P. S. N. Co.—The Petitcodiac Steam Navigation Co. has received its charter from the provincial government. Capt. A. G. Dixon went to Yarmouth, N. S., last week to see the new steamer. He will remain until she is completed, and then bring her to Hopewell Cape.

Changes.—Joseph R. Mitton, of Elgin has moved into Mrs. Emma Duffy's house, Academy Street, Hillsboro.

Joel Tarris has moved into the house on Academy Street, partly occupied by Elias Bennett.

Mrs. Mainwaring has moved into the building opposite the Company Store.

Our Schools. — School Inspector Smith visited the Hillsboro schools last week. He completed his work in Albert County last Thursday and left for his home in Petitcodiac per Friday's train. He reports the schools generally through out the county in a fairly healthy and prosperous condition.

Business Booming.—Business appears to be booming at Harvey Bank at present. Caulkers have commenced work on Hon. G. S. Turner's new ship which is progressing rapidly. About 60 men are now at work on her.

Houses to rent are in great demand at present and are becoming scarce.

Where to Go.—If you wish a first class photograph go to C. E. Northrup, Moncton. Only last week we heard a lady, who is well posted in such matters, say that she considered Northrup turned out as good work as did St. John's best artists. He can be relied upon every time. Try him and be convinced. Read his new advertisement in another column.

A Gentle Hint.—Our subscribers will please remember that the Observer has entered upon its fifth year, and therefore the renewal of subscriptions will be perfectly in order. Amounts due from delinquent subscribers will also be gratefully received. We wish all our friends to assist us in making The Observer a first class paper, by promptly paying the printer.

To Our Readers.—Choice selections on outside pages this week. Do not overlook them.

Next week, instead of the W.C. T. U. column, we purpose publishing a very interesting article by a Nova Scotia clergyman, entitled. "W. C. T. U, the Deborah of the 19th Century."

An elderly lady in Westmoreland County who is greatly interested in The Observer and its many young readers has sent us a series of 10 letters (by a Presbyterian divine) on popular subjects, such as Education, Amusement, Temperance, etc. We purpose commencing the publication of these letters in our issue of April 18. They will be found exceedingly interesting and instructive and should be read by every person.

School Entertainment.—The pupils of the Hillsboro graded school, feeling the need of a sidewalk from the main street to the school house, resolved to undertake the raising of funds for that purpose. Accordingly last Monday evening they held an entertainment in the school room, which was well attended. After the literary part of the programme had been very successfully carried out well filled baskets were sold at auction, the amount realized being $5.40. Where is He?—Some months ago Thomas Byron, of this city, engaged with a lumberman named Armstrong to do lumbering in the woods near Shepody. In consequence of reports having reached his friends here that he had been killed, they have been anxiously inquiring concerning him, but up to the present time have not been able to ascertain any information regarding his whereabouts. It is stated that those who went into the woods with Byron have been out for some weeks. If there is anybody in Westmorland or Albert counties who knows anything about Byron, or who can give the present address of the party with whom he was employed, they will be doing an act of humanity if they will at once communicate with the young man's mother, Mrs. Michael Byron, who resides on Richmond street.—St. John Globe.

Elgin Notes.

Although the night was very wet and dark yet a goodly number assembled in the Baptist Church on Thursday evening. March 28, to hear the address by Mrs. John March relative to the missionary work in which she is engaged. She gave an account of the Women's Missionary Aid Society, organized by Miss Norris about eighteen years ago, from the time of its inception to the present. Then she told of the work this society has done, and is doing among the Telugu heathen, as well as in the home mission field. She had on exhibition about four hundred different objects that Missionaries had brought from heathen lands. With these she attired one girl out of the audience as a Telugu heathen and another as a Telugu Christian and two little girls as widows. In showing the degraded position that women occupy in those eastern countries she said that little girls at the tender age of five and six years are betrothed to men whom they, perchance, had never seen. When once engaged they were as responsible as if actually married. Should their affianced die they are subjected to all the barbarities that befall the lot of the widow. The rings and jewelry are wrenched from their noses and ears. They were cursed by any one whom they chanced to meet, as their presence was to them an omen of evil. They had to withdraw to the most retired seclusion and they were never allowed again to marry. The highest ambition of a woman there is the hopes of becoming, in course of time, a man through the transmigration of souls. She also dressed one of the boys up as a priest showing the deception that is played by the priesthood upon their innocent victims.

Mrs. March is a pleasing speaker and the use she makes of objects in illustrating the benighted condition of the poor heathen is far more forcible than a description, without the objects, by the most eloquent orator.

