WHAT TO DO WITH INTERCOLONIAL

Minister of Railways Admits Plans for Improving Road Are Being Considered.

Ottawa, Dec. 22.-The Minister of Railways and Canals was asked yesterday as to the correctness of a report that the Intercolonial Railway is to be leased to a private company.

Mr. Graham stated that he has had under consideration the betterment of the management of the Government line and that various proposals looking to that end are under discussion. "Suggestions." ne said, "have been made looking to the placing of the management under a commission of one or more, while, as you have noticed in the papers, some people favor leasing the line to a company." The whole consideration so far has been general and no decision has been arrived at, or is in sight. Mr. Graham added that afer a year's Corn, per cwt. 1 15 to 1 17 experience he finds that some im-ing and Had To Be Destroyed. Toronto, Dec 22.-Plunging headfirst into an opening about four feet square, leading to a cellar window at the rear of Fisher's barber shop, 365 Parliament street, a runaway horse got so firmly lodged that it could not get itself out and had to be shot by a policeman. Its kicking and plunging aroused occupants of the building about 2 o'clock Sunday morning. At first it was thought burglars were trying to break into the place. The horse had broken out of a stable three Pork, per cwt. 8 50 to 8 50 blocks away.
