

The Standard

DEVOTED TO COUNTY NEWS

AND GENERAL INTELLIGENCE

FORTY-SECOND YEAR
WHOLE NUMBER, 218.

GODERICH, ONT., FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1889.

(D. McGILLICUDDY, PUBLISHER.
$1.00 A YEAR IN ADVANCE)

TO ADVERTISERS.

Notice of changes must be left at this office not later than Monday noon. The copy for changes must be left not later than Wednesday noon. Casual Advertisements accepted up to noon Thursday of each week.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

Notice—J. P. Luby.
Dog Lost—F. Pridham.
Furniture Wanted—Mr. Foot.
Groceries—Isaac Cassidy.
Music Class—Mr. de Poudry.
Piano Tuning—Mr. Ramsperger.
Boiler Works—Chrystal & Black.
Public Notices—Rees Price & Son.
Notice to Creditors—T. J. F. Hilliard.
Notice to Creditors—D. Blackley, Hamilton.
Newcombe Pianofortes—Newcombe & Co., Toronto.

BORN.

McLennan—In Seaford, on the 17th inst., the wife of Mr. J. P. McLennan, a son.

MARRIED.

Swartz—McDonald—At Goderich, on the 25th of January, by the Rev. Dr. Ure, Mr. Thomas Swartz to Miss Jennie McDonald, both of Goderich.

DIED.

Walker—In Goderich, on Thursday, January 24th, Robert L. Walker, son of the late Robert Walker, aged 22 years and 10 months.

Duggan—In Goderich township, on Thursday, January 31st, Edward Duggan, aged 73 years.

The funeral will take place from his late residence Huron Road, four miles from Goderich, on Saturday, Feb. 2, at 3:30 a.m.

TOWN TOPICS.

*A chief's among ye, takin' notes,
An' faith he'll print it.*

The weather in no way affects the taking of photos at Geo. Stewart's studio. He can give you a tropical view in February.

GOOD PRESENTS.—The most useful gift you can make is to give a Wirt Pen. Apply to D. McGillicuddy, agent Goderich.

Maniche Lines.—Unrivalled for cows, calves, horses and sheep. "Crushed Nutrient" Meal, by the ton, at Huron's Store, Hamilton.

PEPE.—This is the name of the best 5 cent cigar that is sold in Canada. Also Creme de Pepe in 10 cent boxes, and at Wilson's Prescription Drug Store. All fresh goods.

FROSTILLA.—This is the season of the year to use Frostilla. It is something unique in the use of cheaped hands and faces. You can get it and all other drugs and chemicals at Geo. Rhymer's drug store.

THE WOMEN'S CHARITABLE TEMPERANCE UNION will meet regularly for the transaction of business every Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Knox church. Every woman interested in the work is cordially invited to attend.

Snow has come, and Farmers can now get a first class stove cheap and see our E. & C. Gurney Coy's line of stoves acknowledged by all to be the best in Canada. The largest stock of plain and fancy Tinware in Town. The cheapest house under the sun.

"People Will Have It."

The wonderful healing and soothing properties of Lumsden & Wilson's Royal Glycerinated Balsam of Fir are the secret of success. Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and all other consumption quickly give way to its curative power. Nothing but its superiority over other remedies has created the demand for it from all parts of the Province, which has even extended to the United States. Why? Because every person who has used it speaks well of it. Druggists sell it Price 50 cts. per bottle. 6mo

BRIEFLETS.

Mr. G. Black was in town attending the funeral of his mother.

Mr. F. B. Cummer, late of Goderich, is now on the Blyth Standard Staff.

Wm. Leasham, of Salford, is building an Orange Hall in connection with his hotel.

Dr. McDonagh will be in Goderich for consultation on the first Saturday of every month.

Miss A. Platt, who has been visiting friends and acquaintances in Washington, Ont., returned Tuesday last.

Messrs J. Greenan and J. Egan, of Blyth, sold a couple of very fine horses to Mr. A. M. Poley, of Goderich, last week.

Kennedy & Co., of Guelph, have received the contract to supply the stone for the new Government building at Goderich.

