Angels Everywhere.

These fit a nutried angels
Around this earth below;
And in and out our thresholds
Their fontsteps yome and go,
White in our very blindness
Their forms we do not know,
They sing to as in music,
They smile on us in dreams
They talk to us in echoes
The worldly spirit deems
But chirruping of wood-birds
And chattering of dreams.

They make light in our corners,
They purify our sir;
They take our hands unconsciou
And guide us unaware,
The presence of their ministry
Is sweetly everywhere.

They sit up in the nursery
And kiss the babes to sleep,
Across the holy hearth place
They join their hands, to keep
From blotting out the home shine
The tears that sad hearts weep.

They lark about the sick-room, And trace upon the wall Quaint legends for still musings When twilight shadows fall— The dim world drifting past us, A thing not worth recall. Then sit they by the bedside
And hold our passive hands,
And talk to us of strange things
That health soarce understands
Till home-like to the soul grow
Uncomprehended lands.

They sketch the shadow-groups
And the pictures 'tween the bars,
And point with finger pure
To the tranqui vast of stars,
While breathing holy peace
On the daylight's jars.

They kneel beside the children
Who say their evening prayer,
And flit beside the mother
Who passeth down the stair, With peace writ on her foreh-Across the print of care.

And when the door is shu;
And the burried day is gone,
They stand beside the father
Whose laboring is done,
And pay him down the blessings
The children's prayers have won.

My eyes are now in a splendid condition and I am as well and strong as ever. — Mrs. William Gage, Concord, N. H.

For a number of years I was troubled with a humor in my eyes, and was unable to obtain any relief until I commenced using Ayer's Sarsaparilla. This medicine as effected a complete cure, and I believe it to be the best of blood purifiers.—C. E. Upton, Nashua, N. H...

From childhood, and until within a few months. I have been afflicted with Weak and Sore Eyes. I have used for these complaints, with beneficial results, Ayer's Sarsaparllia, and consider it a great blood purifier.— Mrs. C. Phillips, Glover, V.

I suffered for a year with inflamma-tion in my left eye. Three ulcers formed on the ball, depriving me of sight, and causing great pain. After trying many other remedies, to no purpose, I was final induced to use Ayer's Sarsaparilla, and, By Taking

My daughter, ten years old, was affloted with Serofulous Sore Eyes. During the last two years she never saw light of any kind. Physicians of the highest standing exerted their skill, but with no permanent success. On the recommendation of a friend 1 purchased a bottle of Ayer's Sarsaparilis, which my daughter commenced taking. Before she had used the third
