

RYAN'S Custom Tailoring

Opening Announcement

I beg to inform my many friends and the general public that I am now open for business at 307 Water Street, and that my Showroom and Cutting Room are immediately over the Central Drug Store.

Having had 20 years' practical tailoring with Jackman the Tailor, I feel that I can give entire satisfaction in Men's Custom Tailoring.

My staff is of the highest grade obtainable and I shall carry the most up-to-date patterns in Suitings and Overcoatings.

Yours faithfully,
JAS. J. RYAN,
Custom Tailor.

Mr. Ryan was late cutter SEE OUR STOCK before with Jackman the Tailor. placing your Fall order.

sept 15, eod, tcy

Grand Falls Employees

Say Good Bye to Mr. Sullivan.

On Saturday, the 20th inst., Mr. M. S. Sullivan severed his connection with the operations at the paper mills at this place. From the start of the operations here he had been closely connected with the management, first as surveyor and latterly as Assistant Superintendent of the Mills. It speaks well for him that his departure should be regretted so much and so universally. At the start he did a great deal of the engineering work and after the town had been laid out by him and the mills in operation he was promoted to the position of Asst. Superintendent. It rarely happens that one occupying such a position attains so much popularity from the highest mechanical superintendent under his supervision down to the latest labourer employed at the works. Kind and considerate of those under his charge, never effusive but always courteous he was ever the kindly gentleman who endeavoured to do the best he could and if at all possible the poor man rarely sought labour in vain. That he will be missed is the universal thought of nearly all especially of the labouring classes. That the esteem and I might say affection of all classes was his was evidenced on Saturday evening when a vast concourse of the employees from the General Superintendent down assembled at the railway station to wish good bye. As he boarded the train he was greeted with ringing cheers and cries of "Good luck," "Good luck," that we trust will accompany him through life. While severing his connection with the mills we understand he goes to St. John's as Agent for the A. N. D. Co. and other concerns now or hereafter interested in the development of the resources of the country. That he may have all the good fortune which his energy and affability deserve is the wish of your CORRESPONDENT.

Grand Falls, Sept. 22nd, 1913.

ORDERS NOW TAKEN
for our New Pack Island Brand
BONELESS CODFISH.
JOHN CLOUSTON,
2 & 4 Water St. East,
St. John's, Nfld.

IF YOU WANT
WALL PAPERS, FLOOR CANVAS, CURTAIN POLES, etc.
YOUR PLACE IS HERE.
5000 Pieces Wall Papers with Borders to match, just opened. Prices from
6c. to 80c. per piece.

J.M. Devine
THE RIGHT HOUSE

Sir Edward Morris's

Opinion of the Liberal Party and Its Leader just before he Rattled.

About three years before he rattled from the Liberal Party, at a public meeting in the British Hall, on the 16th November, 1904, Sir Edward Morris expressed himself as follows concerning the Liberal Party and its Leader, Sir Robert Bond:

"I heartily concur with my friend and honored leader, Sir Robert, in saying that we are your servants, and have been returned to power by your votes in order to further your interests. This is where the wide distinction is apparent between the Liberal Party and the Tory Party. In the relations between the Tory party and the people there is a wide gulf. The Liberal party is closely identified with the people, and realizes with a ready and natural sympathy their wishes and their wants, and all their acts in the Legislature aim at their betterment. The people have endorsed our policy. We have gone to the country on the policy of Liberalism—the policy of the development and opening up the resources of the country to give the people a chance to make a living for themselves and families. (Prolonged cheers.) All that has been done for the welfare of the people of this country can be claimed by the Liberal party—the dock, the railway and the establishment of our vast lumber industries of the interior. Ours has been the policy of building up, while the policy of the Tory party is to tear down.