Miss Knox recited in New York on the 25th, (Burr's anniversary), after which she will sail for Scotland where she intends to remain for some time.

There was a large turnout of the Reform Electors of East Huron in attendance at the Annual Meeting of the Association, held in Brussels on last Saturday.

As was announced last week the Mission Band in connection with Knox Church, met on Saturday last. Over forty children were present, and all spent a very pleasant time. The work done by the Band last year was very satisfactory indeed.

Rev. John Wakefield, formerly of North-st. Methodist church, delivered two stirring discourses on mission work in that church last Monday. The sermon in the morning was a particularly effective one, and drew a large collection.

VITAL STATISTICS.—There were registered by the Clerk of Goderich township for the year 1888, 43 births, 14 marriages and 29 deaths.

Dr. M. Nicholson, the West-st. dentist, makes the preservation of the natural teeth a specialty. Gas administered from 9 a. m. for the painless extraction of teeth.

Little Tommy Maginn, one of the two brothers sent from Goderich, to the Reformatory a few months ago, died in that institution lately from diphtheritic croup.

The meanest man up to date is Snifkins. He sold Jones half an interest in a cow, and then refused to divide the milk, maintaining that Jones owned the front half.

The Huronites that have bought land in the Sunny South intend to call their plantations the Huron plantation. There are three miles of a front upon the edge of the Tebe Bay.

Conductor McKnight, one of the most obliging men who ever ran on this section of the G. T. R., was transferred to the Warton branch yesterday, after being five years on this run.

Mr. Wm. Slater, of Guelph, has shipped two car loads of stone for the new post office and custom house in Goderich, and Mr. James Emalle is about to ship three. This is only the first of a large order.—Mercury.

The recent warm winter weather was hard on winter fruit in cellars. It is estimated that in New York alone 250,000 barrels of apples have been ruined by rot. Pick your apples over if you wish to save them.

A matter of interest to Organists, Organ Students and Teachers is a new patent organ pedal attachment for Pianos manufactured by Messrs Newcombe & Co., 107 Church St. Toronto. Particular attention.

Remember the open meeting of Royal Templars, in the Temperance hall Tuesday evening next, 5th Feb. A good program has been provided. Rev. A. McMillan, of Auburn, will give a temperance address. Chairs taken at 7:30 o'clock. Silver collection.

The Globe says: M. G. Cameron, a prominent Huron County Young Liberal and a son of M. C. Cameron, was proposed as a member of the Young Liberal Club, Toronto to the evident satisfaction of those present. Discussion of Maodonagh's motion will take first place in next Monday's proceedings.

The Waterford Star takes objection to the system of auditing the municipal accounts in general use. It points to the following item in the audited accounts of a municipality in its own county: "To legal advice and sawing wood, $6," and asks in astonishment what connection there can be between legal advice and sawing wood that they should be grouped together.

KEEPING TRACK OF THEM.—The Brussels Post of Jan. 18th, gives a list of where the "old boys" of the last ten or fifteen years are, and how they are employed. Among the names are found Dr. W. J. R. Holmes, Huron County Treasurer, Goderich, Dan. McDonald, Clerk Co. Court Goderich, and D. McGillicuddy, editor and proprietor of Signal, Goderich.

ADDRESS OF JAPAN.—On Monday, February 4th, at 4 p.m., an address on Japan, its people and customs, will be delivered in North-st. Methodist church, by Miss Cartmell, the first female missionary to that country. Miss Cartmell is highly spoken of by the press, and is not only a gifted speaker but is also thoroughly conversant with the manners and customs of the people of Japan. The ladies are specially invited, and gentlemen will be welcomed. Admission 10c.

Robt. Lander Walker, a former employee of THE SIGNAL, died at the residence of his uncle, Mr. John Walker, on Friday last. For some time past he had worked in Saginaw City, Mich., and last spring contracted consumption. He returned to Goderich for change of treatment, but the disease had made too great progress to be stayed and he finally succumbed. He was a good workman and a general favorite with all with whom he came in contact. His funeral took place on Saturday last to Maitland cemetery, where the remains of his mother and father (the late Robert Walker, formerly librarian of Goderich mechanics' institute) rest.

