Flattened Out at Harbor Buffett

Special Evening Telegram. HARBOR BUFFETT, Last Evening. The joint meeting of the Liberal and Tory candidates, held at this place last night, turned out to be the second surprise of the campaign for the Grabbal candidates, Red Island was another. Morris and his two men have been going through this district stating that the Liberal candidates were running away from them. Last night's meeting proved conclusively to the people of Haystack and the bay that the Liberal candidates are able to hold their own and give their opponents points. The Liberals arrived at 5 o'clock, and two hours afterwards Morris's men came into port. Sullivan, Summers and Carthy immediately went aboard the Esprit and invited Morris, Devereaux and Walsh to a joint meeting. The meeting opened at 8 o'clock with Thomas Wakeley in the chair. Walsh made the opening speech, followed by Carthy, Morris, Summers and Devereaux. Sullivan had the audience clearly in sympathy with the Liberal cause. The audience from the start gave them hearty cheers as they stood up to speak, in marked contrast to Morris's men, who received no applause whatever. The fact is that Sullivan had to ask the audience to give Morris a hearing. At the close of a remarkable speech by Sullivan, who gave the Grabbal candidates the severest castigation any public man ever received in this Colony, tremendous applause was given for Sullivan, Summers and Carthy. Cheers were also given for Bond and Coaker, but the flattest event of the evening happened when Devereaux called for cheers for Morris and the People's Party, when a dismal silence ensued. Devereaux sat down, pale and flustered. The people of Haystack are united for the Opposition. The large audience left the harbor cheering for them and making the hills resound with "Bond Can't Lose." Great disgust throughout the bay at the tactics of Morris's men. Keady, the election clerk, and brother-in-law of Devereaux, is sending messages throughout the district boosting the Tory Party.

Sweeping All Before Them.

Special to Evening Telegram. SUND ISLAND, To-day. Sullivan, Summers and Carthy are sweeping all before them. The whole eastern shore from Fox Hill to Piper's Hole will hold seven-eighths vote for United Opposition. Magnificent receptions everywhere: guns firing, flags flying and cheering at every port, even the women and children cheering the candidates. The "Godless Schools" cry has fallen on flat. The Tory trio, on the advice of their supporters have dropped it as the voters in some harbors have stated that if that cry was used they would throw them in the harbor. The result of Wednesday night's joint meeting at Haystack is now known all over the Bay. Devereaux, Sullivan, Summers and Carthy Can't Lose. A meeting was held last night in Sound Island before a large and enthusiastic audience. Mr. James Beck introduced the candidates. The meeting lasted two hours, and at the close ringing cheers were given for Bond and Coaker, and Sullivan, Summers and Carthy.

Red Hot Bribery.

Special to The Evening Telegram. NORTHERN BAY, To-day. We welcome to Northern Bay our Liberal-Union candidates, Hickman and Barrett. They will be our future members. We have unlearned some base attempts of bribery: fifty dollars have been offered to several men by one Garland, of Lower Island Cove, if they would pledge themselves by oath and vote for Crosbie and Whiteway. We don't want our children demoralized so we vote and work for clean Government. Jerry Rose, William Jacobs, George Jacobs, Edward Noonan, Jas. Moore, Fred Moores, Jordan Moores, Frank Hogan, John Jacobs, Wm. O'Flaherty, Thomas Johnson, Michael Woodline, John T. Hogan, Charles Steele, Patrick Howell, Thomas Mulrany and others.

Goose Bay Ablaze.

Special to The Evening Telegram. SOUTH BROOKLYN, B.B. Oct. 16. The unexpected always happens. Last night President Coaker arrived here in the fog and no one expected him. The men and women soon gathered, however, and the grandest meeting ever held here was the result. Coaker, Abbott and Robt. Winsor spoke. Coaker for 75 minutes delivering a masterful speech which carried the audience completely. Each candidate was cheered and applauded, there being not one dissenting voice. The ladies asked for cheers for the candidates which were given with a vim. Two-thirds of the votes will go to save the Union. There was wonderful enthusiasm and excitement here and every one is rushing to join the Union before election day, knowing victory is sure. Goose Bay is Biggest Majority Ever Recorded.

Special to Evening Telegram. TWILLINGATE, To-day. Electors throughout the country will do well not to listen to the messages and reports sent to the Evening Herald from here by a few disappointed Tory heebers who are galled at the effect of the Liberal Union Combination, which cannot be broken, and which means the defeat of the Government. Old time supporters of the Government now in the Union are voting with the Liberals to give Bond and colleagues to-night the biggest reception ever witnessed in Twillingate. The Tory heebers are capable of circulating the worse lies possible to try and revive the drooping spirits of their brothers elsewhere. Bond and colleagues' majority here will be the biggest ever polled.

