The inquest into the death of Mrs. Annie McLaughlan was opened at 7.30 last evening in the municipal chamber of the Court House. Coroner Dr. Berryman presided and the following jury was empanelled: W. G. Scott, F. W. Daniels, H. Gallacher, A. R. Campbell, T. T. Antalium, John P. Morrison, C. K. Cameron.

M. G. Teed, K.C., and E. P. Raymond appeared for Dr. Spangler, and Dr. A. W. MacRae, K.C., appeared for the crown. A stenographer, as well as the clerk was present to take down the evidence.

T. Fred Power, undertaker, was the first witness. He prepared the body of the late Mrs. W. W. McLaughlan and arranged her funeral. It was necessary for him to have a doctor's permit before any burial, if he could not get one he notified the coroner and secured a certificate from the coroner.

Dr. A. F. Emery was next called. He said he was a regular medical practitioner, having practiced in St. John for eighteen years. He took his degree from the Bellevue Hospital College, New York, in 1887. Was at present a member of the staff of the St. John Public Hospital.

with him he said that I should not have given the certificate, as the matter was coming up before the coroner. The witness did not remember if Dr. MacRae said he had seen the coroner. That was about 10 o'clock a. m.

The coroner then asked: "Did you visit the office of the coroner and state that you could not give a certificate and that the coroner should do so?"

Question: "Has the coroner intimated that he wished to intervene?"

Witness said he got his information from Dr. MacRae and could not say. He continued: "On the 28th, when I got to Mrs. McLaughlan's house I found her in such a critical condition that I asked that Dr. T. D. Walker be called. He came and was present until she died."

Apart from the patient getting up there was always a danger that a clot might break away. If it does not break away it is absorbed in the cases and in others blood vessels grow around it.

She is a rule she does not break away at the time of excessive exercise. It would not then take any time to reach the heart it might, however, loosen and break away later. In a post-mortem it would be difficult to determine if it was since the clot had been loosened.

In reply to Mr. MacRae witness said that he told the patient that his treatment was different from that of Dr. Spangler and warned her that movements of any kind would be dangerous. He knew that the patient understood what he meant, which was that she should have absolute rest.

Miss Minnie Thompson, Princess came in later. She said that she had known the deceased and saw her about eight o'clock on the evening of her death. Mrs. McLaughlan was then lying on the bed with an outer gown on.

This was about ten minutes to eight. Deceased was very weak, but recovered. Dr. Spangler went in later. He said that she was faint, but would be all right. He felt her pulse and put her hand on her head and told her to keep still. He did not touch the patient's feet or legs. She was there about forty minutes and left when Dr. Spangler said the patient was all right. While she was there Dr. Spangler did not offer any suggestions to help the patient or prescribe anything for her.

Mrs. Clarence W. de Forest was then called. She deposed that she had known the deceased and had seen her almost every day during her last illness. She knew of Dr. Emery being called on the 12th of March. Mrs. McLaughlan's regular doctor was Dr. Spangler, who was first called on the morning of the 23rd. Witness knew that Dr. Spangler treated the patient, but did not know what the treatment was.

Dr. A. F. Emery was next called. He said he was a regular medical practitioner, having practiced in St. John for eighteen years. He took his degree from the Bellevue Hospital College, New York, in 1887. Was at present a member of the staff of the St. John Public Hospital.

MRS. TAFT'S COW ON WHITE HOUSE LAWN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., April 2.—There appeared on the White House lawn a splendid specimen of Jersey cow which grazed near the tennis court and bathed itself in the sunshine throughout the afternoon while passing by looked on with astonishment or asked some of the policemen: "Where did that escape from? Why don't you drive it away?"

"Why, that's the first cow in the land," the policeman replied, "and entitled to all the courtesy and respect which we policemen can shower upon her. She belongs to Mrs. Taft, just purchased from Lieutenant General H. C. Corbin, and we have orders to give her carte blanche and entree to the most exclusive spots she can select out here to graze on."

The cow, which had not yet been christened, was purchased by Mrs. Taft in order that the President's family can be provided with milk scrupulously sanitary under all conditions. In the daytime the cow will graze on a section of the White House lawn near the stables, where Mrs. Taft can see it from the window at any time she chooses.

SACKVILLE, April 2.—The first of the graduating recitals for this collegiate year was given Friday evening in Beethoven Hall, Mount Allison Conservatory of Music by the Misses Mary Lockhart, Wynne, N. S., and Nellie Albin Myles, of St. John, N. B., pianists. The recital was every respect an unqualified success; the manner in which the young ladies rendered their various selections calling forth the highest commendation. From such a programme it is difficult to select single numbers as deserving special mention, but probably Miss Porter attained her highest success in her interpretation of the Beethoven Sonata, Andante Movement, Op. 26, and in the Hungarian Dance by David Lieft evincing in these numbers deep musical feeling. In her rendering of the Impromptu, Op. 90, No. 3 by Schubert and the Schumann Novelties, Op. 21, Miss Myles proved herself a brilliant performer.

The pianists were assisted by Miss Freda Hatfield, vocalist, of Halifax, N. S., who sweetly rendered two solos, and Miss Lois Taylor, of Charlottetown, P. E. I., of the Oratory Department, who sustained her reputation as a gifted reciter.

Following is the programme:

Piano, Sonata, Andante con Variazioni, Op. 26 ..... Beethoven.
 Consolation III ..... Liszt.
 Mary Porter.

Song, Ashes of Roses ..... Wood.
 Piano, Sonata, Op. 10, No. 1 ..... Beethoven.
 Adagio ..... Chopin.
 Impromptu, Op. 90, No. 3 ..... Schubert.
 Nellie Myles.