PORT ARTHUR, Jan. 25.—At the council meeting today the agreement with Hastings Bros. & Co. for the erection of a flour mill was ratified. A public meeting is being held this evening to discuss the matter, and leading citizens will give a bond guaranteeing a bonus in case the mill is not passed. In this way work will be at once commenced on the erection of the mill, which will be of 500 barrels capacity. Hastings Bros. & Co. get $15,000, ten years' exemption, and buy their own site. Messrs Hastings & McGraw have sold their interest in the Winnipeg mill of Messrs Ogilvie for $90,000, and are at present doing business as grain commission merchants at Winnipeg. Both gentlemen are well and favorably known in Goderich.

T. C. Boullie, wholesale dealer in house furnishings, Brantford, is the guest of his brother-in-law, J. W. Pearen.

The Knox church Band of Hope entertainment will be held this evening. A good program has been prepared, and there should be a large turnout.

OWING to the absence of the editor in Toronto this week, and pressure on our columns caused by the publication of the county council proceedings, a large amount of interesting local and other matter is unavoidably crowded out.

Knox church Band of Hope will hold its regular meeting on Friday, February 1st, at four o'clock in the afternoon, in the basement of the church to install the new officers, practice for the evening entertainment and receive tickets of admission.

The Methodists of Listowel have extended a call to Rev. G. H. Cobbedick, of Galt, to become their pastor next June. As this gentleman (a former Huronite) was only transferred to Galt last year, it is not likely that the Listowel people will secure him.

The many friends in this vicinity of Mr. James Duncan, formerly of Goderich township, now of Drayton, Wellington County, will be sorry to learn that his entire family are ill with diphtheria, from which his eldest son, about 10 years of age, died a few days ago.

Great excitement prevails in Brantford owing to the terrible explosion of Nitro-glycerin in Buchanan Hollow some five miles from the city. Crowds visit the scene of the catastrophe daily. The people in this locality are requested to remember that Richardson's dental rooms are in the Opera Block. Give him a call.

OBITUARY.—Mrs. Sarah Black, an old resident, was stricken down with paralysis on Monday last, and after a few days' illness from the stroke. She had been failing for some months past, but seemed to be mending in health shortly before she was prostrated. Her funeral took place on Wednesday last, and was largely attended. Her death removes a well known figure from our midst.

NEW BOOKS AT MECHANICS' INSTITUTE LIBRARY.—John Holdsworth's Voyage to the Cape; A Sea Queen; Around the Galley Fire, by Clark Russell; Three Western Tales, by Gustave Aimard; She, by Haggard; Gascoyne, by Ballantyne; Robert Elsmere; John Ward, preacher. A number of Dickens' and Scott's have been added, making the list of their works complete.

NOTICE.—We will receive in a few days one of the largest and best stocks of note, letter and account papers, ruled and unruled, envelopes, etc., we have yet put on sale. We have a few thousand low priced envelopes on hand which we would like to clear out to make room.

Our sample books are always open to the public, showing the quality of printing we do, and our prices are reasonable at THE SIGNAL steam printing house.

Mr. A. Hansperger, piano tuner and repairer, who has been connected with the late S. Nordheimer, Toronto, for the last six years, has severed his connection with that firm. His numerous friends and customers here will be glad to learn that he will continue to visit Goderich regularly as before. Parties requiring his services should leave orders at the British Exchange where he may be seen all next week.

THE MONTREAL CARNIVAL STAR.—We hear there is great excitement in Montreal over the publication of the Carnival number of the Montreal Star, one firm alone offering to buy and pay cash for one hundred thousand copies. The Carnival Star this year is said to be of surpassing grandeur. The public were prepared for something good, but did not dream of such a galaxy of beautiful and thrilling things. The Star number is retailed at thirty-five cents. If people don't know how it can be produced for the money they must try it for themselves. We can solve it.

