A BIRD'S EYE VIEW.—Winnipeg's skyline is changing so rapidly that a photograph of to-day may be out of date within the week. In two years—1910 and 1911—Winnipeg has put the enormous sum of $32,460,200 into new buildings. In the first five months of 1912 over $8,000,000 was added or a total expenditure of over $41,000,000 in twenty-nine months.