Tory Meeting at Harbor Main

Captured by Lewis and Carter. Special to The Evening Telegram. HARBOR MAIN, To-day. Woodford and Kennedy arrived here Wednesday morning and spent Wednesday and Thursday canvassing and drumming up their heebers and supporters for a public meeting at Harbor Main on Thursday night. Lewis and Carter were in the north end of the District and hearing of the meeting hastened home and challenged Woodford and Kennedy to a joint meeting. Woodford very reluctantly accepted the challenge, orally, and would not commit himself to writing. The meeting opened at 8 o'clock last night; Michael Dunphy, a great heeber, was appointed chairman. The Hon. M. P. Gibbs was present as usual in this campaign, and the chairman demanded that the Liberal candidates open the meeting, which they refused to do. The meeting should be opened by the Tory candidates. The chairman sought the opinion of the wet nurse Gibbs, who decided in favour of his own party. Lewis and Carter contended that it was a Government meeting and should be opened by the Government candidates and after much cross firing gained their point and forced Woodford to begin. Woodford was certainly cornered for the first time in his life and his brief and laboured speech consisted chiefly of abuse and misrepresentation of the Liberal representatives. His remarks were repeatedly interrupted by cheers for Lewis and Carter. Capt. Lewis amidst an approval of applause and cheers for the Liberal Party, next took the platform, and in scathing and condemnation terms criticized the remarks of his opponent and his mismanagement of affairs, and the policy of the present Government. In response to Woodford's declaration that Coaker's principles and policy were to set creed against creed and class against class, Capt. Lewis produced a letter from His Grace Archbishop Howley, which, though disclaiming any interference in political matters and written solely in the interests of truth and justice. His Grace set forth his approval of the policy and principles of the People's Party Administration. Yesterday they visited Burgoyne's Cove, Pelley and Britannia. They are convinced that the Liberal cause is stronger than it ever was in this part of the District and Liberalism was always strong.

Victory Sure in Trinity Bay.

Special to The Evening Telegram. BRITANNIA COVE, To-day. Lloyd, Stone and Target are just completing a most successful canvass of Random and its two arms and of Smith's Sound. Everywhere they were received enthusiastically, with flags, guns and cheers. Meetings were held at Hodge's Cove, Northern Bight, Clarenville, Shoal Harbour, George's Brook, Snook's Harbour and Foster's Point. Never has there been such an overpowering feeling against any Government as prevails against the People's Party Administration. Yesterday they visited Burgoyne's Cove, Pelley and Britannia. They are convinced that the Liberal cause is stronger than it ever was in this part of the District and Liberalism was always strong.

Rigged Up Two Spars.

Special to The Evening Telegram. BLACKHEAD, B.D.V. Oct. 16. We, the undersigned, welcome to the Liberal-Union candidates, Hickman and Barrett to Western Bay. The joint demonstration of people from Broad Cove, Adams' Cove and Western Bay last night was the best ever seen here. Previous candidates never had anything equal to it. The sky was ablaze with torches and reports of the guns rent the air. We resent the rowdism of last election, Hickman and Barrett will poll the largest vote here. They said last night that this is not the method of Toryism they thought. Broad Cove, Adams' Cove and Western Bay have changed. Crosbie and Whiteway passed through here Monday and met a very cool reception. A big spar was rigged up to represent Crosbie's twenty-two hundred dollar spars, and as he passed the street it was thrown across his path. No room for grabbals and boodlers here.

From Stephenville.

Special to The Evening Telegram. STEPHENVILLE, Last Evening. Mr. English held a meeting at Stephenville last night and had a great reception. Mr. Hayes was chairman, and at the close of the meeting was loudly cheered. He had the best reception of any candidate that has ever visited this place.

JOHN B. AYRE. A Portable Chairman.

Use of Over 600 Books for 200 cents for 64 Weeks

The Tories are shouting to keep their courage up. In the Daily News, a message appears from Dunfield (Cuckhold's Cove), that Squires and his colleagues had a most enthusiastic reception there. Now it must be borne in mind that Dunfield is about three miles from Trinity proper, and there are between three and four hundred people residing there. Now, if the people are so enthusiastic for Squires, as the Daily News says, out would it be necessary for them to have a portable Chairman? Are not the good people of Dunfield capable of producing a man fit to preside at a Tory meeting. We think there are quite a few with the ability, but the result shows none with the desire to have such an honor. Therefore the late member, Mr. E. G. Grant had to go to Dunfield to help Squires out. If anything more were wanted to show how Trinity Bay is receiving Squires, that message ought to provide it. Trinity is solid for the Liberal Party and is determined that Bond Won't Lose on Oct. 30th.

Private Letter from Adams' Cove.

Adams' Cove, Oct. 16th, '13. Dear Mr. ——— Your letter received and thank you heartily. We are doing our best, sir. I will tell you some facts of what happened last night. We left Adams' Cove at Broad Cove, north, with Hickman and Barrett. About 100 men marched to Adams' Cove Hill and met about 400 stalwart electors of Bay de Verde with guns and torch lights, fire works, etc. Never saw anything like it in all my life. From 50 to 60 guns all going off together. I was with Mr. Hickman and Barrett. They said they were frightened at such a sight. They will go in with a large majority; the heebers had to leave the crowd, no room for them here. Crosbie and Whiteway, no show. Don't mind what the Herald says. John Puddister drove along in the middle of the crowd. I tell you he got his medicine alright. This is facts of what happened. Keep it up till 1 o'clock. Please tell your friends and let the Telegram know it. You can rely on what I tell you. Time will tell. Can't write any more now. I am so excited. Respectfully yours, —H.M.R.

No Use for Grab-Alls.

OLD PERILICAN, To-day. Crosbie and Whiteway arrived here last evening. They got no reception. Not a single gun to welcome them, and very few flags. Victory sure for the Liberal Union candidates.
