When Justice Meredith took his seat at 10 o'clock this (Tuesday) morning the lawyers and clients in the dispute over the will of the late Hiram C. Comfort, of St. Thomas, were all present. It was ananounced that an endeavor was being made to settle the case. Judge Meredith hinted that he would be very glad if an agreement could be reached. About 12 o'clock Mr. B. B. MRS. DURANT IS CURED

At the present time there are thousands of valuable lives in jeopardy in our country, and men and women are anxiously seeking for help. Many are cruelly suffering and in deep distress. Kidney and liver complaints, heart troubles, dyspepsia, indigestion and rheumatism have brought many to the verge of the grave. Mental anxiety, failures with doctors, and the thought of leaving near and dear ones behind, adds to the weight of agony and physical tortures.

It is the duty of all who know what
