A LONDON audience is fairly enthusiastic when Madame Patti sings, but their enthusiasm is nothing in comparison with that of the Germans. It seems to have culminated at Berlin, when the audience forced themselves on to the stage to kiss Madame Patti's hands and dress, and she had to fight her way through her adoring fans whenever she went off or on the platform.

—Mr. Snell has procured a situation in London and will move to that city. [Exeter Times.]

—Fraleigh's Hotel, at Arva, narrowly escaped destruction by fire at 2:30 Thursday morning. Damage about $150.

The wind was high and the night intensely cold, but the inmates did heroic work in helping the neighbors to check the flames.

—Mr. Wm. Nicholls, London West's treasurer, has been notified by the council to hand over the $904 which Government Commissioner J. B. Laing says he owes the corporation. Mr. Nicholls has not complied, but is considering whether he will fight the claim or not.

—There are various things which point to the acceptance of the electric railway offer as amended by the street railway company. The drivers on the hot-tail city line spend their spare hours on London West's trolley car, receiving pointers as to the proper operation of the motors.

—In the election of officers at the Sons of England convention in Woodstock, Mr. Joseph Hook, of this city, was defeated by Bro. London, of Belleville, for the grand vice-president's chair. A. L. —St. Marys Argus: A mysterious theme, a crowded house, a sympathetic audience and an able speaker made a happy combination in the First Presbyterian Church on Monday evening, when the eloquent and popular young Presbyterian divine, Rev. V. J. Clark, of London, delivered his lecture on "Three Words." Space forbids, could cold ink do justice to the subject as handled by the speaker. The three mysterious words developed under his magnetic touch into "Home, Schoolhouse and Church."

—What might have been a fatal accident occurred yesterday on Richmond street by which Mrs. Highway of London township, was painfully injured. Mrs. Highway and her daughter were driving on Richmond street and when opposite Dufferin avenue the sleigh struck a bank of snow, which caused the horse to run away.

Mrs. Highway was thrown out with great force and badly cut on the head and severely bruised around the shoulder. She was carried into the residence of Mr. Charles Brennan, on Dufferin avenue, where Dr. Jento put half a dozen stitches into the cut in her head. After several hours' rest she was able to proceed home. Mrs. Highway is an elderly lady and the fright and shaking up may have a serious effect.

JOS. DAMBRA,

Center Church, of which Mr. Kern was long a member, conducted a beautiful service. He was assisted by Rev. J. G. Laird. Convalescent Home Notes.

The usual monthly meeting of the Convalescent Home was held on Thursday morning. The members present were: Mrs. Boomer (president), Miss Hamilton (secretary), Mrs. Strong (treasurer), Mrs. Bromner, Mrs. J. Labatt, Mrs. St. John Hyttenrauch, Mrs. Bullen, Mrs. W. J. Reid, and, as visitor, the Rev. Canon Richardson. Of the ten inmates last week in the home, two had left, one for the hospital for medical treatment, and the other was notified that his term had expired. An extension of time was allotted in two other cases; the first, that of a young boy brought in three weeks ago, very ill and weak, and though now much restored, yet requiring further care and nourishment; and the other, also a mere lad, who is as yet quite unfit to earn his living, and is without any other means of support.

Canon Richardson inspected the home and expressed himself greatly gratified with its comforts and management. He said he could not testify too heartily to his appreciation of the good work it is doing and has done during the last six years in our midst. The young girl whose leg was amputated, and who, on entering the home five months ago, could not read or write, can now, thanks to the kind instruction given her by the matron, do both—improved in mind as well as in body. A late inmate has sent to the treasurer $2 to make up $5, as a recognition of the benefit received during her stay in the home, and donations as follows were also gratefully acknowledged: Mrs. J. Labatt, a maintenance card, $20; Mrs. Boomer, ditto, $2; Mrs. Mills, $1; V. Cronyn, $5; Mrs. Macbeth and Mr. Good, milk; Mrs. M. applies and reading matter; Mrs. E. J. Boomer, buns; Mr. Gill, fruit; Mrs. W. J. Reid, ham; Mrs. McLean, oatmeal and beef; Mrs. Boomer, butter and eggs; Mrs. J. Labatt, preserves and boys' clothing; Mrs. Richardson and King's Daughters of the Memorial Church, clothing, etc. In addition to the above, Mrs. St. John Hyttenrauch desires to acknowledge further contributions towards the artificial leg for Lizzie Rice as below: Mrs. G. Harris, $1; King's Daughters of Glenoe, $2; Mr. Everson, 25 cents; May Colerick, 25 cents; a friend, 25 cents; Miss Emma, 25 cents; Mrs. Bullen, 50 cents; Miss Manning, 25 cents; Mrs. Cattermole, $1; Mrs. Davis, 50 cents; Miss Boyle, 25 cents; Mrs. J. Labatt, $3.
