Which Beset the Youth of Canada the London Conference

The address of yesterday afternoon's ssion of the London Conference was delivered by Rev. Dr. Chown, the provincial secretary of the temperance and moral reform committee of the Methodist Church.

Dr. Chewn spoke very explicitly necessity of a better understanding of what the committee is doing.

The opinions of the people, he said, are gradually changing in that direction, and they are beginning to realize "Behind every great moral reform there are hundreds of silent sufferers, he said.

"Dr. Chown dealt at length with the various features of the work of the department. The opium traffic and the cigarette habit were getting a dangerous hold on the young people of Canada, Mr. E. H. Harriman, the great railroad magnate, had once said: I would as soon go to a lunatic asyum for my employees as accept Prison Reform.

In the matter of prison reform Dr. Chown pleaded for the church to set itself to work for the indeterminate and probationary sentence. Prisoners are human, he said, and will respond to their better nature if they are treated like human beings, not beasts. Dr. Chown closed his address with strong appeal for co-operation, on the part of the church in the work of the association.