At the election just closed the Tories asked the people to allow them to take away the Child of Progress from its legitimate parents, the Liberal Party, and give it back to the stepmother—the Tory party—but the people had no confidence in them, would not trust them, and allowed the Infant Progress to remain with its rightful mother the Liberal Party. We have been returned with a splendid majority, and when we go back to the country at the end of the next four years we hope to have a record to show which will still further increase your confidence in us. (Cheers.) The troubles that have surrounded the country have in a great measure disappeared. The decks are now cleared, so to speak, and we will be enabled as will commend us still further to your approval. The great battle just won was a hard fought one in many districts, and particularly in Mr. Bond's. Day after day we read the telegraph messages with deep anxiety, but we never doubted or were afraid of the final result. We all know that our Leader, Sir Robert Bond, stands for Truth, for Honor, and for High Ideals; and we knew that he would triumph and his high principles be vindicated. You will all agree with me that the victory throughout the entire Colony is largely due to him, and if he were not present here to-night on the platform with me I would like to enlarge on this sentiment and pay a more extended tribute to his WORTH, his HIGH CHARACTER and that strict adherence to LOFTY IDEALS which at all times is his guiding principle and what is more, gentlemen, I know that all who are present in this hall to-night will endorse these sentiments and also agree with me that to him belongs the chief credit and honor of this great victory. Sir Robert is a WORTHY EXAMPLE for all our young men to follow, and I hope all will be encouraged with such an example in outlining their future careers."

To do such a Work

The public would do well to contrast the foregoing with the abuse that has been poured out on the Liberal Party and Sir Robert Bond, by the same E. P. Morris and his henchmen since 1907.

Boat Club Meeting.

The C. L. B. Boat Club held a public meeting in the armory last evening, Mr. C. E. Hunt presiding. There was a large attendance of members and the meeting was most enthusiastic. Lieut.-Col. Rendell, who was present, thanked the club, individually and collectively, for their invaluable assistance to the brigade in aquatic matters. When the Colonel finished speaking three hearty cheers were given for him. It was decided to give souvenirs to the crew who represented the brigade on Regatta Day, also to give them a dinner some time next month. After some minor matters were discussed the meeting closed.

Wedding Bells.

COFFEY-KENT.
Last evening the wedding of Mr. J. T. Coffey, of the Daily News staff, and Miss L. Kent, daughter of Mr. M. Kent, Water St. West, took place. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. McDermott in St. Patrick's Church. The bride, who was given away by her father, was becomingly dressed and was attended by her sister, Miss Gertrude Kent, and Miss Lizzie Higgins. Mr. H. Peddie acted as groomsmen. After the ceremony a reception was held at the residence of the bride's parents. The bridal party drove to Brennock's to spend the honeymoon. The groom's present to the bride was a gold locket and chain, to the bridesmaids gold brooches, and to the groomsmen a gold stick pin. The bride was the recipient of many costly presents. The Telegram joins in the congratulations extended to Mr. and Mrs. Coffey.

Scenes of Childhood.

Here's the place, the same old meadow—
Why, it hasn't changed a bit!
With the tumble-down old stile,
Where the children used to sit.
There's the row of stately willows
Winning down beside the stream—
Which we fondly called a "river."
On whose banks we used to dream.
Let's walk onward, down towards it,
For it hasn't changed, I'll swear.
Spite of all these years—why look you!
There are children bathing there.
What do you say? It's much too shallow!
Pr'aps it would be when you're grown.
But we had the finest gambols
In that pool I've ever known.
There's no greater fascination
Than to visit as a man,
All the sweet, familiar places
Where your lease of life began.
Here's a dear old study willow,
Let us rest, I'd like to sit Here and dream—as I was wont to—Don't disturb me for a bit.

10 Cent "Cascarets"

Straighten You Up
No Sick Headache, Bilious Stomach,
Coated Tongue or Constipated
Bowels by morning.

Get a 10-cent box now.

Turn the screws out—the headache, biliousness, indigestion, the sick, sour stomach and foul gases—turn them out tonight and keep them out with Cascarets.

Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never know the misery caused by a lazy liver, clogged bowels or an upset stomach.

