—A JURY OF TWELVE.—The months: they all try us.

—To GARDENERS.—To destroy weeds: marry widows.

—His FATE.—A correspondent wants to know what will be the fate of the last man. The chances are that he will get left.

—An old bachelor said he once fell in love with a young lady, but abandoned all idea of marrying her when he found that she and all her family were opposed to it.

—"Did you do nothing to resuscitate the body?" was recently asked of a witness at a coroner's inquest.

"Yes, sir; we searched the pockets," was the reply.

—A Highland landlord's instruction to a new waiter was: Whenever any visitor asks you to go and get a glass of water without whisky to flavor it, go just as quickly as you can, but you needn't be in a hurry about coming back."
