BEACH PATENTS.

Applications Must be Made to Commissioners at Once.

The Board of Beach Commissioners have given notice in this issue to persons residing on the Beach, either under squatters' or fishermen's rights, to make apters' or fishermen's rights, to make application at once for patents. The commissioners intend to make a report to the Government soon after Dec. 1 in regard to the issuing of patents to those who are entitled to them.

Messrs, Van Allen and Morden were at the office of the board this morning, but the chairman said he had no information for the ress.

for the press.

"Has the amusement by law been repealed yet?" he was asked, and he replied emphatically, "No."

"Will it be repealed to-day?" asked the reporter, but the chairman made no

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.

Basketball men are requested to hand their names to Mr. Barton.
W. P. Archibald, of Ottawa, Dominion parole officer, will address the men's meeting at 4.15 to-morrow afternoon, and speak in the song service at 8.30 in Association Hall. Mrs. M. E. Smith will sing at the song service.

At the East Hamilton Association a prayer service for men will be held at a o'clock to-night.

Mr. Barton is arranging to give in-dividual instruction in body building and corrective work to men, women and children.

A series of special lectures conducted by Evangelist Geo. R. Turk will commence to-morrow. Mr. Turk will speak in two of the churches and address the meetings in the Y. M. C. A. at 4.15 and 3.15 p. m.

The international convention at Washington is now in full swing. It will be one of the most memorable in the history of the Association. Hamilton is represented by six delegates.

Where Money Was Scarce.

We took advantage of amazingly low prices offered us (compared with the usual selling figures of similar goods) and bought intelligently and liberally of the most desirable lines of men's and boys' overcoats, suits and pants. Now is your time to buy; the bargains are rich.—lyalick & Co., 13 and 15 James start north.

BIG SUCCESS.

Mr. D. M. Barton repeated his illustrated lecture on "Health, Strength and Longevity," last night, for the fifth time, to a crowded house, many lundreds being turned away. He will likely repeat it again in the near future. It certainly speaks well for this lecture that it could be repeated so many times.

A FALL OF BREAD.

One of Ewing's bread wagons was tained upside down this morning about 9 o'clock on James street, near Cannon, by a street car. The horse wandered on the car tracks, where a car hit it, and there was a big fall in bread. The horse was not injured, but the wagon and the fender of the car were pretty well damaged.
