

PREFACE

THIS SOUVENIR is offered to the Canadian public at a price which puts it within the reach of every street spectator of the events of the Royal visit in the different cities where official programmes will be in demand. Along with a number of handsome pictures, a specially contributed and most interesting account of the Royal journey, from the notes of a press representative, is included. This distinct feature cannot fail to make the Souvenir a thing worth prizing for its present value, and to be kept for future reference as a memento of a great day.