Reading, The Sign of the Cross ..... Anonymous.
 Piano, Mazurka, Op. 33, No. 4 ..... Chopin.
 Fuga 6, Book I ..... Bach.
 Hungarian Dance ..... David Liszt.
 Mary Porter.

Song, As Pants the Hart ..... Handel.
 (Violin Obligato, Miss Robb.)
 Piano, Polonaise, Op. 26, No. 1 ..... Chopin.
 Fuga 6, Book I ..... Bach.
 Novelties, Op. 21 ..... Schumann.
 Nellie Myles.

Consequently it requires an internal treatment one that will restore the blood, and thereby relieve the cause of the pain.

After years of experiment Dr. Hamilton succeeded in producing a remedy that quickly cures rheumatism, gout, and all uric acid disorders.

This marvellous cure has been given to the public as Dr. Hamilton's Mar-drake and Buttermilk Pills; in every case they cure quickly.

By toning the kidneys and liver, Dr. Hamilton's Pills ensure a clean, healthy body. The blood is restored to a normal healthy condition, renewed vigor is imparted to overworked organs, and thus the general health is built up, and no room is left for rheumatism to creep in.

Discourage a sufferer, relieves it in hand. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills, and you will soon shake hands for good with your old enemy. Here is substantial proof.

"This is a glad day for me," writes James E. Brownfield from Midland, Ont., "because I can speak of my permanent relief from rheumatism. I have been all through the agony days and sleepless nights, have spent my money on worthless remedies, and consequently in recommending Dr. Hamilton's Pills I feel sure of the merit. No remedy gave such relief or did me so much good as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. My rheumatism has cured, and ever since my health has been perfect."

Mrs. Fitzpatrick was formerly Miss Kate Ryan of this town. The body was brought from Calais, Me., Saturday night, and the funeral took place from her mother's residence, Water street.

Civic elections take place April 20, but as yet little interest has been shown. With one or two exceptions probably all of the present members of the council board will stand for reelection.

GLACE BAY, N. S., April 2.—At the opening of Saturday's meeting of the board of conciliation, hearing of the evidence on behalf of the company was commenced. The counsel for the men read the men's statement in reply to Mr. Duggan, stating that they were not prepared to accept the propositions made by the companies and asking for recognition of their associations. Referring to the matter of the board in which the men were asked to work, the said statement said that the men were refused work when they went out today and new men were sent to the place of the old men. He said this did not look as if the company were prepared to keep good faith in undertaking to afford work without discrimination.

Duggan stated that the reason work was started at No. 6 this morning was to show the board that they wished to work in good faith. It was done with the most conciliatory objects in view and if there had been any mistaken impression caused it was purely accidental. No. 6 coal was no more required than the other grades and he assured the board and Mr. Cameron that there had been absolutely no discrimination against U. M. W. men. He stated that they had placed all the men they possibly could to work. Others would be placed when the mine was ready for them. Judge Wallace then stated that a satisfactory answer to the counsel for the men was asked that the evidence be proceeded with. The most important evidence given during the day was that of Stung MacKenzie, of New Aberdeen, who stated that he had seen the men at the effect that on January 21 he learned that many of their deputy overmen had joined the U. M. W. and it was against the rule of the company for their officials to be members of labor organizations. They were given the choice of leaving the union or being discharged. They chose the latter course and the men, seven in all, were dismissed. The men in some sections of the mine, where these deputy overmen refused to take their places when asked and left the mine. This threw about between 275 and 300 men out of work on account of their being unable to get the shot drill to work. It is a hard and fair rule that deputy overmen should not be identified with any labor organization.

SACKVILLE, N. B., April 3.—Baptists of this county will meet in their regular district meeting here tonight and on Tuesday. Convention sermons will be preached by Rev. F. G. Francis of River Glade and Rev. H. Grant-Dockrell of Moncton. Rev. F. S. Bamford, formerly of St. John, will lead one of the discussions.

SUSSEX, N. B., April 2.—George N. Fairweather, a prominent druggist of Sussex, was arrested in company with Joseph Prosser today upon the information given by Clifton Campbell, a Scott Act spy.

The arrest caused a big sensation, as both men are well known and highly respected. Joseph Prosser was charged with pocket selling upon sworn information.

Both cases were dismissed through want of sufficient evidence.

Clifton Campbell was arrested upon the information of Joseph Prosser for perjury and will be brought before the court at 9 a. m. tomorrow.

GLACE BAY, N. S., April 2.—Judge Wallace, chairman of the conciliation board, announced that they had received a letter from General Manager Duggan, of the Dominion Coal Company, and in response to their inquiry as to the attitude of the company towards those of their men who were at present out of work and towards the recognition of the U. M. W. He stated that it was their earnest desire to have the men return to work in a manner and to conciliate every man who may now have a grievance or be out of work. This, he said, applied to men on No. 4 colliery as well as to the other collieries. The company would not countenance any ill will on the part of their officials towards any of the men who had been out of work. But the company would still maintain its adherence to the existing agreement with the P. W. A. and the right of its officials to give preference to men of that organization or any other of their own choice. He stated that any particular society and any other organization would be given work when there was employment for them irrespective of any other organization. But the company would still maintain its adherence to the existing agreement with the P. W. men read their statement to the board in reply to a letter from General Manager Duggan, of the coal company. He failed to discover any proposition in the company's letter which they could reasonably accept. They claim there was nothing in the award of the late conciliation board to enable the company to give a preference to the existing local organization. In effect the men refuse every proposition made by the company. This will make the matter of a settlement most difficult for the board. It is understood that the men were called out for work at No. 6 colliery this morning by the blowing of the whistle but not one of the men, except a few P.W.A. men turned out for work. The board will sit for several days, it is expected.
