Right Up To The Last Minute

THERE is no complicated "nest" of gears—no hard-to-clean "contraptions" in the bowl—no oil cups or glass lubricators—on the Standard

Cream Separator. There's nothing "obsolete" in the whole machine. It's right up to the last minute. Built of the best materials by the most costly machinery, and rigidly tested.

The few simple working parts can be held in one hand. Every gear and bearing runs in a bath of oil, and machine needs to be oiled but once in four months. Wide-open bowl and perfectly smooth discs easily cleaned. Supply can about a foot lower than most machines. Crank four inches higher, eliminating back-breaking stooping. All working parts enclosed, keeping out dust and making it impossible for children to get hands or clothes injured.

These are some of the features that go to prove the Standard's up-to-date-ness. Others are told about in our new catalogue, which also shows the new records for close skimming, established by the Standard at Government Dairy Schools. Write for a copy of this new catalogue.

When writing advertisers, please mention "The Farmer's Advocate."

Gossip.

The Royal Commission appointed by the Saskatchewan Government to investigate co-operation and work out a system of agricultural credits, have made their report. From this report we quote: "The need of our agricultural life is closer organization. The farmer should be a cell in a rural organism. As it is, in his relation to every other industry, he stands as an individual unit. He must accept low and give high prices, because he acts only for himself and by himself. Between himself and his fellow-farmers alone is there unrestricted competition, a competition from which, he can expect only to suffer. But while agriculture is unorganized, every other industry is highly organized. Whereas tradesmen and other dealers invariably possess among themselves understandings and a common policy, farmers have ever occupied too isolated a position and too detached a relation to invite or reward competition on the part of those who seek their trade. They do not act together sufficiently to induce sellers to lower, or buyers to raise prices to secure a large block of business. And in this Province their too exclusive devotion to grain production has fostered this aloofness from each other."

A BIG SALE OF HOLSTEINS.

As per advertisement in another column, the great event of the year in Holstein circles will be the complete dispersion of the big, high-class and high-producing herds of Elias Ruby, and the partnership herd of Jacob Leuzler and C. Bollert, all of Tavistock, Ont., which event will be held in the big, covered rink, at Woodstock, on Wednesday, Dec. 17th. Everyone versed in the Holstein history of this country is familiar with the high-class character of these noted herds, both as individuals and as record-breaking producers. Since the foundation of the herds there have been continuously in use as sires the best producing bred bulls obtainable, and of late years, owing to co-operation among the breeders in that district, sires bred in the leading herds of the United States, and carrying the richest blood of the breed, and official backing that necessitated a long price being paid for them, have been in use. Practically all the females in milk are in the R. O. M. and R. O. P. records, and a number of them are in both records, and coupled with their rich breeding and high-producing ability, is strictly high-class individuality, many of them being high-merit show animals. In next week's issue will be a short resume of the herds from a breeding and producing standpoint, but for full particulars, write Jacob Leuzler, R. R. No. 1, Bright, for catalogue.

THE CEDARDALE SHORTHORNS.

Another visit to the Cedardale Stock Farm of Hon. T. S. Sproule, M.D., of Markdale, Ont., found his large herd of Shorthorn cattle in nice condition, and up to a high standard of individual excellence, many of them carrying an immense wealth of flesh evenly put on. Imported and Canadian-bred, several are daughters of Imp. Claret 3rd, and several are daughters of Imp. Martha. Others represent on blood lines the Miss Ramsdens and Miss Aberdeens, and on their sire's side are the get of such well-bred and noted breeding bulls as Imp. Choice Koral, Imp. Scottish Pride, and Imp. Lord Fyvie, the last named being the sire of the yearlings and two-year-olds, those under a year being sired by the Missie-bred bull, Gay Broadhooks, a son of Imp. Broadhooks Golden Fame. Now at the head of the herd is the Rosebud-bred bull, Spicy Victor 89911, a roan son of Imp. British Victor, dam Spicy Queen, by Imp. Spicy King. This is a low, thick, smooth bull, of exceptional quality, that should breed well with the herd. Several of the breeding females are up to a high standard of show-ring quality, and have been in strong company. There are over a dozen heifers from six months to two years of age, of choice type and quality, that are for sale; also four young bulls from seven to ten months, the latter got by the Broadhooks bull. All of them, under the efficient care of J. W. Johns, are in nice condition.
