RUSSIA SPEAKS WITH NO UNCERTAIN VOICE

The Other Allies May Rest Assured of Her Continuance in the War.

Petrograd, Aug. 2.—"I hereby solemnly declare that we will not conclude peace until the last enemy soldier has left our land."

These words of Emperor Nicholas of Russia, uttered at the Winter Palace on Aug. 1, 1914, are reproduced in the press of Petrograd on the anniversary of the war.

MESSAGE TO BRITAIN

Messages to the British people from the Russian Prime Minister, M. Goremkyin, Foreign Minister Sazanoff and Minister of War Polivanoff were published to-day. The following are extracts from the messages:

M. Goremkyin—"We are twelve months nearer to the liberation of the world from German threat against peace. Since we are all determined to complete that liberation, the end is certain."

M. Sazanoff—"The most valuable result of the breaking of the German power will be the downfall of the detestable doctrine that might is right. For this result no sacrifice can be too heavy."

M. Polivanoff—"We shall continue to fight with all the strength which lies in the inexhaustible resources of the Russian Empire, with unshakable confidence in ultimate victory, and with a volume of munitions which is increasing every day."

A message in the Bourse Gazette printed in all the languages of Russia's allies says:

"For a year past the enemy has been threatening the freedom of the world. We deeply appreciate the self-sacrificing aid of the allies in exerting a combined pressure on him on all sides."

"A firm confidence in victory in a community of world-wide interests and in the final triumph of right fires the spirit of the nation. It has been our guiding star throughout this year of bloodshed. It will serve us in the coming months, maybe years, of this terrible struggle."

"Russia greets her allies—France, Great Britain, Belgium, Serbia, Montenegro, Japan and Italy. All hail their heroic loyalty and firm determination to stand by to the end; till light dispels the gloom."

Petrograd, Aug. 2.—The Duma was opened Saturday by a memorial session. The cabinet members and members of the diplomatic corps formed part of the brilliant assemblage. The speeches were full of appreciation for the efforts of the allies, and the wish of Russia to continue the joint struggle with assurance of final success. A strong resolution was expressed not to accept peace until a definite victory had been won by the allies.

The Premier formally promised autonomy to Poland.

The Marquis of Bute has recently prevented one of the finest collections extant of old hard tartans passing out of Scotland to America. The collection dates back to about the time of Glencoe, and was in the possession of Campbell of Glenlyon, of Glencoe notoriety, and handed down to the late Gordon Campbell, of Troop, Banffshire. On the dispersal of his property it came into the hands of Sir Donald Menzies, of Plain Castle, and from him to the Marquis of Bute, who takes a keen interest in the beautiful old hard tartans of the Highlanders, which cannot now be produced. They are woven from exceedingly fine wool almost like silk, got from an ancient breed of Highland sheep, which were very small in size, but are now extinct. The colors are bright as if newly dyed, being natural dyes made from lichens.

PLATE REMOVED

From Becker's Coffin—Charged Governor Whitman With Murder.

New York, Aug. 2.—Inspector Faurot, head of the detective bureau, went to the Becker home in the Bronx Sunday and removed the plate inscribed "Charles Becker, murdered July 30, 1915, by Governor Whitman," from the coffin bearing the body of the former police Commissioner.

The action was taken by the inspector following a conference which he held with Second Deputy Police Commissioner Godly and District Attorney Martin of Bronx county, at which it was decided that the plate with its inscription constituted criminal libel against the Governor.

Detective Caplan accompanied Inspector Faurot. They arrived at the Becker home about 4 o'clock, and were admitted at once by Mrs. Becker. Whether Mrs. Becker readily consented to having the plate removed could not be learned, but significance is attached to the admission by the inspector that he was compelled to remove the plate himself.