Her address was repeated on Friday evening to a much larger audience and was given in the church at Hillside on Sunday morning, and in the hall at Mapleton on Sunday afternoon.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mrs. Bannister wife of Capt. Joseph Bannister died very suddenly at her residence on Tuesday the 26 inst. She arose quite early, apparently, as well as usual called up the rest of the family, but before the breakfast was ready she was a corpse. It is thought that death was caused by some affection of the heart.

George Kinnie got his leg badly jammed on Friday at Councillor Blakney's mill.

March made an effort, in its last moments, to fill its bill but it proved quite a failure compared with the boisterous weather of other years.

If your face is marked with blotches,
And eruptions mar your skin,
You may bet your bottom dollar
There is something wrong within.
'Tis the blood. To purify it
There is nothing half so good,
As the G. M. D. is—try it!
To be clearly understood
I will explain that G. M. D means "Golden Medical Discovery" (Dr. Pierce's), the popular remedy for debility, lung-troubles, and weak, impoverished blood, which, like scrofula, shows its presence in the system in blotches, eruptions, and pimples.

Perfection is attained in Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy.

Harvey Chips.

Rev. L. M. Weeks left here last Friday for St. Andrews, having received a call some time since from the Baptist church in that place.

Hon. G. S. Turner came home Friday and returned to Fredericton on Monday to resume his legislative duties.

Moses Jones and wife of Salisbury, came to Harvey on Saturday to visit relatives.

Norman N. Smith left here Monday for New Jersey where he went to visit his brother Norton who is at present in that state, in the employ of Professor Gleason the noted horse trainer.

Rev. J. W. Brown preached here again Sunday evening, the subject of his sermon being "A Trial of Faith," which he dealt with in a manner creditable to himself and which was highly appreciated by his audience. He has made himself very popular with the Harvey, New Horton and Germantown churches and has received a unanimous call to become their pastor. It is understood he accepted the call and left here Tuesday for Lunenburg, and will return the middle of next week to take charge of his new field of labor.

A heavy fall of snow here on Saturday made excellent sleighing which our citizens are enjoying to the utmost.

H. B. Peck, Postal Clerk on the I C. R. was here on Monday calling on some of his numerous friends.

Elmer Smith and bride returned home Tuesday from their bridal tour and are receiving the warm congratulations of their many friends. The boys gave them a hearty charivari.

Justice Casey's court room was filled with spectators on Saturday to listen to a suit brought by S. C. Stevens against Herbert Newcomb for the recovery of the price of an iron pot, which plaintiff had lent defendant and which plaintiff claimed the defendant had broken. The jury brought in a verdict "no cause of action." J. H. Dickson for plaintiff, Herbert Newcomb for defendant.

Another correspondent writing from Harvey says:—

We boast now that the rum shop nearest Harvey Corner or Bank is situated at Albert, which is some thousand miles nearer than we desire.

Our Assessors, in trying to do their duty faithfully, have met with the treatment usually accorded men who undertake to do that. They may have erred somewhat in judgment, but we have faith in their integrity, and believe they equal any of their predecessors in the soundness of their judgment.

Albert Notes.

Times are a little brighter since the snow storm, Saturday, which made very good sleighing.

J. C. Stewart, of the Shiretown was in town Sunday morning but left immediately after dinner for Riverside to visit a lawyer, or rather the lawyer's cousin.

Mr. Havelock Smith moved into the tenement over Anderson & Keiver's store last week.

The Maple Leaf printing office is now situated on the "by-road to Lumsden."

Tingley & McLane intend shipping three car loads of trees to Quebec this week.

Wm. Burns of this village visited Baltimore this week on private business. We expect soon to be able to record the happy event.

Joseph Wood of this village has been laid up with a lame hand but is now improving.

There is a splendid chance here for a livery stable if the right man comes.

Our good friend Lovey is again too previous in stating, in last week's Maple Leaf, that Hopewell Lodge had purchased an organ, as the organ was only put in on trial and the bargain is not yet closed.

Frank Taylor, of Hillsboro, bought that fine harness which Kinnie & Murray had in their shop.

The Albert Literary Club was organized last Wednesday with a very few charter members but L. M. W. was one of the number. If he takes the same interest in it that he did in the Lodge after he joined it he will not be worth the paper his name is on. But it is to be hoped he will take a deeper interest and thus help us off the "by-road" to which he referred.

Harley Newcomb, of Riverside has been granted a diploma from the St. John Business College.

Wm. Nicholson, of Hillsboro, has opened up a tin and sheet iron shop here. It is to be hoped that he will have enough business to cause him to remain here, not only for a short time but permanently.

Mrs. Dr. Murray has been ill but is recovering.