Don't put in another day of distress. Let Cascarets cleanse your stomach; remove the sour, fermenting food; take the excess bile from your liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poison in the bowels. Then you will feel great.

A Cascaret to-night straightens you out by morning. They work while you sleep. A 10-cent box from any drug store means a clear head, sweet stomach and clean, healthy liver and bowel action for months. Children love Cascarets because they never gripe or sicken.

Songs of the Housekeepers.

THE BORROWER.
She borrows my washbasin, she borrows my soap,
She borrows my washboard and starch,
She borrows my clothes-rack and wringer and rope,
And hasn't returned them since March.
She borrows my china, my sugar and tea,
My chairs and my tables galore,
Whatever she wants she just borrows from me.
My affable neighbor next door!
She borrows my butter, and when she pays back
She does it with oleo cheap;
Whatever she needs that she happens to lack
To bake, or to broil, or to sweep,
She borrows from me with a nod and a smile.
I'm too weak to protest, I'm afraid,
Though I dared to refuse, in the courtliest style.
When she wants to borrow my maid
She borrows my pots; she's embarrassed no whit.
By the cook as she grumbles and throws,
And if she were sure they'd become her and fit,
I think she would borrow my gowns.
But I have a plan, and my joyful heart jumps
At the thought of my dream coming true:
My little son Joe has contracted the mumps—
Perhaps she will borrow THEM, too!

Make Jam

While the Sugar is Cheap.

We are now showing everything in our line to make Jamming successful.

Queen Fruit Jars, 1 pt., 1 qt., 1-2 gal., clean, easy and safe.
Jam Pot Covers, 1 and 2 lb., 3c. packet.
Rubber Rings, 7c. dozen.

ENAMELLED SKILLETs.

Wicker Baskets, Wood Spoons, etc.

Ayre & Sons Hardware Department.

W. H. JACKMAN, 39 Water St. West
THE STORE OF SERVICE.

Wicker, Rattan Upholstered Goods.

We are having a great sale of above goods, having a large stock to dispose of. We will give for one week, commencing MONDAY, Sept. 22nd, 20 per cent off Regular Prices.

Same will include Chairs in all sizes and prices, both Wicker Rattan and Upholstered, with spring seats; Wicker Tables, Watnots, Music Stands, 5 o'clock Tea Tables and many other things so useful for the home, now offered at these very low prices.

And we have a large line of DINING ROOM SETS, 5 pieces, in Solid Oak, Quartered Sawn, Upholstered in leather, that we offer at reduced prices to make room for large shipments now en route.

COME EARLY AND SECURE CHOICE.

C. L. March Co.,
LIMITED,
Corner Water & Springdale Streets.

BOND CAN'T LOSE.

Fox
Net

We ha shipment high, 2 in high, 2 in

SEL

GET Y

The

SIR R. BO

Complaint Ab

RESULTS OF THE INV
COL SECRETARY RE
ROBERT BO

September
I have the honour to with, for your information correspondence that has and of the enquiry made to the action of the post the train not taking care dered to them. The G rected the Postmaster G
oughly probe the matter suit of the report recei Woods, Mail Officer C suspended, pending fur
I have the honour

Sir,
Your obedient,
(Sgd.) JOHN R.
Colon
The Right Honourable
Sir Robert Bond, P
The Grange, Whit

P. M. G. TO DEP. CO

September
I have the honour to
with a communication
Hon. Sir Robert Bond, J stant, complaining of the part of certain mail in the discharge of the Whitehouse; also the sta by the latter in reply to preferred against them, surrier's letter to me an Robert explain the cause in replying to his letter.
With respect to the Mail Clerk Bradbury I d
there is any ground fo is one of our regulatio stations where there is letters should not be a train, and to provide i avoidably late a box is sides of the mail car.
has all that he can do i putting off the mail an during the short time
In fact it is irregular e master to receive lette door or window when t

Grave

75 barrels C

40 Half

5 bar

20

C.
Duck