VICTORIA STREET CHURCH.—The entertainment given by Mr. Sallows in this church on Tuesday evening, was not very largely attended, no doubt, on account of the entertainment having been given twice already within two months to large audiences here. However, the receipts were far more than to cover the expenses, and it is gratifying to know they enjoyed the entertainment. A new feature was the showing of photograph of the moon, as obtained by the great Lick telescope. We understand Mr. Sallows had abundant encouragement this season to justify and addition to his stock of slides which if as good as those he has already obtained will insure success.

DEATH OF MISS PAPET.—The Stratford Herald says: Miss Leonora Papet, of Inverness street, died on Sunday evening, 20th inst., of consumption, from which she has been a great sufferer for the past eight or ten months, aged 27 years. Miss Papet was a sister-in-law of G. T. R. Conductor W. R. Fitzgerald, and has lived with her sister in this city for eight years, both coming here from Goderich on the marriage of her sister to Mr. Fitzgerald. Mr. Samuel Papet, father of the deceased, was telegraphed for at San Francisco, where he has been surveying, but was unable to reach Stratford until Wednesday. Miss Papet was an estimable young woman and had a wide circle of friends and acquaintances, whose sympathy goes out to the mourning ones. She was a consistent member of the Central Methodist church, and was a constant attendant there as long as her health permitted. The remains were interred at Goderich.

Mr. George Price returned from Belleville last week.

NOTICE.—Merchants and others desirous of having their business placed prominently in the Goderich Illustrated for 1889 will please leave word at this office, as arrangements are being made for proceeding with the work at once.

STRANGE CASE OF DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE.—A large and fashionable audience was gathered in the Grand Opera House, on Thursday evening of last week, to witness Mr. Percy Hunting in his dramatic representations of Mr. Louis Stevenson's well known novel. Mr. Hunting enacted the difficult role of the widely dissimilar characters of Dr. Jekyll, and Mr. Hyde, with great histrionic ability. The scenic effect was grand, and his support fair—the part of Dr. Lanyon being very pleasingly sustained. The strange weird nature of the plot is exceptionally original, and speaks well for the versatility of the mind of its author. To propound a new theory, or conceivably a new theory, is more difficult than it appears to the critical public, and Rider Haggard, and R. Louis Stevenson, stand at the head of the list literati in novelistic success of this style. Probably not every member of the audience of last week, who were awed by the uncanny nature of Mr. Hunting's representation, divined the deep moral lesson propounded by this physiological study. It reveals to us a conflict between the moral and intellectual part of man. At middle age, Dr. Jekyll finds himself committed to a profound duplicity of conduct. A life to the world of high respectability—an inner life of sin. He regards himself as a double dealer, not a hypocrite, as he is thoroughly earnest in either the one or the other existence. To part the evil from the good, in separate identities, becomes his day-dream, even as the search for the "Elixir Vitæ" was that of Buller's "Zanoni." This seemed to his mystic scientific mind a possible and highly desirable state of being. Scientific lore was brought to bear upon it, and a drug compounded, by which this extraneous evil was detached from the person of Jekyll, and placed in a second form, bearing the expression of the lower elements of his soul—So does all evil leave its imprint of deformity and decay—a commingling of good with it, as is represented by human nature in general, is fair to the eyes of the world, but evil, par excellence, could never fail to draw forth any feelings but the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

Dr. Jekyll succeeded in possessing these dual natures, but there was one slight flaw apparently in the transformation—one nature was, as desired, wholly evil and satanic, but the other was not the purest good, the just and the patient, and in the fascination of playing with sin it overwheled him. Now he loses hold of his original self, and becomes incorporated with his worst self. Evil grasps him firmly, and good eludes him; each struggle grows fainter and fainter, until he dies the embodiment of the deepest repugnance and horror.

REMINISCENCES.

Fifty Years Ago in the Town of Goderich.

Mad Lines on the Way Home—A Trip in an Old "Bog-Out" to the North of the Lake—The Rescue.

No. 16.

To the Editor of THE SIGNAL.