Albert, April 3rd., 1889.

A Five Dollar Paper for one Dollar.

The publishers of the United States Commercial Age, in order to introduce their paper into every household, office and workshop in the United States and Canadian Provinces, will send it one year, postage free, to any person remitting them ONE DOLLAR. The regular subscription price of the Age is five dollars per annum. It is an old established paper, being in its tenth year, contains eight large pages each week, full of interesting matter for farmers, mechanics and the general reader, as well as five broad columns of market quotations. It is invaluable to anyone desiring to keep posted on the general markets, inventions, finance, etc., of the country. Next to the local paper, no one can invest a DOLLAR to better advantage, as the Age at this price is the cheapest paper in the world, ONE DOLLAR hardly covering the cost of the fine paper upon which it is printed. The publishers are virtually giving it away. Send ten cents in coin or stamps for a sample copy, or, what will be better still, remit ONE DOLLAR and receive it a whole year. Subscriptions may begin at any time. Address BRYANT & SLAWSON, Publishers, 99 Broad street, Boston, Mass.

Pleasant Vale Notes.

F. C. Colpitts, who was hurt with a falling tree some time ago, is recovering slowly.

Sutherland Bishop who has been in poor health all winter, fears being entertained that he was going into a decline is again able to go out and attend to his farm duties. His daughter Ida is seriously ill with erysipelas.

Nearly every family has been afflicted with the mumps, in the last six weeks.

John W. Gifford, one of our highly respected young men, who has followed a seafaring life for some time, leaves home in a few days to take charge of the steward's department in one of Albert County's best schooners.

The sugar season which has given such good returns to those engaged in the business is brought to a stand still by the cold storm of Saturday. Our oldest residents think we are going to have our March weather in April.

It is quite a perplexing time for our Assessors just now as those who own property, real and personal, are very anxious they shall not be assessed for more than they are worth. But as we have three very honorable men for Assessors we trust justice will be done all parties.

Conservative.

Simpson Defended.

"What the Hopewell Cape People say of the Affair.

W. A. Simpson and his friend, Mr. S. Kerr—son of Principal Kerr of St. John Business College—came to this village (Hopewell Cape) last Fall having previously visited different parts of both provinces. They spent some time in several parts of this County when Mr. Kerr received word from his father and went to St. John, but shortly after he received and accepted a position in Sioux City, Iowa, where he now is. Before leaving for the West Mr. Kerr was presented with a valuable watch charm by the Y. M. C. A. of St. John. This is the lively young man—Simpson's chum—referred to in the Maple Leaf. Simpson, intending to spend the winter in N. B., concluded to remain here in this village. He had been here only five days when Stewart, doubtless prompted by a feeling of jealousy, reported that Simpson had boasted to him of his conduct during the short time he had been here. This Mr. Simpson most positively denied and as his own honor, and that of two young ladies, was seriously involved he (Simpson) demanded a retraction of what Stewart had said and sent letters to him, he being at Albert, to that effect. Wednesday morning however, Stewart came home and was met on the road and struck by Simpson as he had failed to recall his defamatory statements. They had a scuffle in which Stewart knocked Simpson down and falling among the rocks his revolver, which he was always in habit of carrying, fell out. As he reached to pick it up, Stewart was heard to bawl out, "For God's sake don't shoot me Simpson and I will make all necessary amends and won't take the law of you either." An eye-witness of all that transpired on this occasion solemnly declares that Simpson did not point his revolver at Stewart or threaten his life. But no sooner had Simpson left the scene of conflict than the ever truthful Jim (not his father) ran with all speed and informed the Officers of the Law that Simpson threatened his life and ordered his arrest. Simpson in the meantime was having his thumb, which he had hurt in the scuffle, bathed quite ignorant of all that was transpiring outside. But being informed that he was to be arrested as a criminal on the charge of threatening life, he looked around for some means of escape and every possible way being barred he escaped through a window. After he was outside seeing several in pursuit he then and only then drew his revolver, but threatened no life, and left.

During his stay of five months in this village Mr. Simpson has won for himself a host of friends—not by the different tales he told the poor, simple, ignorant country folks, as the Maple Leaf insinuated but by gentlemanly manner to all, by his pecuniary encouragements to the children in learning and by many other kind acts. The people here sincerely regret that through the columns of the press such serious misrepresentations of the matter have been printed and only hope restitution will be promptly made. The hotel proprietor (where he boarded) has been heard to say that Simpson has been a perfect gentleman during his stay here and he has the sympathy of the larger part of the community. Simpson is not looked upon as the criminal.

The above are the facts as believed by every disinterested person of Hopewell Cape.
