

dom of righteousness and peace—it will simply collapse like a pricked bladder. It is scarcely necessary to add that we are not anticipating so dire a catastrophe.

IV.—Our Army Friends.

(a) WHO THEY ARE. Wherever the Army has been stationed in Canada and elsewhere, God has raised up a host of friends and well-wishers who attend our meetings, and often testify to the blessings received therein. “Thank God for the Salvation Army,” is reiterated on all sides by many who neither feel themselves called upon to serve in its ranks, nor even to take a prominent share in its work.
