

London Man Forced to Live on Milk and Bread.

Bayley Eats Pork And Anything Else Since Taking Tanlac—
Gains Twenty Pounds in Few Weeks.

"When a man's stomach gets in such a bad fix he has to live on bread and milk as long as I did, and then gets a medicine that fixes him up in a few weeks time so he can eat pork and just anything else he wants, I think it is time for him to talk for the benefit of others. Well, Tanlac has not only done all that for me, but it has built me up twenty pounds in weight, and made me feel better than I have in many years."

The above statement was made recently by Mark Bayley, a well known carpenter living at 130 Albert St., London, Ontario.

"For eight years," Mr. Bayley continued, "I gradually went down hill on account of stomach trouble. After eating, gas formed and puffed me up, and for hours I had such severe pains I could scarcely stand it. I had an attack of influenza last winter and that left me in a worse fix than ever, and I fell off about twenty pounds. I got to where I could scarcely eat anything, and was finally told after an examination that I had an ulcerated stomach.

"I got to worrying a great deal over my condition, and finally decided to see if Tanlac would help me like it did so many who had praised it to me, and the medicine seemed to go right to the spot, and I saw it was just what I had been needing. My stomach feels just like a new one now, and, to make a long story short, Tanlac has made me feel just like a brand new man, and I am working every day without the least trouble. Tanlac is beyond doubt the best medicine made."

Tanlac is sold in St. John's by M. Connors, in Paradise by Mrs. Martin F. Byrne, in Upper Gullies by Heber Andrews, in Portland by H. C. Haines, in St. Joseph, Salmonier, by Mrs. J. Gush, in Miramichi by Exploits Valley Royal Stores, Ltd., in Flat Island by William Samson, in Jamestown by C. Christopher Haines, and in Lewisporte by Uriah Freake—adv.

Nearly Asphyxiated.

Thanks to the intelligence of Constables S. Churchill and J. Greene, a returned soldier named Stanley Snow was, early yesterday morning, saved from asphyxiation. The officers were doing duty on Water Street, East and about 4.30 a.m. were attracted by an unusual noise which they conjectured came from Devonshire Inn, now used as a boarding house. The police went to the door to investigate and heard a deep breathing as if someone was smothering. They attracted the attention of one of the boarders by rapping at the door, but a lodger answering their questions from a raised window said that things were O.K. in the house. The officers were not satisfied however, and demanded an entrance. This they were refused, but after threatening to force their way the street door was opened. An investigation followed and in one of the rooms which was filled with gas, Churchill and Greene located Snow, lying in bed unconscious with a lighted lamp close by on the floor. They immediately opened the windows and tried to resuscitate Snow but to no purpose. One of the police then hurried to the station and summoned Dr. Tait who with Sgt. Furlong was quickly on the scene and after some time brought the ex-soldier back to consciousness. There was a gas jet in the room but the soldier is not aware whether he used it or not during the night, in fact he seemed very hazy as to what had occurred, nor did any of the other inmates know. If it had not been for the quick action of the police, the gas would probably have become ignited through a kerosene oil lamp which had been left burning and a serious explosion, with possible loss of life, would have followed.

Time and Talents.

Will members of the T. & T. kindly send in now their annual subscription for 1921? The reason for this is that we are asked to send our money for the magazines in advance to Headquarters in England for the whole year, and the Secretary is anxious to send all magazine money for the new year before the first issue—the January number—which is published promptly.

Will members also please note that a request has been received from Headquarters for 40 cents extra per annum from each member to meet increased cost of the magazine, and in order to do this it was agreed by vote at the last meeting of Time and Talents to increase our annual subscription to $1.00, instead of taking it out of the present rate of subscription ($1.50), which would reduce the balance of our funds at the end of the year for some local use?

All subscriptions should be sent to the Hon. Sec., D. C. White, Bishop's Court.

Non-members of Time and Talents who might care to take the quarterly magazine, "The Road" can do so by sending the order and 75 cents to the Hon. Sec. of T. & T.

Obituary.

REV. J. B. HENNEON.
Woolville, Nov. 15.—Rev. Joseph Henneon, a retired Methodist minister, 82 years old, passed peacefully away in his sleep at his home in Woolville at 2 a.m. to-day. He was born in Shelburne and preached in various circuits of Nova Scotia. He had been a resident of Woolville for 39 years, and is survived by his wife who was Miss Ellen Chapman, of Port Lawrence, also by four sons, Rev. Douglas B. St. John's, Nfld., Dr. J. A. M. Halifax, Dr. J. C. McGill University, Montreal, and Arthur J. Winnipeg. The funeral will take place on Wednesday at two-thirty from the Methodist Church, the pastor, W. H. Watts, officiating.

B.I.S. Quarterly Meeting.

The regular quarterly meeting of the Benevolent Irish Society was held yesterday morning, the President, Mr. W. J. Higgins, K.C., occupying the chair, and their being a large attendance of members. Twenty-three applicants were admitted to membership, evidence of the flourishing condition of this venerable institution. Before proceeding with the regular business the President, on behalf of the Executive, submitted the following resolutions:—

RESOLVED—That we place on record an expression of our deep regret at the death of the late John L. Slattery, an Honorary Vice-President. In his passing the Society has lost one of its most loyal and valued members. He was at all times foremost in his endeavours to promote the best interests of the Institution, and his many years at the Executive Board, whether as Secretary or later as Vice-President, were ever marked by intelligence, earnestness, and enthusiasm.

