Sir:-

In the concluding part of Mr Agent Ogilvie's Report for the year 1886-7 (first part) that officer states, with reference to the grain grown on the Swan Lake Reserve, that he had a letter from Mr John Cameron of Swan Lake asking him if he should sell the barley as he had an offer of thirty cents per bushel and an offer for the wheat at the same rate, and he wrote to Mr Cameron to sell the barley but he did not know what was to be done with the
