

ward movement which Canada must make on the resumption of peace if she is to retain her place among the nations of the world. And above all the people of Canada must awake to the necessity of action in the matter of industrial research and recognize that if millions of dollars are being expended by governments and by individual companies in other countries for the development of industrial research, Canada cannot hope to achieve results unless she is willing to meet the necessary outlay.