RESOLVED FURTHER—That we extend to his relatives our sincere sympathy in their bereavement. In appropriate language Mr. Higgins paid tribute to the many years of faithful service given to the Society by the deceased member, who was always conspicuous for his unflinching interest in every movement with which the body was in any way identified. In likewise touching references Mr. W. J. Harris proposed, and Mr. W. S. Dunphy seconded the resolutions, which were thereupon adopted.

The reports of the different committees, covering the various departments of the Society's activities, were then made, and all showed a most satisfactory state of affairs. The School Committee's report, which included the usual letter from the Superior of the Christian Brothers, showed the good work in the schools overhead was going along in the same efficient manner. The communication from the Brothers paid a gracious tribute to an ex-pupil of the schools who lately visited here, Mr. J. P. Hand, of Hamilton, Bermuda, for his munificent gifts to the boys in the way of providing scholarships and arranging for a play ground. By a happy coincidence the letter was read just after Mr. Hand had been elected to membership in the Society.

Before adjournment the President made reference to the arrival in the city of Mr. Lindsay Crawford, who is to deliver an address to-morrow evening on Irish affairs. He hoped that the members would by their presence on the occasion give expression to their interest in this Empire-wide movement on behalf of the country from which they had sprung.

Addition to Nfld. Fleet.

A brand new three-masted schooner, just off the stocks in Bath, Maine, arrived in port says the North Sydney Herald of Thursday 18th. She is the Herald of Thursday 18th. She is the Netherland, and was built for Job Bros., of St. John's. She will take a cargo of coal for St. John's, and later will likely go in the fish carrying trade. The new schooner is in command of Capt. Falke, late of the steamer Thetis.

Denies Amherst Meeting Broken Up.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 16.—Lindsay Crawford, National president of the Self-Determination for Ireland League, in the course of his address here last night denied that the meeting at Amherst had been broken up, as had been reported in press despatches. He had been given a good hearing in Amherst, he said, despite the fact that Orangemen there had stated before the meeting that they would break it up. He would tell people who opposed free speech that the Self-Determination League would stand for it through thick and thin.

Lindsay Crawford, Writer and Lecturer.

Mr. Lindsay Crawford, the Canadian journalist and orator who is at present in the city, is peculiarly well qualified to discuss the Irish situation. Born and brought up in Ulster, in his early days he was a prominent and active Unionist. Mature consideration, however, converted him to the support of the Home Rule movement, and his talents as a writer won him the position of editor of the Belfast "Ulster Guardian," then the only Liberal paper in Ireland; a post which he held for several years. He left Ireland to join the staff of the Toronto "Globe" and remained with that paper as an editorial writer for eight years. Since then he has edited the "Statesman" of Toronto, a brilliant little weekly which has made a name for itself in Canada for its clear thinking and fearless frankness of speech. In October last Mr. Crawford was elected President of the Self-Determination for Ireland League at its Ottawa convention, and his visit to Newfoundland follows a speaking tour through Eastern Canada. He is accompanied by Mr. Thomas R. Deignan, of Ottawa, National Secretary of the League.

Mr. Crawford will speak at the Majestic Theatre on Tuesday night, and if his address here has only half the eloquence, force, and courage shown in his writings and reported of his speeches in Canada, those who attend to hear him have an intellectual feast in store for them.

C.C.C. Old Comrades.

A meeting of the C.C.C. Old Comrades which was held in the Armoury, after Last Mass, yesterday morning was well attended, and was very enthusiastic. The C.C.C. Old Comrades, who of late seemed to be breaking up, are now forming together again, under a new executive, and intend, very soon, to start again the card tournaments and other forms of entertainment, which they were so noted for last year. At the meeting yesterday Mr. J. Fagan, who was a Battalion Sgt. Major in the Corps for years, and who also has a splendid record in the brigade, was unanimously elected as President for the coming year. Mr. Fagan was the only officer nominated yesterday, the election of the remaining officers being left over till next Sunday, when a larger attendance is anticipated, all ex-members being invited to attend. A committee has been formed, who are having the rooms renovated and heated, and hope very soon to have these in a better condition than ever.

Big Guns for the Convention.

A special train taking Mr. Coaker and his party, left here Saturday night to attend the F.P.U. Convention at Port Union. Amongst the party are Hons. Halfyard, Barnes, Penney; Messrs. Jennings, Hibbs, Scammel, Sampson, Jones, Winsor, Abbott, Guppy, Targett, Archibald and LeGrow. We understand Dr. Barnes will deliver a lecture on Education, probably reading extracts from the last few issues of the Star and Advocate. According to the Advocate of Saturday Mr. Coaker will attend the Convention, with the laudations of victory decorating his brow. He may, however, return like Napoleon from Waterloo.

Church of St Michael and All Angels.

Thanksgiving Day was fittingly observed at St. Michael's Church by two celebrations of "Our Sacrifice of Praise and Thanksgiving," to which a goodly number of communicants drew near to receive the Blessed Sacrament. The second Eucharist at 11.00 was sung throughout and was a beautiful and reverent Act of Worship. The usual festival procession preceded this service, during which Bishop Heber's hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy," was sung. The Rev. Dr. Facey was the preacher, his text being from the words of Isaiah, "O Lord my God I will extol thee for thou has been very gracious unto me." In the evening the Rev. Canon Field preached from the Gospel of the Day, "Gather up the fragments that remain." During his sermon he announced to the congregation their special reason for thanksgiving, namely the fact that in the past week the "Land Purchasing Fund" had been completed by the signing of deeds for the purchase of the western portion of Buckmaster's Field (at a cost of $4000.00) for the future erection of a new Church and Clergy House. This fund represented the efforts and struggles of many years, and the priest and people of Saint Michael's are to be congratulated on the success of this undertaking. Laus Deo!