DEAR SIR.—I have heretofore mentioned my friend Ben's nervousness when handling money, and also that the officers had become liable for sundry necessities for their men, for which liabilities they gave orders on Ben as our paymaster. Now, on our way from Windsor, these parties knowing that we were some to Amherstburg for money, were all on the lookout for us, and no sooner would Ben get rid of one or two of them than he would begin to count over the stock, find out some imaginary error and get so confused that he could not count half a hundred correctly, and then he would cry out, "John Young, get me to help him, until we fairly forced him to take out an hundred or two dollars at a time and look the rest up until that was done; but notwithstanding all that, Sir, I shall yet have to show you some instances of his nerve and firmness in real danger, that very few could have exceeded. On our arrival at Mr. Sutherland's soap factory on the flat in front of Mrs. Crane's residence and back of the Ocean House at the harbor, and he having collected a crew of fishermen for the spring fishing at the Sauble mouth they had only been there two days making ready for their work when not little to their astonishment they saw our perilous predicament and saved us. Had Ben been less expert with the paddle or less firm of the nerve we could scarcely have awaited their arrival for he was little else than one lump of ice, his clothes included, having for a considerable time made so little outward movement in keeping the head of the canoe to the weather. We stopped two nights with our friends in their new shanty, when the weather becoming moderate and the ice having moved out again we started on our homeward voyage, but had only got a very few miles on our way when the variable wind sent the ice back upon us with every appearance of a more violent storm than the one we had just suffered from; but we continued to push on with Ben still at the helm until we were fairly forced to get ashore, although it happened to be on the edge of a swamp. The signs of a fearful storm coming upon us were now so evident that we landed all our traps, and by our utmost exertions got the canoe raised about two feet above the water and made fast to a sapling.

I had hoped, sir, to finish these reminiscences this week, but find it impossible to do so satisfactorily, so pray excuse the mistake for one week more.

THOMAS KYDD.

DUNGANNON.

From our own correspondent.

It is pleasing to be able to state that Messrs Anthony Black and Wm. Begley, who have been ill for some time, are able to be out, and are getting better.

At the annual meeting of the West Wawanosh Mutual Fire Insurance Company, referred to in our last, the following gentlemen were elected as directors: E. Acheson, Goderich township, Alex. Stewart, W. Wawanosh, who is also deputy-revee of said township, and John Ballantyne, Huron township, Bruce county. The manner in which the business of the said Company was conducted by the directors, and the secretary, (who composed the staff of officials referred to in last week's notice) was so satisfactory, so prudent, and so well explained, that the directors' reports corroborate the fact that the West Wawanosh Mutual Fire Insurance Company, ranks very highly amongst the existing insurance companies in the Province of Ontario, and it is therefore a safe, sound and an economical Company, well worthy of the patronage of all persons having isolated and farm property to insure in.

We are called upon to chronicle the death and burial of Arnold Girvin, 8 years old son of Mr. David Girvin, of Ashfield. He died on Thursday morning of last week after a short illness. His remains were interred in Dungannon cemetery on Saturday, the 26th inst., being followed by a large concourse of relatives, friends and sympathizing neighbors. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved father, the more so, as he has been during the last few years called upon to endure a series of deep afflictions. May he be sustained and comforted in his trial by Him who knows how to comfort and sustain under such trying afflictions.

The annual Sabbath school convention, of the Dungannon and Nile circuit will be held at Dungannon on Tuesday, Feb. 6th, 1889, in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches here. A successful affair is anticipated, as there is an excellent program prepared. There will be two sessions—forenoon, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m., afternoon, commencing at 1.45 p.m. Further particulars may be seen in pamphlets.

We have since our last been favored with a slight fall of snow, so as to make a little sleighing, and which our farmers are endeavoring to use to the best advantage in the way of getting produce to market and logs to the sawmills. Our sawmill at Dungannon, considering the season and scarcity of sleighing, is getting a good quantity of logs, in fact the greatest number of any in this neighborhood as yet.

