WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked by Male Physicians.

An eminent physician says that women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male truth, the great believed and the decrease with them than the physician. This is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Fancy Favors For the Easter Feasi In Smart and Dainty Designs.

It is quite possible, however, for the woman who possesses in any degree an artistic gift to invent scores of new ideas and to utilize them with inexpensive materials at home.

Most of the favors seen in the shops are costly because of the idea, not of the materials. The wise woman, then, will purchase a model and fashion the required number from it and thus be enabled to furnish her guests with a souvenir of double value. It is pretty, and it is the work of her own hand.

Packing a School Hamper.

Probably there's nothing that a boarding school girl looks forward to with more delight than the occasional hamper from home. There are four classes of persons who should not drink large quantities of hot water. These are as follows: (1) People who have irritability of the heart; hot water will cause palpitation of the heart in such cases; (2) persons with dilated stomachs: (3) persons afwith dilated stomachs; (3) persons af-flicted with "sour stomachs;" (4) persons who have soreness of the stomach or pain induced by light pressure. These rules are not for those who take hot water simply to relieve thirst, but hot water simply to relieve thirst, but as a means of washing out the stomach. Hot water will relieve thirst better than cold water, and for that purpose it is not to be condemned. But hot water is an excitant and in cases in which irritation of the stomach exists should be avoided.

CUTICURA REMEDIES WORK WONDERS

Mr. A. C. Barnett, proprietor of a general store in Avard, Oklahoma, tells in the following grateful letter how Cuticura cured him and his son how Cuticura cured him and his son of terrible eczemas:

"My little boy had eczema. His head was one solid sore, all over his sealp; his hair all came out, and he suffered very much. I had a physician treat him, but at the end of three months he was no better. I remembered that the Cuticura Remedies had cured me, and after giving him two bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, according to directions, and using Cuticura Soap and Ointment on him daily, his eczema left him, his hair grew again, and neither he nor myself have had any eczema since.

As to his own case, Mr. Barnett says:
"I suffered with eczema, a burning, itehing, breaking out on my face for more than a year. I took treatment from physicians for several months, which did no good. I was then advised to try Cuticura. I took six bottles of Cuticura Resolvent, and used Cuticura Soap and Ointment freely every day. I began to improve soon after starting to use them, and when I had taken the six bottles of the Resolvent my face had become clear, I had good color, and all cruptions had left me.

Vancouver, B. Mallorytown, May 15.—Gaunt and pretty well exhausted, Challabran, the escaped lunatic-murderer, quietly accepted arrest at the hands of County Constable Wilser Mallory on the main road between here and Kingston, early last evening. At midnight he was taken back to the penitentiary by Detective Foster. He was unarmed, save for a jackknife. He still wore prison trousers. Other garments he had on had been stolen from the home of Capt. Carnegie at Rockwood.

In his week's journey Challabran had covered forty-six miles, all afoot, and traveled only by night. His first appearance was at the home of Manley Cross, a lighthouse-keeper, residing four miles east of Gananoque, on Tuesday last, where he had dinner.
