...

Such are the men to-day - splendid bunch of fellows
Representing all groups, from the western meadows
To the hills of Quebec and to the Atlantic -
Who, full of energy, clever, sympathetic,
Are leading Canada, our beautiful country,
On the path of progress and sound prosperity.

Three cheers for Mister King, who rides the ship of state,
Tiger for his able and invincible mates ! . . .

Gustav L. ...

Ottawa, May 23, 1929.

W.L. Mackenzie King Papers
Memoranda & Notes

PUBLIC ARCHIVES
ARCHIVES PUBLIQUES
CANADA