On our way from Windsor, these parties knowing that we were some to Amherstburg for money, were all on the lookout for us, and no sooner would Ben get rid of one or two of them than he would begin to count over the stock, find out some imaginary error and get so confused that he could not count half a hundred correctly, and then he would cry out, "John Young, get me to help him, until we fairly forced him to take out an hundred or two dollars at a time and look the rest up until that was done; but notwithstanding all that, Sir, I shall yet have to show you some instances of his nerve and firmness in real danger, that very few could have exceeded. On our arrival at Mr. Sutherland's soap factory on the flat in front of Mrs. Crane's residence and back of the Ocean House at the harbor, and he having collected a crew of fishermen for the spring fishing at the Sauble mouth they had only been there two days making ready for their work when not little to their astonishment they saw our perilous predicament and saved us. Had Ben been less expert with the paddle or less firm of the nerve we could scarcely have awaited their arrival for he was little else than one lump of ice, his clothes included, having for a considerable time made so little outward movement in keeping the head of the canoe to the weather. We stopped two nights with our friends in their new shanty, when the weather becoming moderate and the ice having moved out again we started on our homeward voyage, but had only got a very few miles on our way when the variable wind sent the ice back upon us with every appearance of a more violent storm than the one we had just suffered from; but we continued to push on with Ben still at the helm until we were fairly forced to get ashore, although it happened to be on the edge of a swamp. The signs of a fearful storm coming upon us were now so evident that we landed all our traps, and by our utmost exertions got the canoe raised about two feet above the water and made fast to a sapling.

I had hoped, sir, to finish these reminiscences this week, but find it impossible to do so satisfactorily, so pray excuse the mistake for one week more.

THOMAS KYDD.

At the annual meeting of the West Wawanosh Mutual Fire Insurance Company, referred to in our last, the following gentlemen were elected as directors: E. Acheson, Goderich township, Alex. Stewart, W. Wawanosh, who is also deputy-revee of said township, and John Ballantyne, Huron township, Bruce county. The manner in which the business of the said Company was conducted by the directors, and the secretary, (who composed the staff of officials referred to in last week's notice) was so satisfactory, so prudent, and so well explained, that the directors' reports corroborate the fact that the West Wawanosh Mutual Fire Insurance Company, ranks very highly amongst the existing insurance companies in the Province of Ontario, and it is therefore a safe, sound and an economical Company, well worthy of the patronage of all persons having isolated and farm property to insure in.

We are called upon to chronicle the death and burial of Arnold Girvin, 8 years old son of Mr. David Girvin, of Ashfield. He died on Thursday morning of last week after a short illness. His remains were interred in Dungannon cemetery on Saturday, the 26th inst., being followed by a large concourse of relatives, friends and sympathizing neighbors. We extend our sincere sympathy to the bereaved father, the more so, as he has been during the last few years called upon to endure a series of deep afflictions. May he be sustained and comforted in his trial by Him who knows how to comfort and sustain under such trying afflictions.

The annual Sabbath school convention, of the Dungannon and Nile circuit will be held at Dungannon on Tuesday, Feb. 6th, 1889, in the Methodist and Presbyterian churches here. A successful affair is anticipated, as there is an excellent program prepared. There will be two sessions—forenoon, commencing at 10 o'clock a.m., afternoon, commencing at 1.45 p.m. Further particulars may be seen in pamphlets.

We have since our last been favored with a slight fall of snow, so as to make a little sleighing, and which our farmers are endeavoring to use to the best advantage in the way of getting produce to market and logs to the sawmills. Our sawmill at Dungannon, considering the season and scarcity of sleighing, is getting a good quantity of logs, in fact the greatest number of any in this neighborhood as yet.

on to in-out, from came re- quiet es. You any half They're with the medical.

mac.

SS, LICENTIATE OF Physicians, Edinburgh, 107-109 Hamilton-st., 107-109

PHYSICIAN, SUR- in High Court, Convey and telegraph office, Fri- at 10 to 4. Money to NON & SHANNON, Surgeons, Accoucheurs, &c. non's residence near the C. SHANNON, J. R. STAN-

Legal.

