

The Sunday Library

Price. $2.50 per year.

A Complete Moral Story in each Number.

ITS AIM AND OBJECT.—There has been for a long time a demand from the religious and moral public for a class of cheap moral and religious reading matter, which ought to take the place of the immoral and sensational literature of the present day, which is being placed in the hands of the children, and eagerly sought after in many homes. The publishers of the SUNDAY LIBRARY have determined to place within the reach of every man, woman and child, a moral and religious story, free from all sectionalism and denominationalism, each story teaching some great fundamental truth, which shall be instrumental in building up strong Christian characters, and fitting every one to take a bold and strong stand on the side of Truth, Honesty, Temperance and Christianity.

OUR PLAN.—It is the plan of the publishers to publish, in Library form, a story written by a first-class and popular author, and which, if printed in book form, would sell for from $1.00 to $1.75, but many of which have heretofore been beyond the reach of families in moderate circumstances.

TO FATHERS AND MOTHERS.—It is a well-known fact that children will read whatever is placed in their hands, and it has been a misfortune that so little of the pure and good literature, and so much of that which is calculated to mislead and destroy the mind, has been placed before them. If every parent will see that his family is supplied with this Library as they are issued, a good work will be accomplished, with little labor and at a trifling cost. This has been one of the strongest motives of the publishers in bringing out this class of literature in cheap form, that every family in the land shall have this educational work going on, quietly, but none the less effective in the formation of character.

SIZE AND STYLE.—THE SUNDAY LIBRARY, the size of page being 8 x 12 inches, is printed on the best white, heavy paper, from new, clear type of good size, and each number will contain a complete story. No pains or expense will be spared to make it acceptable and desirable to the most critical.

PRICES.—A SINGLE NUMBER, containing from thirty to forty pages, TEN CENTS. AN EXTRA LARGE NUMBER, containing from forty to sixty pages, FIFTEEN CENTS. A DOUBLE NUMBER, will be issued occasionally in order to print an extra large story, containing from sixty to one hundred pages, TWENTY CENTS. To yearly subscribers, semi-monthly, $2.50 per year in advance.

THE FOLLOWING SEVEN NUMBERS, the cost of which in book form is $3.50 will be sent to any address, post-paid, on receipt of EIGHTY CENTS. Send money by post-office order or registered letter.

Nellie, the Clockmaker's Daughter, by F. M. C. W.; 10 cents. Not Forsaken, by Agnes Giberne; 10 cents. Bode's Charity, by Hesba Stretton; 15 c. Life of Rev. T. DeWitt Talmage, D.D., with History of Brooklyn Tabernacle, by Rev. John Lobb, D.D., F.R.G.S.; 15c. The Young Apprentice, by the author of "Fern Hollow"; 10c. Sheer off, by A. L. O. E.; 15c. In Prison and Out, by Hesba Stretton; 10c. Address all orders and inquiries to

J. S. OGILVIE, & CO., Publishers,

29 Rose Street, New York.

Orders Received at Harvie's Bookstore.

at Tremaine and M...