CHESLEY RYALL. CHESLEY RYALL.

It is with sincere regret that we have to tell to-day of the passing of Ches. Ryall, who died at his father's residence, Mr. Robert Ryall, No. 40 Hayward Avenue, last evening. The deceased had not been well the last year or more, but his early demise was not looked for. Ches was at one time an employee of the Telegram printing staff and was a general favorite. At the time of his death he was but 21 years of age. To his parents and relatives the Telegram offers its sympathy. The funeral takes place to-morrow afternoon.

Competition Results.

Out of the total number of six medals awarded in the recent International Competitions in connection with the above Society, three have been gained by Newfoundland competitors. Miss Mary Brownrigg, 408 Water Street, St. John's, won the gold-centre medal in Class III. for the best paper at 100 words a minute. Miss Nellie Lawlor, 67 Monkstown Road, St. John's, and Miss Laura Duchesne, 181 LeMarchant Road, St. John's, each gained silver medals in Class II. for accuracy in reporting style. All are pupils of the Convent of Mercy, Military Road.

Of the three remaining medals, it is interesting to note that one of them was gained by a soldier at the front, Gunner F. E. Knight, of the Royal Artillery in Flanders. The other winners are B. A. Soniegai Modrae. Competition Results.
