

OUR DEBT

TO THE MEN OF

THE MERCANTILE MARINE

No more glorious achievement is recorded in the history of the whole war than the service rendered to the Allies by the Mercantile Marine. They transported troops to France; kept up a steady stream of reinforcements, food supplies, munitions, clothing, hospital equipment, etc., without which the victory which is now ours would never have been possible. Picture to yourself what has occurred in Belgium and France and apply the picture to Canada, and then give thanks by contributing to the full extent of your purse to

"SAILORS' WEEK" CAMPAIGN

DECEMBER 1st to 7th

The Mercantile Marine has made our dearly bought victory possible by backing up the armies in the field. Over 16,000 men of this branch of the service have given up their lives in defence of their cargoes of precious freight. Being in a civilian branch of the service they are in receipt of no pensions or allowance from the government. Their families are starving and a cry has come across the water for financial assistance.

MR. FARMER—YOU WHO HAVE RECEIVED A RECORD PRICE FOR YOUR GRAIN DURING THE PAST FOUR YEARS, BY VIRTUE OF THIS DEVOTION TO DUTY—ARE YOU GOING TO LET THIS CALL PASS UNHEEDED?

The Navy League of Canada is putting on a campaign throughout the Province during the week of Dec. 1st. Give generously, remembering what the service of the Mercantile Marine has meant to you. Influenza has made canvassing difficult in some quarters of the Province—if you are not called on for a subscription forward your cheque or money order to the
