It was thought by the members of the W.C.T.U. and their friends that and after devotional exercises he delivered an appropriate opening address. As interludes to the recitations, vocal selections of a pleasing character were given by Miss Miriam Green, A.T.C. Blanchard and the H S. glee club, Miss Loverin performing very efficiently the duties of accompanist.

The contestants were, in the order named, Miss Cora Wiltse, Miss Winnabel Elliot, Miss Miriam McConkey, Miss Rosa Bresee, Mr.—Evertts and Mr. Wm. Kennedy. The different recitations were roundly applauded and were of such merit as made them not only entertaining but highly educative in respect to the principles sought to be promoted by the ladies of the Union. The judges were Messrs. J. R. Moore, W. C. Dowsley and G. F. Donthem on the first count, so that after with their verdict.
