BOUTS ARRANGED

Between Yankees and Old Country

New York, Oct. 16.-Three interest ing battles were arranged yesterday. Johnny Summers, the English lightweight, who made such a good showing against Tommy Murphy in their fight at Philadelphia, was coupled with the Philadelphia, was coupled with the Philadelphia lightweight, Bert Keyes, for a 20-round session before the Edgewood A. C., of New Haven on Nov. I. The principals in the other match were Pat O'Keefe, the Irish middleweight champion, and Sailor Burke, the Brooklyn middleweight. This pair were matched for a struggle at catch-weights, and bids for the fight will be received until Oct. 24.

Last night Charles Harvey made his third match of the day, when he arranged a battle at catch-weights between Owen Moran, of England, and Tommy O'Toole, of Philadelphia. This will be a six-round battle.

Summers and O'Keefe are both managed by Charles Harvey, who intends to get them into action without delay in order to test their calibre. Summers arrived here last week and had little trouble getting a match, as he put up a wonderful fight when he met Murphy. O'Keefe is not well known here, but as soon as Sailor Burke heard that there was a new middleweight in sight, the nautical person lost no time in connecting with the visitor.

The match between Burke and O'Keefe calls for six or ten rounds, and the two fighters are husky enough to make it interesting all the way. Until some club, however, shows a desire to have this fight on its schedule, speculation as to the outcome would be more or less unprofitable. ing battles were arranged yesterday. Hamilton's Back Division Will Be Hard to Beat-Arrangements fo Game With Argos.

It is a certainty that the Hamilton Tigers will be very much stronger in their game with the Toronto Argonauts here next Saturday than they were in the game with Montreal. There was a full turn-out last night, and the way the boys turned in and worked showed the determination they have made to win Gordon Southam, the star half-back of 'Varsity for the past two years, was out last night, and will surely be on the line on Saturday at centre half. This will strengthen the team immensely, and the practice last might showed that the boys felt one of the danger spots had been capably filled. Charlie Martin, the hero of many a hard fought gridiron battle, was also out, and showed that he had lost none of his oldtime skill in kicking and following up.

Toronto, Oct. 16.—The claim of another class of York Loan shareholders to be treated as creditors, otherwise to get one hundred cents with interest for ev ery dollar invested, was presented to Mr. Kappele, official referee, yesterday by Mr. W. This class holds permanent stock and consists of 205-holders of fully paid-up stock, representing $49,800, and 2,140 holders of an aggregate of $548,100, on which $242,252 has been paid.

Mr. Ferguson objected that, under the statute, proper notice to the shareholders of the passing of such by-laws should have been given, and that this was not done. was not done.

Mr. Douglas said that the directors were authorized to enact by-laws with or without the consent of the sharehold-

Mr. Stewart Linn, former secretary-treasurer of the company, did not recollect that any permanent stock had been issued prior to 1904, when the new by-law was passed.