DRMAN LEWIS, BAR in High Court, Convey and telegraph office, Fri- at 10 to 4. Money to

S. SOLICITOR, &c. er of Square and West over telegraph office, Fri- at 10 to 4. Money to

PROUDFOOT, BAR Attorney, Solicitor, &c. arrow, W. Proudfoot, 17

HOLT & CAMERON, Notaries in Chancery, &c. Cameron, G. G.; P. Holt, M. Room tioning.

X, GENERAL AU- Land Valuator, Goderich considerable experience in trade, in a position of considerable satisfaction all com- to him. References sent by mail to my address, respectfully attended to. JOHN usements.

MECHANICS' INSTI- RALY AND READIN Room. Weekly and Illustrated notices, &c., on file.

TICKET ONLY $1.00. of Library and Reading Room. membership received by

Geo. STEVENS, Secretary 11th. 85.

nd Insurance.

ST DIVISION COURT, Justice, Police and General Agent. at Late Rates and Cost. The snow blowing a clear sweep of things along the sidewalks, and when it comes to setting down hard pan prices in tailoring, etc., & a Friday run there every time and all the year round.

THE WOMEN'S CHARITABLE TEMPERANCE UNION will meet regularly for the transaction of business every Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Knox church. Every woman interested in the work is cordially invited to attend.

Snow has come, and Farmers can now get a first class stove cheap and see our E. & C. Gurney Coy's line of stoves acknowledged by all to be the best in Canada. The largest stock of plain and fancy Tinware in Town. The cheapest house under the sun.

The people who were prophesying that Canada would have an Old Country winter in 1888-9 are a little taken aback by the fact with us as of yore. So likewise although R. R. has been doing a big business with his dissolving views, he can be relied upon to continue turning out first-class photos and the mountings as usual.

"People Will Have It."

The wonderful healing and soothing properties of Lumsden & Wilson's Royal Glycerinated Balsam of Fir are the secret of success. Coughs, Colds, Sore Throats, Asthma, Whooping Cough, and all other consumption quickly give way to its curative power. Nothing but its superiority over other remedies has created the demand for it from all parts of the Province, which has even extended to the United States. Why? Because every person who has used it speaks well of it. Druggists sell it Price 50 cts. per bottle. 6mo

BRIEFLETS.

Mr. G. Black was in town attending the funeral of his mother.

Mr. F. B. Cummer, late of Goderich, is now on the Blyth Standard Staff.

Wm. Leasham, of Salford, is building an Orange Hall in connection with his hotel.

Dr. McDonagh will be in Goderich for consultation on the first Saturday of every month.

Miss A. Platt, who has been visiting friends and acquaintances in Washington, Ont., returned Tuesday last.

Messrs J. Greenan and J. Egan, of Blyth, sold a couple of very fine horses to Mr. A. M. Poley, of Goderich, last week.

Kennedy & Co., of Guelph, have received the contract to supply the stone for the new Government building at Goderich.

Miss Knox recited in New York on the 25th, (Burr's anniversary), after which she will sail for Scotland where she intends to remain for some time.

There was a large turnout of the Reform Electors of East Huron in attendance at the Annual Meeting of the Association, held in Brussels on last Saturday.

As was announced last week the Mission Band in connection with Knox Church, met on Saturday last. Over forty children were present, and all spent a very pleasant time. The work done by the Band last year was very satisfactory indeed.

Rev. John Wakefield, formerly of North-st. Methodist church, delivered two stirring discourses on mission work in that church last Monday. The sermon in the morning was a particularly effective one, and drew a large collection.

DRUNK RAILWAY, and depart at Goderich as fol

AMTIVE. 1.50 p.m. 2.50 p.m. 3.50 p.m. 4.50 p.m. 5.50 p.m. 6.50 p.m. 7.50 p.m. 8.50 p.m. 9.50 p.m. 10.50 p.m. 11.50 p.m. 12.50 p.m. 1.50 p.m. 2.50 p.m. 3.50 p.m. 4.50 p.m. 5.50 p.m. 6.50 p.m. 7.50 p.m. 8.50 p.m. 9.50 p.m. 10.50 p.m. 11.50 p.m. 12.50 p.m.