

Wedding Bells

YOUNG — GRAY

On Wednesday, June 23rd, 1920, St. John's Church, Ardooch, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Rev. Mr. Watson united in marriage Lucy, only daughter of Mrs. Charles Gray, of Ardooch, and Wellington George, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, of Tamworth. The bride wore a lovely white satin dress and a white hat with ostrich plumes, and was given away by her uncle, Mr. Charles Smith, while Mrs. Roy Hamilton presided at the organ. Miss Mac Morrison, cousin of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and was dressed in sky-blue satin, while Mr. Sam Gray, brother of the bride, acted as best man. After the ceremony was performed the bridal party returned to the home of the bride's mother, where a sumptuous dinner was served to a number of the bride's and groom's friends, the house being beautifully decorated for the occasion. They received many useful and costly presents, including a substantial cheque from the groom's father, which shows the high respect in which they are held. The groom's gift to his bride was a wrist watch, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring, to the best man engraved gold links, and to the organist a gold brooch. After a short honeymoon with friends, Mr. and Mrs. Young left for their home near Tamworth, where the groom is a prosperous young farmer. The bride travelled in a nut brown crepe dress. We all join in wishing them a long and happy wedded life.—Napanee Beaver.

COX — AKEY

A very pretty wedding was solemnized on June 30th by the Rev. Wm. Johnston, of Tweed, when Miss Nellie Gertrude Cox, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Cox, of Sulphide, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Willie Sherwood Akey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roderick Akey, of Sulphide. The bridesmaid was Miss Bessie Moore, and the groomsmen, Mr. Reggie Cox, brother of the bride. The bride was becomingly gowned in blue silk with hat to match and the bridesmaid was also gowned in blue silk. After the signing of the register the happy couple motored to Belleville where a sumptuous wedding dinner awaited them at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Benn, sister of the groom. They will spend a few days with friends and relatives of Belleville, and other western parts. Upon their return they will reside in Sulphide.—Tweed News.

HEATH — REID

On Wednesday, June 23rd, at eleven a.m., the marriage took place of Miss Susie Reid, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Reid, to Mr. Clarence Heath, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Heath, both of Springbrook. Because of Rev. Mr. Hoskin's indisposition, the bridal party motored to Stirling for the ceremony which was performed by Mr. Hoskins. The bride was lovely in pale blue silk. Miss Violet Heath, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid, while Mr. Arthur Reid, brother of the bride, supported the groom.

After the ceremony the party returned to the bride's home, which was beautifully decorated with wild flowers, for the wedding dinner. In the afternoon Mr. and Mrs. Heath left by motor for Belleville. They will also visit Oshawa, the Sandbanks and other points. They will reside at Springbrook.—Stirling News-Argus.

COLLINGS — BOOTH

A quiet but pretty wedding took place on Tuesday, July 6th, 1920, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Booth, Selby, when their eldest daughter, Violet Bernice, became the bride of Mr. Alex. Collings, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Collings, Rev. E. Farnsworth officiating. The bride entered the room on the arm of her father to the tune of the wedding march played by Miss Lela Russell, cousin of the bride. She looked very charming in a gown of maize silk crepe de chine, daintily embroidered and beaded, and wearing a bridal veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. They were unattended. During the signing of the register the Jackson family rendered suitable music. After the ceremony a dainty luncheon was served to about sixty-five guests, and the happy couple left on a short motor trip to Toronto and points west, the bride travelling in a navy suit with hat to match. On their return they will reside at Sharp's Corners.—Napanee Beaver.

ROSE — MACDONALD

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. MacDonald on Wednesday at noon,

June 30, when their only daughter Vera Evelyn, was united in marriage with Mr. O. W. E. Rolph, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Rolph, also of Oroho. The ceremony was conducted by Rev. A. E. Grimth, B.A., B.D., in the presence of about thirty guests, intimate friends of the bride and groom, before a bank of ferns and rose peonies. The wedding music was played by Miss Helen Ketcheson from Mount Allison Ladies' College, Sackville, N.B. The bride, who was given away by her father, looked charming in an ivory tricot dress heavily hand embroidered in pale gold and white silk, and carried a bouquet of sunset roses and baby's breath. Her only ornament was the groom's gift, a diamond and platinum bracelet. The bride and groom were unattended with the exception of little Miss Charnivan Felt, of Orillia, who was ring bearer. After the ceremony a buffet luncheon was served and the happy couple left on an extended motor trip through the Eastern States and Eastern Ontario. The bride travelled in a French model suit of burnt orange Jersey cloth embroidered in taupe, with small black hat. On their return they will reside in Oroho. Among the out of town guests were: Miss Helen Ketcheson, Sackville, N.B.; Miss Marie B. Neenan, Rochester, N.Y.; Miss Merle Mitchell, Montreal, P.Q.; Miss Canace Clare, Little Britain, Ont.; Misses Muriel and Iva Everson, Oshawa, Ont.; Mrs. and Miss Weir, Toronto, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. Townley, Fenelon Falls, Ont.; Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Benson, Wellington, Ont.; Mr. R. Hamilton Brown, Ottawa, Ont.; Mr. Bruce Burnham, Belleville, Ont.; Messrs. Stanley and Ewart Everson, Oshawa, Ont.; Mr. A. O. Felt, Oshawa, Ont.; Mr. W. K. Beech, M.A., Vancouver, B.C.—Pictou Times.

MATTHEWS — ALEXANDER
The home of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Alexander, Hillier, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Wednesday, June 30, when in the presence of about eighty guests, their eldest daughter, Orpha Maud, became the bride of Mr. Charles Matthews, of Toronto, Rev. D. V. Mounter, officiating. The bride, who was charming in a gown of cream satin with cream georgette over-dress, was attended by her sister, Miss Helen Alexander, who was beautiful in a dress of pink satin. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. Andy Matthews, of Toronto. The wedding music was played by Miss Annie Carmichael, of Toronto.

Following the ceremony a delicious dinner was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, accompanied by Mr. William Alexander and Miss Annie Carmichael, of Toronto, left on a motor trip to Belleville, Marlbank and Napanee, the bride travelling in a suit of navy silk with white leghorn hat trimmed with roses.

Guests from a distance included relatives of the bride from Napanee, Marlbank and Plainfield, the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Matthews, and two brothers, Andy and Robert, from Toronto; the groom's friend, Mr. Alex. Gibb, of Sudbury, and the bride's friend, Miss Florence Craig, of Toronto. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews will reside in Toronto. The bride's friends extend best wishes.—Pictou Times.

Address and Presentation

The following address with presentation was made to the Pastor of Northam circuit and his wife, before their departure for Ivanhoe, at the picnic held by Meyersburg congregation at Percy Beach, June 30th:

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Swayne:

We, your friends of Meyersburg, having learned that in the near future you intend taking your departure from this community take this liberty of expressing in some tangible way our appreciation of your three years among us. Your life in our midst has ever been a source of encouragement and an inspiration to higher ideals. As a slight token of our love and esteem for your faithful services, we ask you, Mr. Swayne, to accept this purse and you Mrs. Swayne, to accept this casserole from the choir and trust they will ever be reminders of the numerous and sincere friends you have left in Meyersburg. As you enter your new ministry we wish you all happiness and may God continue to shower rich blessings upon you and through you inspire the lives of others.

Signed on behalf of Meyersburg Community.
