My dear Arthur:

For your information I enclose a copy of a letter which I have written to Colonel Ralston today. This deals with the financial regulations and the amendment which was passed in October as a matter of policy reducing mothers to a plane much below that of a common-law wife.

The press here is now thoroughly roused on this subject and I am confident that these financial regulations will be revised before Parliament meets. Regardless of this, however, to my mind the Government should be exposed on the floor of the House.

Yours sincerely,

J. A. Clark
